

Baby alliance: helping daddy get a rich mommy chapter 728

Selena looked at Juniper's innocent, smiling face, and then she also revealed a smile. Perhaps she herself was too anxious; she had always wanted to get pregnant but neglected her children and husband. I guess I've indeed been rather thoughtless all this while...

"Okay, I'll remember that." "Yeah! In fact, it doesn't matter if you don't have a little baby. We already have three children in the family, and it's already a lot!" Juniper comforted Selena.

Now, Selena could no longer treat Juniper as a child. Although Juniper's medical skills were not advanced enough yet, she was still a student of Andy Werner, and thus she had learned many things. So, from Juniper, Selena also realized that it might really be difficult for her to get pregnant.

Whatever, if I can't have a baby, I can't have a baby. Who doesn't have some regrets in life?

"I'm in a good mood today. Why don't we go make a cake?"

"Okay, okay!"

Then, Selena and her children went to the kitchen to make a cake. When Pierre came back with a stony face, Selena noticed at a glance that something was wrong. Thus, when the children were eating the cake, she came to Pierre's side.

"What's wrong?"

"Found her."

Selena did not react in time for a moment, and just when she wanted to ask, she realized that he should have found Meredith.

"Where was she found?"

"In the lake."

"In the lake?"

"She's dead."

Selena hated Meredith, but when she heard that the other woman had died, her heart still missed a beat. This woman just died like that?

"How did she die?"

"The autopsy report says she drowned, and from the scene analysis, they said she lost her footing and drowned. Because the time of death is estimated to be in the middle of the night, the guess is that she went there at night, and it was too dark then. Hence, she did not see the road clearly, and as a result, she fell into the lake and drowned." Pierre secretly clenched his fists.

Great, all my efforts have gone to waste! Tsk! This is freaking annoying... How could Meredith die just like that?

Although he also wanted to kill her after he found her, her death was too easy of a way out for her.

“Are you suspecting that she did not lose her footing?” Selena sensed Pierre’s mind.

“She is not a fool. What is she doing running to the lake in the middle of the night? I suspect that someone asked her to go to the lake and then killed her, but who would kill her?”

Someone flashed through Selena’s mind. It couldn’t be Megan, right? If Megan knew that she had been used by Meredith and that even her good life was ruined by Meredith in the first place, she would definitely hate this younger sister of hers to death.

“What are you thinking about?” Pierre saw that Selena was a bit flustered and hurriedly asked.

“I know who it is.”

“Who?”

“Megan.”

“How is that possible? She killed her sister?” Pierre found it unbelievable.

But Selena sighed. “If that’s legitimately the case, then Meredith really did have it coming. She deserves to die and doesn’t deserve sympathy. Since she’s dead, there’s no need for you to pursue the matter anymore.”

Although Selena felt that both Megan and Meredith were terrible people, Megan had finally come to her senses and was only bent on living a good life, so she did not need to pursue Megan.

“No, this matter is not over yet.” Pierre’s gaze was deep.

“What?”

“Don’t you want to know where Meredith’s money came from?”

Selena’s heart skipped a beat; she had left this matter out. When Hades called, he told her that the other party had offered 50 million.

Where did Meredith get so much money?

“I have checked her income during her debut, and her income isn’t very high. Even if she slept with a few big shots, she only got around 10 million. Compared to 50 million, that’s chicken feed. So, there must be someone behind her!”
