

Baby alliance: helping daddy get a rich mommy chapter 474

Wyatt hurriedly called Jude. She came to her senses when her phone started ringing. Seeing the number on the screen, she then realized that Wyatt had been waiting for her, so she quickly picked up the call. "Wyatt."

"Jude, I-I've bought condoms. Where are you? Please don't be mad at me. I really couldn't find it..." he stammered as he was nervous.

It was then that Jude recalled they were supposed to have sex on this day. Biting her lip, she didn't know how she should explain herself. She knew that he would be heartbroken if she told him the truth. "I'm fine. I suddenly had work to do."

"Oh..." he replied in a disappointed manner.

Jude knew that she shouldn't lie to him, and she had never done that to him before, but she couldn't bring herself to tell him the truth at that moment.

"When will you get off work? I'll go fetch you."

"There's no need. It's too late now. I'll be staying in a hotel for the following days. I'll call you when I'm free."

"Alright," Wyatt replied dejectedly. "Are you really not mad at me?"

"No."

"Okay. Take care."

After the call ended, Jude heaved a sigh as she was engulfed in a sense of guilt. Waiting outside the operating room, all she wished was for Satan to survive and nothing else.

When the light above the door was turned off, she raised her head. She tried to get up, but she realized that her legs had turned to jelly. Seeing that the doctor had stepped out and was looking around, she pressed her hands on the armrest and stood up. "Doctor, how is he?"

"Are you his family member?"

In fact, they had nothing to do with each other. Not knowing how to respond to the doctor, Jude could only say, "I'm not..."

"Please contact his family members, then. Things are getting bad for him. Although he's successfully rescued, he still hasn't regained consciousness. We'll send him to the intensive care unit now. It'll depend on his willpower whether he'll be able to awaken again."

Jude's legs turned limp as she slumped onto the bench again.

"What is your relationship with him?" the doctor asked. "You'd better call his family members now. An agreement has to be signed at this critical moment, so you can't do that if you're not related to him."

With trembling hands, Jude fished out her phone and called Selena. "Selena, do you have Hades' phone number? Satan is involved in a car accident."

When Selena reached the hospital, Jude was sitting just outside the intensive care unit. She wasn't allowed to visit Satan, so there was nothing else she could do but wait outside.

"What's going on?" Selena rushed to the hospital right after the call ended. Seeing how devastated Jude was, Selena was shocked.

Jude shook her head. "I don't know why he's in this city or the reason he's involved in a car accident. He's always been an excellent driver."

Satan's driving skills were unquestionable because that was part of their training in the organization. However, Jude didn't understand why his car was moving in the wrong direction on a viaduct and how the accident happened.

As someone who had gone through this before, Selena understood that Satan must have been troubled by love matters. After she took a seat beside Jude, the latter plunged into her embrace.

"Have you contacted Hades? Tell him to come over. The doctor said that things are getting bad for him, so he might..." Jude didn't finish her words.
