

Billionaire CEO Won't Leave

Chapter 134

Bai nianxi couldn't wait to nod his head, but with a reserved smile, he nodded slightly and said, "I've seen the contract. I'm very satisfied on the whole, but there are a few points I'd like to discuss with your company again."

Those points were put forward by komorbei. In this respect, komorbei is more experienced and knowledgeable after all.

Panasonic's people did not say much. After Bai nianxi made those points, they all readily agreed.

"Then our cooperation..."

Kangmobei coughs twice at the right time.

Mr. Li stopped and looked at comber.

Kangmobei's eyes were fixed on Bai nianxi's face. Seeing that she closed her lips and decided to pretend to be dumb, she said coldly, "Miss Bai is an employee of our company. Please make it clear to your company."

Thinking that Kang Mobei's words meant to break the cooperation between them and Bai nianxi, general manager Li was stunned at first, and then looked at Bai nianxi.

He thought that Bai nianxi should have negotiated with Kang group.

What does Mr. Kang mean

"With regard to Miss Bai's workplace, I hope to be here at the Conrad group."

His request sounds like it's hard to refuse.

In fact, Panasonic's requirements are not excessive. Since Bai nianxi has reached a cooperation with them and become their external designer, there is nothing wrong with going to Panasonic during working hours.

But after all, Bai nianxi is still an employee of Kang family, and Kang Mobei says so again, so they can't refuse.

"Well, our company doesn't require Miss Bai's workplace. It's just that because of cooperation, the company often has discussion meetings, and Miss Bai will be invited to attend on time."

Bai nianxi sighs in her heart. She originally wanted to take advantage of this opportunity to move out of commo North office and leave Kangshi group.

"Well." You can only nod your head first.

After signing the contract, Matsushita's Li and Yang put down the cooperation information on Bai nianxi's desk and left.

Bai nianxi looked through the cooperation materials and found that the task was quite important and challenging. Now the international high-end clothing market is facing a big reshuffle, and the share of the Chinese market is expanding year by year. This cooperation is of great strategic significance to the development of Panasonic in the Chinese market in the new stage of the future.

It is conceivable that Bai nianxi's attention and trust can be seen that he can give such an important task to Bai nianxi, even when the plagiarism storm has just subsided.

Anyway, we must do well this time.

The phone rang in the office.

"Hello."

"Well."

"I see."

Kangmobei just said a few words, then hung up the phone, tone is as usual cold, but Bai nianxi is still acutely aware that it is a woman's phone.

She didn't know why her ear power was so good. She even heard it.

After Kang Mobei hung up the phone, he didn't speak. He devoted himself to his work. Bai nianxi shook his head, and his mind went back to the data in his hand.

Panasonic's high-end customized fashion is the early spring series of next year, which will be launched in November this year.

According to the Convention, this kind of clothing is usually designed and prepared one year in advance. But now, Bai nianxi has only two months to design and conceive. The time is very urgent.

Panasonic's requirement is to draw three pictures with the theme of landscape, which will be displayed on the clothes in the form of printing and embroidery. According to the time, it is obvious that it is impossible to work slowly now.

Thinking that Panasonic's move is just to seize the market as soon as possible and cater to the taste of the domestic market, Bai nianxi has an idea in his heart.

Take out one side of the paper and brush, Bai nianxi conceived.

Mr. Li is right. Matsushita's market development and product design department will hold meetings from time to time. No, the first meeting has already come just half an hour later.

After more than half an hour's drive, Bai nianxi finally showed up downstairs in the last ten minutes.

The conference room is on the 12th floor. Bai nianxi goes to the elevator entrance, presses the key, and then waits for the elevator.

I don't know when a man came next to Bai nianxi. Bai nianxi didn't look sideways. He just felt that there was a kind of momentum in the man, which was only in the senior managers she was familiar with.

Thinking about the elevator ride with conmo north before, Bai nianxi was still a little uncomfortable. If it wasn't for the rush, Bai nianxi would never choose to go up with this man.

After the elevator door opened, Bai nianxi went in first and stood up. She looked forward without strabismus. She looked very decent and calm, but the corner of her eye was secretly looking at the man standing beside her just now.

This is a tall and straight man with a handsome face and extraordinary momentum. He must be the leader of this company. After Bai nianxi came in, the man also came in. Just when he saw Bai nianxi's face, his steps to the elevator stopped there, and his face showed an extremely surprised expression.

The man behind him reminded: "Mr. Su? Mr. Su

Su Yihao turned his head to the humanity behind him: "wait outside."

After that, he walked into the elevator first, and the person who had followed him stopped outside. After su Yihao came in, he pressed the key to close the door directly.

Bai nianxi still stood still, but also noticed the strange look on Su Yihao's face just now.

The elevator began to rise slowly. After su Yihao came in, he put his eyes on Bai nianxi, "Bai "Evening

Hearing his name, Bai nianxi was sure that he knew her. That's right.

He raised his head and said, "hello."

Su Yihao's eyes didn't blink. He looked straight at Bai nianxi. He didn't answer Bai nianxi's words. He just stood there quietly, as if thinking about something.

Looking at her face, looking at her eyes, there in addition to a little bit curious, only indifference.

Is she so indifferent to him?

"Why are you here?" Su Yihao also stood in place and turned his eyes to the front.

Bai nianxi was silent for a long time, and finally raised his head and asked a very pertinent question, "excuse me, do we know each other?"

Maybe he didn't expect that Bai nianxi would say such words. Su Yihao turned his head with doubts and looked at Bai nianxi. He saw that she had a light look and could not see any other emotions except curiosity.

How could she act like that? Or did she really get rid of him?

"Don't you know me?" The smile in the corner of the mouth is ironic.

Bai nianxi shook his head honestly.

"Ding", the door of the elevator opened. Bai nianxi looked up and saw that the 12th floor had arrived, so he stepped out. Unexpectedly, Su Yihao also followed him.

Both of them were a little surprised, but Su Yihao's face soon recovered calm.

"It's you." He said.

Finish saying, then took the lead to walk into the meeting room, Bai nianxi followed behind, also walked in.

Her idea is right. Su Yihao is the president of Panasonic's marketing department in China.
