

《Billionaire CEO Won't Leave》

Chapter 207

Bai nianxi felt bad in his heart, and he could not help but step back.

Then, Gu xuanlin took out a transparent glass bottle from her arms. The bottle was still labeled, like a chemical reagent in a laboratory.

No! It's sulfuric acid!

Before Bai nianxi has time to step back, Gu xuanlin has unscrewed the bottle cap and poured sulfuric acid on Bai nianxi.

It hurts.

It hurts to be hit in the face.

In the sulfuric acid splashed over, a hard embrace directly hit Bai nianxi's face, hit her a stagger, face pain.

Then there was a hissing, corrosive sound, and a man's groan.

Bai nianxi hasn't had time to explore what's going on. The figure in front of him has retreated.

Conmber took off his suit and left it on the ground.

Fortunately, the weather is cool now, people's clothes are gradually getting thicker, and the quality of commobei's clothes is good. He responded in time and immediately took off the clothes full of sulfuric acid.

After a short period of consternation, Bai nianxi immediately turned to the back of kangmobei, who was wearing a white shirt, flat and intact.

Tightly raised the heart finally let down, fortunately.

Conmbe's fine.

When Kangmo North rushes up and blocks for Bai nianxi, the people he brings also come forward to subdue Gu xuanlin to prevent her from doing anything else.

However, Bai nianxi still couldn't ignore the pain color on Kang Mobei's face. His face suddenly changed and he said, "what's the matter?"

Conmber pursed his lips.

Bai nianxi simply went around to the back of Kangmo north to check. Only then did he find that the neck behind Kangmo North had been corroded by sulfuric acid!

The original white skin is a terrible blood red! That place is bloody!

It should be a drop of sulfuric acid splashed on the neck. Although it is only a small drop, it can still corrode people's skin.

Bai nianxi was shocked, and his face turned completely white. He took Kang Mobei's hand, pushed away the crowd and said, "go to the hospital! Come on She's going crazy in her hurry!

When Gu xuanlin splashed the sulfuric acid in his hand, the onlookers scattered in panic. Then they were very frightened to see that Kang Mobei, the president of Kang's group, actually came here and even stood in front of Bai nianxi!

After the incident subsided, the melon eaters could not help but feel a little more puzzled.

It's not that kangmobei was only with Bai nianxi. Now kangmobei is engaged to Mu Rushuang, and Bai nianxi is separated from Mu Si. Now there is no relationship between them?

Then why, between the two people, or such a deep and righteous appearance?

After all, when the thing splashed on the opposite side is sulfuric acid, the feeling that you can go forward and block regardless of yourself is not generally heavy!

I used to think that Bai nianxi was just a woman climbing the bed for the sake of being a superior person, but now it seems that Conmber, is it true?

Jin Ting reported to Shen Hedan all the things just happened in the company hall through the earphone.

"Did he come?"

"Well." King Ting nodded, "according to your request, when he told him that the young lady was in trouble, he started to rush over, and helped the young lady to stop the sulfuric acid pouring on her face."

"Sulfuric acid?" Shen Hedan's face changed and he said, "you didn't make second-hand preparation just now?"

Jin Ting was ashamed, "I arranged people there..."

"Have you arranged people?" Shen He narrowed his eyes and said angrily, "will your people help her block the sulfuric acid? If kangmobei doesn't arrive in time today, how can you be responsible for the consequences? "

Jin Ting's face turned white, and his head was in a cold sweat. Even in the place where Shen Hedan could not see, he unconsciously lowered his head.

"Yes, young master, I will be punished when I go back."

Shen Hedan was about to hang up when he suddenly remembered something and said, "where's the woman?"

It refers to Gu xuanlin.

"It's been taken away by the people of conMBER." King returned.

Shen Hedan didn't speak any more.

At the hospital, the doctor has helped commobei to deal with the wound.

Originally, when he saw the wound, the doctor could not help complaining about how he was so careless. However, he didn't say anything when he saw that kangmobei had a cold face.

Just about to finish, the doctor finally asked: "excuse me, are you Mr. Kang?"

Bai nianxi thought that, according to Kang Mobei's character, he would keep silent on this kind of problem. At most, he nodded slightly. Unexpectedly, Kang Mobei spoke this time.

"Well."

Then he pointed to Bai nianxi and said, "this is Miss Bai." Of course, the tone of Kangmo North is quite normal, just listening to others' ears, how to listen, how to feel a touch of introducing the baby.

Doctor Leng Leng, there's news about Kangmobei. Of course, he's heard of it, and naturally knows Bai nianxi.

Now that Kangmobei said this, he immediately understood it.

After dealing with the wound, the doctor went out, leaving only Kangmobei and Bai nianxi in the treatment room.

Bai nianxi was very worried about Kangmobei, and his face was full of worry. But at the moment, Kangmobei seemed to be different from Kangmobei in front of the doctor just now.

He looked cold as if he didn't know Bai nianxi.

Even if Bai nianxi wants to say something, it's hard to ask.

Kangmo North stood up and walked out of the ward. Bai nianxi also followed him.

Kangmobei seems to torture Bai nianxi on purpose. His steps are quick and slow. Bai nianxi follows Kangmobei and almost bumps into Kangmobei's back several times.

But Kangmobei didn't talk.

Seeing Kangmo North, he walked out of the hospital and got on the car parked at the door of the hospital. Bai nianxi stood outside the car, neither walking nor not walking.

The driver in front looked back at Kangmobei. When Kangmobei got on the bus, he seemed to have forgotten to close the door.

So respectfully reminded: "Mr. Kang, you forgot to close the door."

Kangmobei still hasn't moved. The driver can't understand Kangmobei's meaning. After thinking about it, he suddenly has a bright idea in his mind.

So get out of the car, go to the open side of the door, hand a push, will slam the door to close.

With a cold look on his face, he put out his foot and kicked the door open at the moment when the door was about to close.

Facing Bai nianxi, who was still standing outside, he said angrily, "get on the bus!"

The driver knew that he had made a big mistake, and he didn't dare to breathe. After Bai nianxi got on the bus, he ran back to the driver's seat to start the car.

"Mr. Kang, where are you going?"

"Go to where she lives," said conmobei, without squinting

The driver can only ask Bai nianxi, "Miss Bai, where do you live?"

Bai nianxi sighed and gave the address.

Back at the hotel, conmo North found Bai nianxi's room. He didn't know what card he was holding, so he opened the door and went in.

Bai nianxi went in and closed the door.

Conmobei had already walked in, walked around, and then sat down on the sofa.

Silence, silence again.

Bai nianxi finally can't help but go to kangmobei and pull the collar behind his neck.

"What for?" Kangmobei grabbed Bai nianxi's hand with his backhand and asked, squinting.
