

The Amazing Son In Law ( The Charismatic Charlie Wade )

Chapter 3684 )

The kneeling Wade Family members did not expect Charlie to be so cruel.

They are all a family member, and they are all grandchildren and grandchildren of the Wade Family. He actually wants to imprison everyone in Yeling Mountain and force everyone to be filial piety for their ancestors and ancestors for three years!

For these rich people who are accustomed to pampering and enjoyment, even three days are unacceptable, let alone three years!

As a result, everyone hurriedly looked at Lord Wade, looked at him eagerly, and waited for him to say something kind to everyone.

Lord Wade looked at the pitiful eyes of this group of people, and he felt a little compassionate in his heart.

He did support Charlie to punish these spineless descendants, but he didn't expect Charlie to play so hard as soon as he got started.

Therefore, he couldn't help but said to Charlie: "Charlie, letting them be filial piety for their ancestors and ancestors is indeed a good punishment, but three years, will it be too long?"

"Long time?" Charlie said earnestly: "Don't forget, what ideas they are playing one by one! They secretly buy good clothes without communicating with you, indicating that they want to wait until today when you face Abbas. If you turn to the other side, what is this intention? This is to put you to death. After watching you die, you will step on your body to turn to the enemy! Do you think that for such a person, the punishment of three years of filial piety is too long? "

Lord Wade's expression suddenly stunned.

He also understands this truth.

However, he deliberately did not think about this level.

But if you really get to the bottom, the truth is actually what Charlie said.

Corran Wade cried at this time and said, "Dad! We really don't mean this, don't get me wrong, Dad!"

Others also pleaded, hoping that the old man would not be affected by Charlie's words.

Lord Wade sighed, waved his hand, and said to himself: "I am old, my heart is softened, and the benevolence of women has become more and more... Forget it, don't care!"

Having said that, he said to Charlie: "Charlie, whether three years or five years, it's all up to you!"

Charlie nodded and said faintly: "If you accept it, don't say a word. If you say one more word, it will be regarded as not accepting. The second option is to go to Madagascar like Jon Wade!"

As soon as this word came out, everyone immediately closed their mouths.

At this time, no one dared to touch Charlie's mold.

Because Charlie is not only the Patriarch of the Wade Family, but also the new owner of Wanlong Palace. With his comprehensive strength set here, no one dares to disobey him.

Seeing that this group of people were as honest as quail, Charlie nodded in satisfaction, and said: "Since you all have no opinion, the three years will start today!"

For Charlie, the kneeling group of Wade Family members had no value to the Wade Family.

This group of people has little ability and no contribution, just like the second generation of the prodigal son of the top rich.

The old man used to have a deep affection, even if he knew that these people were not capable, he still felt that they were his own blood. Of course, he had to be spoiled and cared for.

But in Charlie's view, this group of people are all the worms of the Wade Family.

Moreover, it is still a bunch of boneless worms.

After Charlie took over the Wade Family, the first thing to do was to find a way to remove the group of people from their respective posts, so that they would not be indiscriminately filling their numbers and eating vegetarian meals.

However, after all, these people are all of the Wade Family's blood, and they are all grandchildren and grandchildren. If they don't make any serious mistakes, it's really not easy to get them down.

If it is strong, it will cause the rejection of everyone in the Wade Family, so that the outside senses will be very poor.
