

The Amazing Son In Law (The Charismatic Charlie Wade)

Chapter 3687)

Hearing Charlie's order, Abbas immediately said loudly: "Mr. Wade, don't worry, your subordinates will make arrangements immediately!"

Charlie nodded and sneered: "They thought that the Wade Family was over and wanted to separate their ties with the Wade Family. If the Wade Family asked them to come, they would definitely not come, but if the Wanlong Palace asked them to come, I believe they certainly don't dare to make times."

Stephen Thompson asked hurriedly, "Master, what happened after they came? As you said, let them kneel up to Yeling Mountain to confess?"

"It's impossible to spare them so simply." Charlie waved his hand and said, "Later today, I will receive news outside, thinking that the Wade Family has been defeated and accepted the harsh conditions of the Wanlong Palace, so when the time comes, Wanlongdian directly asked them to take out half of their property, I believe they dare not give it up!"

Lord Wade raised his eyebrows and exclaimed: "Charlie, you...you are going to drink their blood and eat their meat..."

Charlie said blankly: "I want to drink their blood and eat their meat, but it's not me who came forward, but Wanlong Palace came forward!"

After speaking, Charlie said again: "After Wanlongdian gets their assets, they will use the channel of offshore companies to pour the money into Wade's house. They can get some money and buy dozens of more freighters. If there are more people, it should be no problem to get two or three hundred billion."

Charlie Abbas was immortal, and he brought Wanlongdian into his command, in order to let Wanlongdian do the dirty work for himself.

I have to admit that the deterrence of the Wanlong Temple is still very strong.

Among other things, Abbas asked Salmaan to put forward so many harsh conditions yesterday, including half of the family property and the entire Yeling Mountain had to give up, and he had to put on hemp and filial piety and kneel to greet him.

However, Corran and Myles, a group of timid and incompetent rats, are still rushing to agree?

Now, let Wanlongdian make the same request as the other Wade Family collaterals, they will not dare not follow the high probability.

Lord Wade hesitated for a moment with a complicated expression, but quickly figured it out, and said, "Okay! Just let it go! These ungrateful things are mostly supported by the Wade Family to have their scale today, but the Wade Family is in trouble. They ran so fast one by one, it should be a price for them!"

Cash Wade's expression on the side was very nervous, and he said: "Charlie...I forced them to leave my son and grandson. I can't bear them to stay and take risks, so I ask you to hold your hands up to them because I didn't run."

Charlie nodded and said earnestly: "It is really touching that Grandpa Second can stay. As you wish, I won't pursue it at your home."

After speaking, Charlie said with a cold expression: "But except for the second grandfather's house, no one else can be exempted!"

Cash Wade was completely relieved, and while wiping his sweat, he said, "Charlie, thank you so much..."

Charlie waved his hand and said to Abbas: "Abbas, I am going to Northern Europe tonight. I will definitely not be back at 8 o'clock tomorrow morning. Then you will perform a one-man show for them at the foot of Yeling Mountain. One by one, they willingly gave half of their assets to the Wanlong Temple, and they couldn't let them go after the money was given, so they continued to kneel until I came back!"

Abbas said, "Mr. Wade, don't worry, your subordinates will do it!"

After speaking, he hurriedly asked: "Mr. Wade, your subordinates know more about the situation in Europe and America. If you are going to Northern Europe this time, do you want your subordinate to accompany you?"

Charlie waved his hand: "No, you still have your parents to be buried. Tomorrow let the Wade Family's foreign relatives kneel down, and you can take care of the funeral of your parents."

Abbas respectfully said: "Subordinates obey orders!"

Charlie nodded slightly: "Okay, I'll leave everything to you about the Wade Family's relatives."

After speaking, he looked at Lord Wade again and said lightly: "Grandpa, this time the ancestor worship ceremony will save those tedious and exaggerated processes! The ancestor worship is mainly sincere. If the heart is not sincere, even what's the point of the ceremony no matter how grand and grandiose it is?"
