

Baby alliance: helping daddy get a rich mommy chapter 730

“Hello,” Linda answered the phone while looking around furtively. “We really have no way to do it. That Selena has bodyguards around her at all times, and as for Pierre, he is keeping a very close eye on her.”

The other party sounded a little impatient as he continued, “Sorry, but we won’t take this job as it’s too risky.”

Linda secretly clenched her fists. “I’ll double the price. Once you succeed, you don’t have to work for the rest of your lives!”

The other party was a bit hesitant, since this was a big deal after all. If it was a success, they could literally become rich overnight.

“Fine, but you have to think of a way to get Pierre out of the way. If he leaves and only the woman is left, I think things will be much easier.”

“Okay, I’ll think of a way.” Hanging up the phone, Linda also let out a sigh. It turned out that wanting to get rid of Selena was really not that easy. Actually, the other party was right. She must first get rid of Pierre.

Later, Linda sneaked back into the ward. It was a VIP ward, so there was a lounge within it that separated the patient room from the main door. Linda watched from the lounge while Jason lay in the patient room.

“Linda, is that you?” Jason’s voice came from inside, causing Linda to jump in fright.

“Yes, it’s me, Jason. What’s wrong? Do you need some water?” Linda’s heart was beating out of her chest with nervousness.

“No, where did you go in the middle of the night?” Jason heard the noises when Linda went out. Since the car accident, he had been mentally weak and could not sleep well. Therefore, he became a very light sleeper, and the slightest movement would wake him up.

“Oh, I couldn’t sleep well due to a change of places. Thus, I went out for some air.”

“Oh, is that so? Get some rest then.”

“Okay, Jason. Good night.” Linda lay back on the bed and began to plan what to do next. Inside the room, Jason looked at the ceiling with his eyes open, not knowing what was going on. He always felt that Linda was rather strange, as if she was always carrying out a plan.

At the set, Jude, who had suddenly become the female lead, began to get to work.

Naturally, Jude’s acting skill was top-notch and coupled with the problems Mia had caused due to her absence, Jude was seen as the savior of the day, so the crew members were all polite to her.

On this day, Selena brought the three children to visit the set, and they were all very excited. Also, Selena repeatedly reminded them not to run around and touch things without permission.

During Jude's break, she could finally meet with Selena.

"Oh, you're here. I can finally meet you." Jude took the glass of orange juice from the table.

"Yes, and we also have to thank you for meeting with us, Miss Knight."

"Where are my godchildren?" Jude looked around and saw no one.

"They're very curious and have gone playing. Hey, they're not treating you like an outdated actress. In fact, you're being treated like the most popular actress on set. There were even special staff who took the children off to play, and when I arrived, someone came up right away to serve me good food and drink. How amazing!" Selena teased.

"It's all because of your blessing, Mrs. Fowler." Jude glanced at Selena.

"Me?" Selena was befuddled. "I'm not that great, alright?"

Although Pierre did invest in the crew in order to investigate Mia before, the crew did not know the relationship between her and Jude. In fact, she had reminded Pierre not to leak it out because she knew that Jude did not like that.

"If you didn't invest in Stardom Entertainment, how could I have this kind of treatment?"

"I invested in Stardom Entertainment? What kind of investment did I give to Stardom Entertainment?" Selena was even more confused.
