

Baby alliance: helping daddy get a rich mommy chapter 530

Ever since Juniper got sick, both Pierre and Selena had been spoiling their daughter even more.

“Juniper, there’s absolutely nothing fun about a birthday party.”

“Come on! I really want to go!” She pouted before lowering her gaze.

“Alright, alright. We can go.” Pierre immediately surrendered.

He really couldn’t stand the sight of his precious daughter getting angry and pouting.

Right then, Selena, who was observing Pierre, could only shake her head, as her daughter would surely be spoiled in the future.

Still, she was somewhat jealous of Juniper as well because why hadn’t Pierre treated her like this whenever she wanted something?

A while after receiving the invitation card, Selena received a call from Jane.

“Mrs. Fowler, have you gotten my invitation card?”

“I have.”

“That’s great! You must attend it by then! Also, can I make a request as a birthday girl?”

Forcing herself to be patient, Selena replied, “Of course you can.”

However, she was facepalming mentally. Are all Yucarian girls so shameless?

“I’m guessing that you’re surely stuck at thinking of what present to buy me, so you won’t mind if I request a birthday present from you, am I right?”

“Sure.” Although Selena was smiling, she was already cursing Jane in her mind.

“I want a gown that’s designed by you. I know that there isn’t much time left, so I don’t mind if it is any gown from your boutique. I really like all of the gowns that you sell, and I’ll wear them to greet all of my guests on that day itself. What do you think?”

“That’s fine by me.”

All the gowns sold in Forever Gown were very expensive, and they were all exclusively made. None of the gowns were for sale, so even Selena had to return the red gown after she wore it. This woman truly wasn’t holding back!

“Thank you so much!” Jane immediately hung up.

At the same time, the smile on Selena’s face vanished. However, Pierre, who was sitting at the side, started laughing. “Since when are you so two-faced?”

Nevertheless, Selena looked really done. “You don’t even know how much of a cruel person Jane is. She’s the Oberlin Family’s most spoiled princess, so it’s better if we don’t offend her, but still, she honestly has no shame!”

Joaquin, who overheard everything Selena and Pierre said, kept quiet. During the night, he went back to his room after having dinner and took his laptop out before he started getting busy.

Right then, Juniper snuck in quietly. “Jojo, what are you doing?”

“I’m making a layout,” Joaquin answered while his eyes were completely fixated on his laptop screen.

“What kind of layout?”

“A layout to get revenge for you. I must make that woman pay for what she has done.” The stern facial expression on Joaquin’s face unquestionably resembled Pierre’s.

Seeing how serious her brother was, Juniper squinted before giggling. “That’s great!”

However, she stopped giggling after a while. “But, wouldn’t that be too risky, Jojo? We are just kids, after all.”

How could they do anything to adults when they were just kids?

“That’s why no one would ever suspect us because we are kids.” Joaquin was confident as Juniper nodded vigorously. “I’m sure that your plan will be successful!”

After giving Juniper a look, he started smiling. For Juniper, my plan must succeed this time!

On the other hand, Selena made a trip to her store to pick out a pink gown before altering and redesigning it again. Then, she bought a huge gift box to fit the gown and wrapped it as Jane’s birthday present.
