

Baby alliance: helping daddy get a rich mommy chapter 647

“Okay!” The burly men began to play, while Selena felt her vision getting blurry in front of her. She struggled to open her eyes, and when she did, she saw a man undressing while walking toward herself.

“Don’t...” Selena murmured. “Don’t!” She then shouted. “Mrs. Fowler, are you okay?” A man stood before her. “Don’t touch me!” Selena immediately shielded herself and made a defensive posture.

The man hurriedly said, “Mrs. Fowler, we were instructed by President Fowler to protect you and your children’s safety. Don’t be afraid.”

Only then did Selena come to her senses and realize that she was in her car. Juniper was placing a needle into her hand, while Joaquin and Jameson were also there, both staring at her with worried faces. “Mommy, are you okay?”

“Yes.” Juniper turned the needle in Selena’s hand slightly. “Mommy, does it hurt?”

“It’s okay.” “Mrs. Fowler, we’ve dealt with those people just now, but we couldn’t get anything much from them. They just said that someone instructed them to do so, but they weren’t sure who that person was. Looking at their appearance, they should be the homeless in this neighborhood,” the bodyguard said.

Selena frowned slightly. “I don’t think you’ll be able to find out who that person is. That person is very cunning and familiar with me.”

First of all, this person must have known about Selena’s habit of picking up her children here. Furthermore, the person was even aware of her personality and knew that she would not be willing to let the children walk a far distance, so she would choose to park the car in the back. Secondly, they must have known that Juniper had leukemia before and used the excuse to ensure that she would definitely open the car window. Besides, they must also have known that she could fight, and a few burly men might not win against her in a fight. Therefore, in order to ensure that nothing could go wrong, they first drugged her so that she would become weak.

This person is too scary! I must find a way to uncover their identity! Otherwise, my children and I will always be in danger.

“Did you just say that President Fowler sent you?” Selena was confused. Did Pierre come back?

A glimmer of hope rose in her heart at that thought.

“No. President Fowler gave us an instruction before he left. He ordered us to secretly protect the safety of you and your children. Moreover, we cannot get too close or be noticed by you, lest you feel uncomfortable by our presence.”

If there hadn’t been an incident today, these people certainly wouldn’t have been noticed by her. They were all dressed in civilian clothes, and indeed would never be thought of as bodyguards.

A trace of disappointment flashed across Selena’s eyes when she realized that Pierre didn’t come back. But when she was reminded that he had made such a thoughtful arrangement before he left, she felt warmth surging in her heart. Fortunately, he has made such an arrangement. Otherwise, I would've been...

She could not even bear to think about the consequences.

"Mrs. Fowler, how should we deal with these people?"

"Send them to the police station. There is nothing we can ask them anyway. Let the police check their criminal records; I'm sure they don't have clean records."

"Okay." The bodyguard made a gesture to several other bodyguards, and someone immediately went to carry out the instructions.

"Mrs. Fowler, do you want to go home now? We'll send you back."

"Okay."

Back home, Juniper gave Selena an acupuncture session, and Selena felt much better after that.

"Mommy, I don't know exactly what you've been poisoned with, but I just followed the usual method to help you detoxify. Are you feeling better?"

Selena stroked Juniper's cheek. "I'm much better, Juniper. Thanks."

"Mommy, you don't have to thank me." Juniper squinted at her mother and smiled.
