

Baby alliance: helping daddy get a rich mommy chapter 727

In the darkness of the night, Meredith escaped from the house. She knew that Megan did not come after her, and she had also taken her phone off the sofa when she left. Just when she thought her future was doomed, a phone call came and gave her new hope.

When Meredith arrived at the appointed place, she felt a little cold. She had been in such a hurry to escape from the house that she didn't even put on a pair of shoes, and she was still wearing her pajamas. Finally, she heard the sound of a car arriving. However, she did not dare to go forward recklessly but quietly waited until she saw Linda getting out of the car. Only then did she walk forward.

"Why did you invite me to a place like this? I want you to find me a place to stay!" Meredith used a commanding tone.

But Linda coldly snorted. "What makes you think I will obediently listen to you?"

Hearing that, Meredith instantly got angry. "Don't forget that I have dirt on you. If I tell Old Master Murray about the truth, you'll be finished!"

Linda smiled slightly at her. "Yes, we are now in the same boat. What are you going to do next?"

"I'll hide for a while. Considering the situation I am in now, it's really not appropriate for me to go out and show my face, but don't worry, if I say I want Selena's life, I will definitely want her life!" Meredith gritted her teeth, feeling vicious.

"Is that so? Then when you rest, think hard about how exactly you can kill Selena."

"But before I can do that, you should send me to a hotel."

Linda looked around. "What are you in a hurry for? I asked you to come here because there's something I need here."

"What do you need?" Meredith looked at Linda skeptically.

"My grandfather said that there is an heirloom of the Murray Family hidden here, and this time I was asked to come over to get it."

There was only a lake here, so how could there be some heirloom treasure hidden here?

"Right here?"

"Yes," Linda said as she walked toward the lake while Meredith followed behind her. Just when Meredith was about to reach the edge of the lake, Linda suddenly turned around, grabbed her arm, and pushed her into the lake, causing her to fall into the water.

Meredith could not swim, so she kept struggling in the water. "Help..."

"No matter how loud you shout, no one will rescue you. Meredith, do you think I will let you live?" Linda looked at Meredith struggling in the water. She would never allow Meredith to live because the latter had dirt on her. Sooner or later, Meredith would blackmail her, so she would never keep such a person around for the sake of her secret.

As for what was not done yet, she would do it herself.

In the water, Meredith struggled some more before her body slowly sank until there was no more movement. Only then was Linda relieved to leave.

After getting her period, Selena was in a bad mood, so she stayed at home for a few days and was too lazy to move. Hiding in the study, she looked at the photos of Juniper as a child. On her side, she only had photos of Juniper because most of the photos of Joaquin and Jameson on Pierre's side were taken by people hired by John. Most of them were traditional and formal photos, such as 100-day-old photos and one-year-old photos, and all were taken by professional photographers. Rarely were there daily candid photos.

After Selena came to live in the Fowler Residence, the three little ones' photos were merged together. As she looked at the little ones' childhood photos, she felt much better.

At this moment, Juniper quietly sneaked into the room. "Mommy."

She climbed onto Selena's lap and saw the photos on the table. "Mommy, do you really want a little baby exactly like us?"

"Silly girl, how can there be two little babies exactly like each other in this world?"

"Mommy, don't be unhappy. My master said that to successfully have a little baby, you have to keep a happy mood and let nature take its course. The more you want it, the less chance you will have it."
