

《Billionaire CEO Won't Leave》

Chapter 105

Secretary Xing came in with a solemn and heavy face, and then quickly retreated like lightning.

Conmobei's eyes flashed through the door, and he restrained his smile. His eyes were deep. "You haven't said it yet, believe me or not."

Bai nianxi nodded.

With a low smile, he stood up and went out.

"Then wait for me." He said.

Komorbei held an emergency meeting of the whole Party overnight. At 2 a. m., it held a major meeting with the French high level.

All night.

The most important concern of all is whether bainianxi plagiarizes or not. At the meeting, kangmobei repeatedly assured that bainianxi would never plagiarize because bainianxi has been around him and working in front of him these days.

He saw all the way she was thinking, the way she was suddenly open, the way she was full of inspiration and joy.

He is her guarantor, with all his wealth credit guarantee.

There is no doubt.

Kangmobei didn't let Bai nianxi attend any meeting because he didn't want her to explain to anyone. He just believed in her. All she has to do is wait for him to solve the problem.

After walking north, Bai nianxi's heart calmed down.

Strange, clearly nothing has changed, the situation has not become better, but she inexplicably settled down, seems to be so determined to believe that person.

Now she is really different from before.

After many things, we know that sometimes, people's hearts will be hardened after all. The world oppresses her. One day, she will return it.

Just looking at conmba, I feel that the world is not too bad.

In the early morning, after the meeting, kangmobei came back. Bai nianxi had fallen asleep on the sofa. She was waiting for him here, but she fell asleep after waiting.

Kangmobei wakes up Bai nianxi. With sleepy eyes, Bai nianxi gets up from the sofa and says, "are you busy?"

"Well." Conmobei went to the wardrobe and took out a shirt. He had just taken a bath, and his body still smelled of shower gel, and his hair was dripping with water. "Why don't you go to bed?"

"Oh, I'll wait for you here."

"Wait for me?" Commo turned his head and buttoned his chest with his hands. His eyes were narrow. "You can wait for me in bed."

.....

Bai nianxi didn't answer and stood up, "don't you rest?"

Conmobei had already buttoned up, and began to pull his sleeves. He pulled them up a little bit and said, "there are still things to deal with."

Said, has sat back in his president chair, turned on the computer.

His hands quickly hit the keyboard. Under the bright light of the screen, each knuckle of his fingers appears to be so slender and symmetrical, beautiful and charming.

Bai nianxi patted her head. She must be confused.

Since the cause of the matter is plagiarism, we should start to solve the plagiarism first.

Mr. Abel once directed Bai nianxi's creation through video on the other side of the ocean. Many of his ideas were integrated into Bai nianxi's design. Whether there was plagiarism or not is clear to Mr. Abel.

Abel has taken the earliest flight. Bai nianxi is his disciple and the cover designer he finally selected. Of course, he is responsible for this.

First, the company will explain the truth and deep meaning of the cover design, and then guarantee the originality of the cover design with Abel's reputation. The credibility of the rumors of plagiarism will be much smaller, but the root of the rumors has not been solved.

Why does the Internet reveal such a similar picture to the cover of the new product?

The company's confidentiality measures have always been good. Which link did the cover leak out from?

Kangmobei has sent people to do a thorough investigation, but it still needs time for the time being.

After a night of fermentation, the rumors on the Internet are even more exaggerated. Last night, Kang's public relations company formulated a public relations plan and changed its public relations strategy.

Don't you want to kill Bai nianxi and Kang? How about making things bigger?

Conmobei crackles on the computer, suddenly the computer displays a blue screen.

Call me.

"What's the matter?"

"Just got the news, in addition to government agencies and the police department and the military side, the city's civil network has been completely paralyzed..." Secretary Xing's voice is low.

"Paralyzed? Why paralysis?" It's not a small matter that the civil network of a city is paralyzed.

But now for Bai nianxi, it may be a good thing.

"The time is too short to find out. It seems that it's human, but it doesn't seem that it's human..."

Conmobei suddenly thought of a man.

"Did you do it?" The voice is serious.

"Hum." There came Lolo's tender and angry voice, "I want to see Mommy! Where's Mommy?" She's right here with me." Kangmobei took a look at Bai nianxi, who was sitting on one side, and said to the phone, "don't make any noise, come back to me quickly."

"I don't want it!" Lolo murmured, "they're so annoying. They've been scolding Mommy! I don't want them to scold Mommy! I..."

The eye son of Kang Mo north is Yin cold come down, "Kang Jing Chuan!"

Hearing Luo Luo's name, Bai nianxi cast her eyes.

"What happened to Lolo?" Bai nianxi asked.

The eyes of Kang Mo north deep a few minutes, didn't answer the words of Bai Nian Xi.

Looking at the watch, the voice said coldly, "one minute and 48 seconds have passed. You still have one minute and 12 seconds.”

The indifference and ruthlessness in those words did not seem to be spoken to a four-year-old.

“If you don’t recover in three minutes.” “You don’t want to see her again. You know, I do what I say. ”

She refers to Bai nianxi. He is telling Lolo that if he doesn’t follow the orders, he will really let him lose his mother.

Maybe it’s just an exaggerated warning, but Lolo is under threat.

There were tears in his eyes, and Lolo pursed his lips tightly. He was still young. He only knew love and hate, and he didn’t know what was good or bad. Kang Mobei’s words only made him feel full of hate and unwilling.

Hum, angrily hung up the phone.

Fifteen seconds later, everything returned to normal.

Combined with the situation just now, Bai nianxi also guessed some.

Lolo is really too headstrong, just, “what you said, would it be a little too much? Lolo, after all, is just a child

In Bai nianxi’s words, there is no complaint and blame for Kang Mobei, but only the love for Luo Luo. Where does she have a position to blame Kang Mobei? It’s her mess, but he has to help her clean it up again and again.

“I can’t decide whether I can see you again. It’s you who can decide.”
