

Baby alliance: helping daddy get a rich mommy chapter 634

However, Meredith had lost a part of herself in the brothel. The gleam in her eyes was completely snuffed out. Since then, she had been a drunken mess. Megan shook her head, then she closed the door. "I know you're upset, Merry, but what's done is done. We have to accept our reality." Life in prison made Megan grow as a person.

"Reality?" Meredith sneered. "The reality is I used to be a big star who was adored by millions, but now? Now I'm just a dirty sl*t who's f*cked a million men. I feel disgusted about myself!" She started crying, and Megan hugged her.

She let Meredith cry for a while before pushing her sister's hair away from her face. "I know all about your dream, Merry. Don't worry. Once everything has settled down, I should already have enough money to send you to Hefalia for a cosmetic surgery. You can work in the entertainment industry again. With your acting skills, you might just become as popular as you were."

A little spark lit up in Meredith's eyes. "Really, Megan?"

"Of course. You're my sister, after all. It'll be good for me if you're popular."

They smiled at each other.

"Please don't give up on yourself, Merry. There's always light at the end of the tunnel."

Meredith nodded, but Megan sighed, much to Meredith's confusion. Megan's a rich lady now. Jimmy's nice to her. Yeah, his family's a b*tch, but Megan's living the high life now. She has caviar for breakfast. "You seem down, Megan."

"Just thinking about how fickle life is. One moment you might be the richest person on the planet, but you might be dead the next."

"What's wrong? Did Jimmy do something?"

"No. But something happened. Know who I ran into in Yucaria?"

"Tell me."

"Linda Dunn."

Meredith knew who Linda was; she was Selena's assistant. Wherever Selena went, she went, but she never saw her again after some time. Meredith always wondered what happened to her.

"She's a part of the Murrays now. I don't know what happened, but she wasn't lying. I asked the locals."

"But she was just an assistant! What gives? How did she even manage that?" Some people were an overnight success, while some, like them, fell from grace.

"That's not important. The important thing is she has beef with Selena, and she wants my help in taking her down."

Meredith was excited to hear that. “Really? Why didn’t you take her offer then? Selena turned our lives into a living hell. I’ve always wanted to get back at her.”

“Don’t even think about it, Merry!” Megan admonished her sister. “Do you have any idea how powerful she is? She’s the richest woman in the nation, and she’s Pierre’s wife. Do you think you stand a chance?”

At that, Meredith turned away. “Yeah, I do. A slim one, but still a chance.”

“You foolish girl. Did you forget how you got taken down? Do you want to experience that again? You were sold to a brothel the last time. If she catches you again, you could be killed.”

Meredith didn’t like what Megan was saying, but it was the truth—Selena did take her down, and completely so.