

Baby alliance: helping daddy get a rich mommy chapter 731

Now, it was Jude's turn to be surprised. "Wasn't it you who secretly invested in Stardom Entertainment so that they are willing to sign me on?"

Jude had always thought that it was Selena who did this, as among the people she knew, only Selena had this ability. However, Selena shook her head. "I did not, Jude. I did have such an intention, but then I discussed it with Pierre, and we thought that you won't like us doing that, so we put off the idea."

"Then..." Jude took a deep breath; she had never thought that this matter was done by someone else. Holding Jude's hand, Selena said, "Jude, think carefully. Other than us, who would have such an ability?"

In that case, it could only be Satan. Jude originally thought that she and Satan had cut off all contact and would never interact with each other anymore, so she did not expect that he had been silently involved in her business and even did such a big thing for her.

"Okay, I got it." Jude nodded slightly before she smiled. This man. What can I say about him?

The two of them chatted for a while, then Jude was about to start filming again. Before heading home, Selena and her three children watched Jude filmed for a while.

This night, Jude only finished work at 10.00 PM, so she was really rather tired. Due to some previous delay, the whole crew had been working overtime in order to catch up.

Later, Jude got in the car tiredly. "Miss Knight, are we going back to your home? Or do you wish to find a hotel nearby to rest first? It's getting late, so if we go home now, it will take more than an hour." The driver's intention was to find a hotel nearby so that they could rest more, and then they could easily come back tomorrow to continue the shoot.

However, since Jude got together with Wyatt, she no longer liked to sleep at a hotel, as it was not as comfortable as her home.

"Let's go home. Sorry to trouble you."

"It's okay. Then you can sleep in the car for a while, and I'll wake you when we arrive."

Jude's drivers and assistants were interviewed before, and everyone was very dedicated to doing their best. Besides, Jude was good to them and never lost her temper with them, and most importantly, she was very generous.

As the car drove along the road, Jude could not sleep at all. Her mind kept flashing with Satan's face when she thought that he had actually invested in Stardom Entertainment for her, which should be a considerable expenditure. Although he was very rich, he was not allowed to invest in just about any company because that would expose his identity too easily.

Just at this time, she glanced in the rearview mirror and was surprised by the car tailing them. She turned her head to look at the car and then turned back again. The driver seemed to sense her uneasiness and hurriedly said, "Miss Knight, don't worry. That car has been following us for a long time."

“What? You mean that car has been following us for a long time?”

“There had been a few times before. It will appear once in a while. At first, I thought it was the paparazzi and wanted to shake them off, and then I found that they had just been following from afar and not very close. Moreover, there’s no bad news surrounding you, so I did not care much. Perhaps they’re your fans. Truthfully, they’re quite considerate.”

Then, Jude carefully observed the car through the rearview mirror, and without needing to guess, she knew that this car must be Satan’s. He had probably changed to a low-profile car in order to cover his tracks.

When Jude arrived home, the driver also left. After that, the car that was following behind also stopped. Satan parked the car downstairs, then smoked a cigarette. Finally, he prepared to turn around and leave.
