

Billionaire CEO Won't Leave

Chapter 194

"Well." Bai nianxi nodded and didn't look back to see Kang Mobei. His hands smeared cream on the cake embryo.

With that, Kang Mobei left, leaving Bai nianxi alone in the kitchen, feeling lost and disappointed.

I don't know why. I can't make this cake well tonight. The cream was smeared in a mess by her. It's not smooth at all.

After making the cake, Bai nianxi went to the sofa in the hall, sat down and turned on the TV.

Recently, there is no good-looking TV series. Bai nianxi pressed the remote control in her hand to adjust it. After adjusting it for a long time, she didn't see a good-looking program.

I can't help getting upset.

Go to the kitchen, take out the cake, fork a piece of cream into her mouth, she doesn't like sweet, but Lolo likes, so tonight she put a little more sugar.

But she ate spoonful after spoonful, Leng didn't taste anything.

Maybe my heart is too sour.

The maid came over and said, "Miss Bai, Secretary Xing is here to see you."

Bai nianxi came out of the kitchen and looked to the door. Secretary Xing didn't know when he was at the door.

Secretary Xing saw Bai nianxi and said with a smile, "Miss Bai, Mr. Kang asked me to pick you up."

"Now?" Bai nianxi takes a look at the time. It's eight o'clock in the evening. At this time, what are you doing out there?

Secretary Xing nodded respectfully. Although he was confused, Bai nianxi obediently followed Secretary Xing to get on the bus.

Secretary Xing took Bai nianxi to a high-rise building, "Mr. Kang said it's here. You can take the elevator to go up directly and go up to the top floor."

Bai nianxi has doubts in his heart, and the ripples have gradually appeared in his heart.

Today is her birthday.

She just wanted to have an ordinary birthday with conmobei and Lolo, so she made a cake at home, and the three of them were together, she thought.

However, after returning home tonight, conmobei didn't seem to know that today was her birthday. Lolo also said that she would have class, so she would come back later, and she was the only one left at home.

At that moment, she felt very lonely.

But now, she suddenly felt that this would not be a surprise prepared for her by conmbey?

Thinking in this way, Bai nianxi has already taken the elevator to the top floor.

What will happen if you push this door open? Candles? Flowers? Balloon?

Bai nianxi was a little nervous and expectant. He stretched out his hand and gently opened the door in front of him. But in front of him, it was dark and there was nothing.

Only in the city under the neon light, not far away from a large and a small figure of two, one is the north of Como, one is Lolo.

The wind on the top of the building is cool. She raises Bai nianxi's skirt. Before she comes out, she has no time to change her clothes. She only wears a thin skirt.

In the dark, conmo North came over, untied his suit coat and put it on Bai nianxi's body. His voice was rare and gentle. "Why don't you wear more when you come out?"

His coat was still warm with the temperature of kangmobey's body. Bai nianxi felt that his body was much warmer, but for a moment, he didn't know what the father and son were up to.

"Lolo." Commodore called.

Then Bai nianxi saw the small round figure not far away and lifted his hand up, holding a small, remote control like thing.

Then, all over the sky, silver sparks rose slowly from the ground, forming a huge silver light curtain, flashing, such as falling into the star waterfall of nine days.

Not only around the building, but also on the top of the building, where she could see, the corners of the city rose with silver sparks.

Those spark rising slowly, after rising to the high altitude, and then scattered all over the sky, such as the stars flashing all over the sky.

Bai nianxi finally understood that it was a UAV!

It's a man-made drone!

These stars all over the sky, each point, represents a UAV! And now scattered over the city, countless stars, is countless UAVs!

When all the UAVs are launched, a gorgeous UAV show begins. These UAVs, under the control of the back remote control, begin to change into various colors.

Then the formation changes in the sky of the whole city, putting out all kinds of beautiful patterns, doing their best.

Bai nianxi stands on the top of the building and looks at the stars flying all over the sky. He feels as if he is in the sea of stars and gradually loses his way

Dazzle the performance of the United States, only people feel in an unrealistic dream, the United States is illusory, the United States is not so real.

The flying UAV shocked not only Bai nianxi, but also thousands of ordinary people in a city. For a moment, all kinds of videos about UAV performances were taken by people and spread to the Internet.

Rumors and speculation in wanton fermentation, until finally, the sky appeared in seven characters. "Happy Birthday to Bai nianxi."

Only then do people understand that it is a certain corner of a city, a powerful rich man, who is trying to please a lucky woman.

It's just that the name

People have come to think of it as Bai nianxi, a name they are not unfamiliar with!

Mousse stood in his office, looking out of the window.

The lights in the office didn't light up, and the room was dark. Mousse stood in the dark, and his deep eyes reflected the shining outside the window.

Today is her birthday.

At this time, there was a box on his desk, which was beautifully wrapped and unopened. It was a birthday present he had prepared for her.

With a smile, kangmobei is really casting gold like sand for the sake of Bai Nian Xi.

That sentence lasted for a minute, and after a minute, it scattered into stars all over the sky, and then slowly fell from the city, like an earth shaking meteor shower.

The night in the city is getting darker and quieter. The splendor just now seems to have never happened.

White read the night slowly over God, looking to the north of Kangmo.

Kang Mo North smile shallow, "like it?"

Bai nianxi wanted to nod her head and say that she liked it, but after a pause, she said something very unpleasant, "how much does it cost?"

Kang Mo north is first Leng Leng, then the smile of the corner of the mouth is deeper, "how, afraid I have no money?"

I'm afraid that Bai nianxi doesn't dare to say that he doesn't have money. I'm afraid that after that, Kang Mobei is not convinced and will use money to kill her.

Probably knowing Bai nianxi's idea, Kang Mobei looks at Luo Luo, who is playing with the remote control not far away, and says, "Luo Luo's idea."

Lolo looked over, angry eyes, smelly daddy, and throw the pot!

In this case, if Mommy is happy, it's thanks to Daddy, because it's daddy's money that is burned. If Mommy is unhappy and feels extravagant, it's his fault!
