

Billionaire CEO Won't Leave

Chapter 119

Jiang zhiang lowered his head slightly. Although he knew that Bai nianxi had already known about him and Gu xuanlin, he still felt at a loss in the face of Bai nianxi.

"Nianxi, I'm sorry."

"You don't have to tell me you're sorry." Bai nianxi said with a smile, "zhi'ang, seriously, I wish you, I wish you find the love of your life, and I wish you will be a father soon."

"Good luck, too." Bai nianxi picked up the coffee cup in his hand and gently touched Jiang zhiang's coffee cup, "grow old together for a hundred years."

Jiang zhiang murmured: "what I love all my life?"

Eyes straight to white nianxi, "do you know, my life love, is you."

Bai nianxi's greatest fear is Jiang zhiang. If she sees him happy, she will bless him from the bottom of her heart. But if he is like this, it will only make her feel guilty and in debt.

"Nianxi, can you tell me, in what mood do you say these words of blessing to me?"

Bai nianxi breathes out a breath slightly, "zhi'ang, my blessing to you is sincere."

Jiang zhiang wry smile, "if you are so sincere, I would rather not."

Jiang zhiang didn't know what happened that day, because Yao Mei gave him and Gu xuanlin medicine. He always thought that he was careless and confused.

After the incident, he was also distressed, but he thought that maybe everything could go back, but later, Gu xuanlin became pregnant.

He can not love Gu xuanlin, but must be responsible for her children. His marriage with Gu xuanlin is not his wish, but he has to fulfill it.

During this period of time, he was at home every day. He didn't think about food or tea.

He had only one image in his head, that is, daydream. He can't accept it. He actually hands over Bai nianxi to other men.

He even thought, as long as, as long as Bai nianxi has a trace of him, even a trace of reluctant to let go, he will go back to her regardless of everything.

But she didn't.

She let go so natural and unrestrained, but also so generous blessing him.

How ridiculous is his tangle and pain in these days.

The tone is cold and light, "you tell me, are you in love with conmobei?"

Bai nianxi frowned. Why did he ask?

"Why do you ask this?"

"Answer me." Jiang zhiang's eyes fixed on Bai nianxi, "I want you to answer me, yes or no."

She's in love with conmbey?

No, she didn't.

Occasionally, she is sentimentally attached to his warmth, occasionally admires his childishness, occasionally loves his pain, and occasionally cares about his trifles.

It's not love.

Bai nianxi firmly believes that she just needs to see a psychiatrist.

Yes, it's not love.

"No

"No?" Jiang zhiang laughs a little frivolous, what he wants is not the answer of Bai nianxi.

Some words are always insincere.

He saw her thinking, he saw her hesitating.

So, he was sure, she was moved.

He suddenly regretted bringing her back. At the beginning, he should have stayed abroad all the time. Knowing that there was a komobei in China, he just relaxed his vigilance.

But is it useful for her to be moved?

She and conmbe were not together five years ago, and they won't be together five years later.

"Then prove it to me and leave him." Jiang zhiang said suddenly.

Bai nianxi was also stunned.

"Your agreement has expired anyway, hasn't it?" Jiang zhiang looks at Bai nianxi, his eyes are unfamiliar with Bai nianxi, with a cruel intention.

I've known him for such a long time. Bai nianxi has never seen such a look.

In front of him, Jiang zhiang suddenly became very strange.

Tone slightly slowed down, "nianxi, prove it to me, let me know that you have nothing to do with my leaving, not because you are in love with commobei."

That look, very sincere.

Bai nianxi knows in her heart that there is no reason. She has no reason to prove to Jiang zhiang.

The person she needs to prove is herself.

"I'll leave." Bai nianxi looks at Jiang zhiang and his mood floats in his eyes.

"Good." Jiang zhiang nodded.

There are candles and balloons all over the house.

Every year today, the maid will decorate like this, because today is Lolo's birthday.

In the past, Lolo didn't look forward to his birthday, because since he had memories, his birthday was the same every year.

Conmobei will order a super large cake for him, and then arrange candles and balloons at home. Finally, in this grand and gorgeous scene, father and son stand alone, waiting for Lolo to blow out the candles, and each of them holds a book to read.

Lolo doesn't like the hustle and bustle, just like komobei. On his birthday every year, there is no one else beside him. If Lolo has any expectations for his birthday, it's time to blow out the candles and make a wish. Lolo makes the same wish every time - hoping that mommy can come back to him as soon as possible.

However, this year's birthday is different, because Mommy is really back!

This is Lolo's first birthday with mommy in her lifetime!

Lolo came home from school early, waiting for Bai nianxi and Kang Mobei to go home.

He even put on the clothes that Bai nianxi chose for him when he went to Switzerland last time. He thought that Mommy would be very happy to see him so pink and tender!

Just, it's almost eight o'clock in the evening. Why haven't mommy and daddy come back yet?

After the meeting, it was late. Thinking that Bai nianxi and Luo Luo were still waiting for him at home, they rushed back directly.

At the sound of the car outside the door, Lolo, who had been sitting on the sofa, raised her drooping head, jumped off the sofa and ran to the door, waving her hand while dancing, "Xiaoxi Xiaoxi --" her eyes were looking forward to it.

Comobei got out of the car and saw the pink Lolo. He was stunned at first, and then looked behind him.

"What about Xiaoxi?"

"And she?"

They asked at the same time.

It turned out that she had neither come back early nor with him.

Lolo, with his little head down, walked home step by step.

The candles lit by the servant were almost burnt out, and the cake ordered by commobei reflected a dim glow in the candlelight, and the atmosphere was a little lonely.

Conmber sat on the sofa, legs apart, leaning forward, elbows on his legs, eyes fixed on the burning candle in front of him. The leaping fire reflected in his eyes, people do not know what he was thinking.

Lolo also sat next to conmber, his two short legs swaying. He also looked at the candle like conmber, his eyes shining with the candle light.

They've been sitting for a long time.

Lolo tilted his head, his voice seemed to be angry, "why didn't you come back from work with mommy today?"

Conmber gave him a deep look. "I have something to do."

"Well, you can go home without Mommy if you have something to do? What if Mommy doesn't come back! " After listening to the explanation of conmber, Lolo was even more angry.

Without replying to Lolo, conmber put his eyes on the candle in front of him again. The candle had burned out.

He knew very well that the agreement period had passed the day before yesterday.
