

Baby alliance: helping daddy get a rich mommy chapter 721

Jude raised her gaze and asked, "Am I an evil woman?" "No, Jude. That's not true." Jude had been psychologically burdened while she was with Wyatt. However, after she left him, she still couldn't be relieved of her burden.

"Alright. I'm sure Dr. Spencer understands. Otherwise, he wouldn't have let you go, right? He won't blame you." Jude put on a bitter smile. "Just because he won't blame me, it doesn't mean I should hurt him. Selena, I'm upset."

It was the first time Selena heard her speaking in such a dejected manner. In the past, Jude was a high-spirited woman who never appeared sorrowful or frustrated.

"What will you do next, then? Are you going to look for Satan?"

Jude shook her head. "If I look for Satan now, it'll be akin to betraying Wyatt. I really can't bring myself to do that." As she spoke, she patted around herself. "Do you have a cigarette?"

Seeing how dispirited Jude was, Selena said, "I'll get you Pierre's."

After Selena returned with the cigarettes, Jude picked up one and lit it up before taking a puff. "Selena, I just want to focus on my work now and not think about other matters."

Selena pulled Jude into her embrace and patted the latter's back. "Alright, stop thinking about it. Both of us should focus on work and earn more money."

After that, Jude settled in the villa Selena used to live in. They were going to resume the production of the drama. Mia had been kicked out of the production, and her character was downgraded to a supporting one. Meanwhile, Jude had been upgraded from a supporting role to the female lead.

By doing so, the production team would incur less loss. They had put a lot of effort into the production of this drama, so they wouldn't want to stop shooting just because of Mia.

On the other hand, Jude had a discussion with her manager. She had just returned to showbiz, so she was bound to attract criticism for taking on the leading role at this point. If her acting skills were questioned, it would make things worse in an already bad situation. However, if she managed to pull it off, it would mean a new spring for her career.

Jude's manager suggested that she should give it a shot, so she decided to focus on shooting the drama now.

In the Murray Residence in Yucaria, Danny appeared to be anxious when he rushed into Jerry's room. At that time, Jerry was holding Lindsay's hands as he spoke to her. Danny said, "Sir, something has happened."

Since Lindsay was stricken with an illness, Jerry had become a calmer person when dealing with most problems. "What's the matter?"

Danny took a look at Lindsay and remained silent. Seeing that, Jerry rose from the chair and stepped out of the room. "What happened, Danny?"

"It's Young Master. Not long after he got off the plane, he..."

"He what?"

"He got involved in a car accident."

At that instant, Jerry felt his mind buzzing and turning blank. "H-How could it..." he stammered.

Danny hurriedly held Jerry's hands to support his weight. "Don't worry. He's alright for now. He's now in the intensive care unit after he was saved by the doctors."

Upon hearing that, Jerry could be at ease a little. "Thank goodness he's still alive..."

"However, he's been severely injured as he has suffered a comminuted fracture in one of his legs, so he has to stay in Astoria for a future operation. I'm afraid he can't come back for now," Danny explained.

"What have we done to deserve this kind of treatment?" After that, Jerry gathered up all the Murrays.

Naturally, Jocelyn was the most anxious person among them. Upon learning that her son got involved in a car accident, she passed out on the spot. It wasn't until she was fed with some aspirin that she regained consciousness.
