

Baby alliance: helping daddy get a rich mommy chapter 523

Her reminder was really straight to the point. Still, Selena felt helpless. Since Jane already knew that I'm married to Pierre, why would she still fear that I'd steal her man?

"It doesn't matter. It's just a form of address anyway."

"Mrs. Fowler, I know that you're well known in Astoria and Springvale as the best wedding gown designer in Eastern countries, so can I ask for you to design a wedding gown for me?" Jane spoke in English this time.

"Are you getting married, Miss Oberlin?"

Right then, Jane leaned on Jason's shoulder with a contented look. However, there wasn't any ounce of happiness on Jason's face.

"Jason and I are getting married soon. As I really like Eastern cultures, I was hoping that I could have a wedding gown with Eastern elements. Can you design a red gown for me?"

"We call that Astara dresses here." Selena corrected her.

"Well, they're gorgeous." Even though Jane was asking her for help, her arrogant and ignorant attitude really made her feel uncomfortable.

If Jason weren't involved, Selena really didn't want to help her. However, since she owed Jason a favor, she could now repay it through Jane.

"Jane, I don't think that'll be suitable because Mr. Fowler and Miss Yard are here for a vacation, and they may not have time for this. Moreover, Miss Yard has injured her ankle and needs to rest," Jason said with a stern face.

Immediately, Jane got upset as she couldn't sit with the fact that Jason kept standing up for Selena.

Right then, Jason's phone rang. After answering the call, he frowned, as if something had happened.

"Jane, I need to settle something, so I have to leave immediately. Miss Yard, I'm really sorry about this."

"It's fine. You should go do what you need to do. We will meet each other if there's a chance in the future."

However, Jane didn't look like she wanted to leave. "Jason, since I'm having a nice conversation with Mrs. Fowler right now, I think I'll stay back a bit longer. You should go first."

This was Selena's first time experiencing how shameful a woman could be when she wanted to.

As Jason really looked like he was in a hurry, he gave Selena a look and nodded before leaving. It was obvious that he knew what kind of a person Jane was, but it wasn't appropriate for him to call her out as she was still his fiancée after all.

After Jason left, the smile on Jane's face disappeared immediately and was replaced with anger and disdain.

"Miss Oberlin, what kind of a wedding gown would you like for me to design?" Although Jane wasn't likeable at all, Selena tried her best to maintain her composure as there was no point trying to pick a fight with a little girl.

"I'm already engaged to Jason." Arrogance was plastered all over Jane's face when she talked about Jason, as if getting married to him was her proudest achievement.

"I knew that." Selena could already tell that they were engaged as Jane was already talking about wedding gowns.

"So, I want you to stay away from him."

Selena chuckled lightly. "Miss Oberlin, I think that you have misunderstood. I'm already married." Then, she raised her hand up to flash the diamond ring on her ring finger. "I have three adorable children as well as a husband whom I love very much."

However, a disdainful smile appeared on Jane's face. "I'm obsessed with the East. I really love Eastern culture, food, as well as... gossip. I've heard a lot about you in Astoria, and I know that you're a very manipulative woman, seeing as you were able to get to where you are now. I also heard that you had a boyfriend that you dumped. All in all, you have complicated relationships with men."
