

Baby alliance: helping daddy get a rich mommy chapter 457

On the way back, the officers were discussing with each other. "Helen does not seem to be lying. I have checked the medicine John took, and they were all exactly the same as the doctor's prescription.

According to Helen's statement, she gives regular doses every day, and the doses are also exactly the same as what the doctor prescribed. From the maids, we also learned that Helen is a very careful and patient person."

"I did not find any problems with the maids I interrogated either. There are several maids who have access to the medicine, but they don't seem to know anything."

"It seems we need to continue the investigation. If the murderer is not hiding in this house, then we can only say that this murderer is a master at hiding."

"Leave two men here to watch this place and see if there are any suspicious movements, especially by Helen and a few maids who have access to the medicine. Oh, and that Chris Fowler too. He's also another main suspect now."

"Okay, I've already left people behind."

As the officers left, Helen's face suddenly sank, and she immediately called Yoel to her room. Then, she began to pace back and forth. "What should we do now? Now that we're in this situation, they will not rest until they find out the truth! I didn't expect Selena to be so capable of getting out of it! I thought you said that the drug could not be discovered. How did they even discover it?"

Helen spoke in a low voice as she was afraid of being heard. Right now, she could not be bothered by people gossiping about her relationship with Yoel. She guessed that the police must have left someone here to monitor her, so she definitely could not meet him.

"What are you panicking about? We just follow the plan." Yoel did not panic at all. Instead, he looked very relaxed. "But the most important thing isn't this. It's that we must put Chris in the position of the President of Fowler Corporation! Only when Chris becomes the heir can this matter land well in our hands."

"No! If Chris becomes the president at this time and takes control of the company, then the suspicion on him will be even greater!"

Helen was not going to take this risk, as what she ultimately cared about most was her son.

"Women are too soft! If you don't let Chris inherit the Fowler Corporation, won't that be suspicious too? Then, people would say that he's so afraid to become the president because he's guilty!"

Hearing that, Helen could not say anything.

"But this matter about John—"

"I've already said that we'll do this according to plan. I will deal with it. Tomorrow, take Chris to the company and have him officially take over the Fowler Corporation. I will take care of everything on this side." Yoel walked over and took Helen's hand. "Don't worry."

When Chris walked into the corridor, he suddenly heard the sound of crying coming from somewhere nearby. So, he followed the sound and found that it was the family's maid, Ruby, crying.

Ruby was responsible for serving John, and she was also very beautiful. As she was only in her thirties, she was still full of charm. She had worked at the Fowler Residence since she was a teenager and was highly regarded for her practicality and willingness to work.

"What are you crying about here?"

Ruby hurriedly wiped her tears and stood up with her head hung low. Then, she bowed slightly toward Chris. "Young Master Chris."

She was one of the few maids of the Fowler Family that Chris knew. He stopped her and continued to ask, "What happened? You can tell me about it. If I can help you, I will definitely help."

Ruby raised her red and teary eyes. "Young Master Chris... Will you talk to Mr. Wade? Is it okay for me to draw a few months' salaries in advance? Due to the death of Old Mr. Fowler, this month's salary that was supposed to be paid has not been paid until now. Will you talk to him?"
