

Baby alliance: helping daddy get a rich mommy chapter 744

“Actually, I’ve checked in with the black market and made a deal with them. Those people are scared of me but at the same time want to make a living, so they made such a fake bomb for Linda.”

Pierre was also distressed. What if what I did wasn’t enough? From the time Meredith started getting information from the black market, he already had the black market in his sights. Later, he made a deal with the black market. No matter how much anyone spent to buy suspicious items, they were not allowed to sell. Otherwise, it would be considered as offending Pierre Fowler.

Sure enough, Linda went to the black market to buy a bomb.

Selena fell asleep after sobbing in Pierre’s arms. She had had enough with such traumatic days and wondered when those days would be over. After Selena fell asleep, Pierre slowly got up and walked out. In the study room, his eyes flashed with a cold light that was enough to shock anyone. He had had enough of this kind of life too, and he would no longer allow his wife and children to be harmed.

“Go dig Linda Dunn out for me! Even if the whole of Digton City is turned upside down, I will find her! In the past, Meredith had exploited the loophole, and that’s why she escaped. This time, I’ll not allow any loopholes! Block all the roads to and from Digton City! I don’t believe she can dig through the ground and escape!”

Looking at Pierre’s furious eyes, the bodyguards didn’t dare to say a word at all.

At this moment, Linda had already fled back to the hospital. She did not expect Pierre to suddenly appear, nor did she expect that the bomb would not explode, even though she had pressed the button!

D*mn it! Now that I’m exposed, will I still have the chance in the future? It doesn’t matter. I need to wait quietly for the opportunity, and now saving my life is the most important thing.

Staying in the hospital, Linda was secretly pleased. She thought that Pierre was probably searching for her like crazy now and would never think of her hiding in the hospital. Jason’s operation was scheduled within a few days, and after that, he would have to recuperate for some time. After that, Pierre would probably give up, as it was impossible for him to keep looking. Besides, there would come a time when he would need to leave too. When the time came, she could follow the Murray Family back to Yucaria and then make another plan again in the future.

During a break from filming, Jude came to the Fowler Residence. As Pierre was busy searching for Linda, he was not at home, while Selena had not gone out because she was still traumatized by the previous event. Therefore, she did not even let the children attend kindergarten.

After hearing the matter about Linda, Jude was shocked. “I didn’t know that Hades actually spared her life. It doesn’t seem like his style.”

Selena simply smiled and replied, “The two brothers look ruthless, but in fact, they are soft-hearted people.”

“Hey, when talking about Hades, don’t drag my Satan into it. The two brothers still have a lot of differences. In fact, Satan is only soft-hearted to me.”

When Jude mentioned Satan, the corners of her lips curved up, and she looked like the cat that got the cream.

Rolling her eyes at Jude, Selena snorted, “You reek of infatuation.”

“Bah! You are the same too!”

Speaking of their two men, the smiles on both their faces disappeared. The two of them would be on opposite sides sooner or later, and there would be only one winner in this battle.

Grabbing Jude’s hand, Selena said, “Jude, I really hope you can be happy. However, I have selfish instincts as well. I hope that we...”

Jude patted Selena’s hand back and replied, “Men are men, and we’re different from them. It’s not the same.”
