

The Amazing Son In Law ( The Charismatic Charlie Wade )

Chapter 3650 )

Charlie's words made Abbas's expression suddenly startled!

Immediately afterwards, he clenched his teeth and said coldly: "The surname is wade! Who gives you the courage! Dare to be disrespectful to the spirit of my parents in the sky!"

Charlie sneered: "I didn't expect that the so-called Hallmaster of the Wanlong Palace is nothing more than a double-standard dog!"

After that, Charlie said again: "It is you who have been yelling, wanting to thwart my parents, and allow you to be disrespectful to the spirit of my parents in the sky, so that I can't be allowed to use the way of being a human, to treat his body? Why? Are your fu*king fists harder than me? Or are you better than me?"

Abbas suddenly felt guilty and didn't know how to answer.

He knew that he first brought up the matter of frustration and ashes.

But at that time, he really didn't expect that the Wade Family would have such a top expert.

He thought that he was completely crushing the Wade Family.

In this situation, it can only be said that he shot himself in the foot by shooting up a rock.

Seeing him not knowing how to answer for a while, Charlie sneered, then kicked Salmaan who was kneeling on the ground, and said lightly: "Come on, you come to judge, if I raise the ashes of your palace master and his parents, Does he take the blame for himself?"

Salmaan didn't dare to disobey Charlie at all. At the same time, he felt that his fate today was all thanks to Abbas, so he said without thinking: "He is the one who takes the blame! If he didn't want to provoke these things, I would not. It ended up like this..."

Charlie looked at Abbas and asked him, "Have you heard? Even your subordinates say that you are responsible for it!"

Abbas gritted his teeth with a black face and said, "Charlie! If you insult my parents again, I will fight with you today! Although you are very strong, I am not a vegetarian!"

Charlie snorted disdainfully, and said: "The surname Wan, you will die, you are not qualified! Don't blame me for not giving you the opportunity to leave your parents' coffin, and I will let you go, otherwise, you guys today if one counts as one, you have to die!"

Abbas only felt that blood was rising, and gritted his teeth and shouted: "Skills can be killed but not insulted! Even if I die, I will never let you insult my parents!!!"

Charlie nodded and said indifferently: "Then I can wait for you to die before insulting. Anyway, the result is the same. By the way, I will tell you that I am the person who holds the most grudges. Double the return! If I am in a bad mood, after I kill you, I will put you and your parents together to ashes!"

As soon as these words came out, a blond white man next to him said in extremely fluent Chinese: "Hall Master! I have tolerated him for a long time! It's a big deal, let's get rid of him first! If you don't help, we will fight with him!"

At this time, it is the Golden Retriever Lion King, one of the four kings of the Wanlong Palace.

As soon as his words came out, many of the soldiers in the Ten Thousand Dragon Palace who had been suppressing them all immediately agreed.

Many of them have received the favor of Abbas, and even Abbas's apprentice, seeing Charlie humiliate Abbas so much, it is naturally unacceptable.

Charlie's face was indifferent at this time, and his toes lightly kicked on the ground at random, and a stone was wrapped in a powerful spirit, and it flew out at an extremely fast speed!

Immediately afterwards, the stone directly smashed the golden lion king's forehead into a blood hole that pierced back and forth!

In just an instant, the Golden Retriever Lion King, one of the four kings of the Wanlong Palace, died on the spot!

Who would have thought that Charlie would suddenly attack him, and as soon as he made a move, he would kill him!

No one can even think of it!

Like Salmaan, the Golden Retriever Lion King, who is also a six-star warrior, was pierced into his brain by a stone kicked up by the opponent!

At this moment, the soldiers of the Wanlong Palace who just wanted to embrace Charlie desperately took a few steps back subconsciously.

At the same time, the urge to fight Charlie desperately in their hearts was also frightened by Charlie's hand just now!
