

Billionaire CEO Won't Leave

Chapter 122

When Lolo wakes up the next day, he finds Bai nianxi sleeping beside him. Hum, dad has a conscience and keeps his word. He doesn't turn mommy to his bed.

Because yesterday did not accompany Luo Luo birthday, Bai nianxi heart is very guilty, just today is the weekend, want to take Luo Luo out to play.

Who knows, conmobei followed.

Isn't the president usually very busy? How can I have time today?

Bai nianxi first took Lolo to the children's paradise, but when he saw Lolo standing on the inflatable trampoline motionless, expressionless, indifferent to the cheers of the children around him, Bai nianxi just felt that he was really out of tune with the atmosphere of the children's paradise.

So he took him to the adult playground.

Kangmobei usually seldom takes Luoluo out to play. Once in a while, he also goes to visit various science and technology museums.

This kind of amusement atmosphere is really incompatible with the two ice cubes around us.

Luo Luo is good, occasionally also can show the occupation to smile perfunctorily, Bai nianxi, Kang Mobei is serious from the beginning to the end.

can't help but make complaints about it: "this is a playground. What's the matter of your visit?"

As soon as he finished, a man in a suit and a bow tie came running in front of him, followed by a group of people in playground work clothes.

It seems that the leader is the manager of the playground.

The man trotted all the way to Kangmo north, bowed and said respectfully, "Mr. Kang, how did you come here?"

Commo nodded expressionless, "come and have a look."

The man was still smiling, his head slightly tilted to one side, and said to the people nearby, "why didn't you tell me about the things that Mr. Kang was going to inspect?"

The man nearby was very aggrieved, "I, I don't know..."

Bainian Xihan, dares to feel that this playground is really his family. Is he really here?

"You're busy. I'm just here to have a look." What conMBER said was very casual, but the momentum of his whole body was not casual at all.

The leading man did not dare to relax at all. Kangmobei came to the playground to have a look at what he wanted to see? On this chilly face, did you say that you didn't come to inspect?

The people behind are still respectfully bowed their heads, waiting for the order of conMobei.

Originally, with his handsome face and outstanding height and temperament, he has attracted many people's attention in the playground.

Bai nianxi hears the sound of being infatuated with flowers in front of kangmobei in the crowd.

Suddenly someone noticed Bai nianxi on one side, "Oh, you see, is that woman the designer who copied the cover last time? What's the name again? "

"White night?"

"Yes, yes, that's her!"

A person looked at Bai nianxi from a distance, "that matter has not been clarified? She's not plagiarizing, she's being slandered. "

"If you don't talk about plagiarism, I always feel that her affair with Yansheng is not groundless." The person who said this is probably a fan of Yansheng, with jealousy inside and outside.

"I didn't believe it." One of them took a close look at Bai nianxi, "but you see, she is really tall, thin and white. She looks beautiful from such a distance. It seems not strange to say that Yansheng really has something to do with her."

"If you look good, you can hook up with our brother Yansheng?" One said it was very resentful.

Someone said with a smile: "don't be funny. People's status is not necessarily lower than Yansheng's. haven't you seen that tip? It's said that the backstage background is a person from the top of the Kang's group. "

"Conrad? Is that the handsome guy next to her now? "

"Shh, don't talk nonsense!" The speaker had already seen through everything. "That man is Kang Mobei, the president of Kang's group. Not everyone can climb it."

"And she's still standing here with Mr. Kang?"

"Can't you see that? Kang always comes to inspect. It's said that she has the identity of an assistant. As an assistant, it's not strange to come here together. "

The people next to him suddenly realized, and their faces were clear.

Sure enough, as soon as the name of kangmobei came out, there was no doubt about the relationship between Bai nianxi and him. No matter who the mysterious high-level was, it could not be kangmobei.

Bai nianxi's heart is inexplicably bitter. It's true that if she can stand beside Kang Mobei as she is now, she is already a high climber, not to mention having anything to do with him.

There is a feeling that is destined to be just a dream.

With the manager of the playground in front of a panic expression, followed by a bow honor guard, Bai nianxi is not interested in playing here.

"Mr. Kang, have you finished your inspection?"

The impatience in the words made the leader standing there tremble in the face. Did anyone dare to talk to conmobei like this?

Kangmo North turned his head and looked at Bai nianxi. Bai nianxi said again, "if the inspection is finished, let's go. It's also troublesome here."The leader's face is almost shaking off. This honest lady, although trouble is trouble, you can't say that!

He waved his hand to deny it, but suddenly he heard a deep hum from conmber.

The voice was heavy, but not unpleasant.

Startled raised his head, he saw that Bai nianxi first turned around and went back. Kangmobei followed, but he felt that he was following Bai nianxi.

Scratch the head, this, this, this is not right, is this a fake general manager Kang?

Walking out of the playground, Bai nianxi felt much more relaxed without so much attention.

However, in order to be on the safe side, Bai nianxi bought a mask and put it on his face after he came out of the playground. Can't people recognize it?

"What are you doing?" Kangmobei stares at the mask on Bai nianxi's face, and Lolo also looks up at Bai nianxi.

Isn't the air bad? Everyone is responsible for purifying the air and protecting the body.

Feel cast in the body of the two eyes become more and more cold, cold she can't help but shiver.

What's the matter? I'm wearing a mask?

"You don't want people to see us together?"

Bai nianxi shook his head, and the voice from the mask seemed stuffy. "It's just that the air is not good."

Lolo took a look at his watch. Today's air quality is surprisingly good.

Bai nianxi doesn't speak. Anyway, she won't take it off when she dies. Even if she suffocates in her mask, she shouldn't be drowned by other people's saliva.

After silence.

"I'll take it, too." Conmber and Lolo said at the same time.

Bai nianxi is very regretful because she finds that as one of the three musketeers of the mask, she seems to attract more eyes.

People's curiosity and contemplation cast their eyes on him. Bai nianxi's face under the mask was hot. It was hot, choked and shamed.
