

《Billionaire CEO Won't Leave》

Chapter 221

"We'll talk in this car if we don't go anywhere."

In the car?

But Su Yihao's mood is not stable. He drives in a hurry and the car is not stable. If he stays longer, he may not know what will happen.

Bai nianxi stretched out her hand and grasped the handle on the side door to stabilize her figure. "Don't you have something to say? Go ahead. "

Su Yihao's eyes narrowed slightly. "Do you remember I warned you to leave kangmobei and Kangjia?"

"I remember."

"But you didn't do it. You not only stayed by the side of kangmobei, but also made a lot of trouble. You made a stir about me and Zhai Kexin. Last night, you called kangxinyue, right?"

Bai nianxi is noncommittal, "I have not wronged you anything, these things, are not you do?"

Bai nianxi said that, Su Yihao's anger in his eyes was even worse, and he accelerated the speed a little bit.

Sure enough, it's all her!

"I gave you a chance. You didn't want it."

Give her a chance? What opportunities?

Give her the chance to swallow the hurt he gave and then disappear from his life?

Bai nianxi sneered in his heart, "what you said last night is true, isn't it?"

"What did I say to you last night?" Su Yihao really can't remember clearly.

"You said, five years ago, you betrayed me, and you gave me to other old men." Bai nianxi said, his voice was cold.

Su Yihao thought for a moment, raised the corner of his mouth, "why, do you feel dissatisfied now? Didn't you have to save me then? "

"So you sent me to another man's bed?"

"It's all men. What's the difference? You are so conceited that you don't want to sleep with me. What's wrong with me giving you to others in exchange for a chance of promotion

In Su Yihao's words, there is no trace of guilt and regret, but only resentment and contempt for Bai nianxi.

All she felt was a stream of blood coming up her head.

He said softly, "you are a real beast."

"What did you say?" Su Yihao's eyes shot anger, she even dare to scold him like this?

"Do you know that your life now is in my hands?"

"If you're not wrong, you planned to kill me five years ago?" Bai nianxi said coldly, "no, it should have been killed once, but I didn't die and survived."

She remembers that Su Yihao once said - why didn't you die?

Su Yihao's eyes suddenly shrink. Did she know that?

Shen Hedan stood in the empty office on the top floor, his face grim and chilly.

Just now, there was a message from Panasonic that the car sent to pick up Bai nianxi from the hotel had not received Bai nianxi's person, and now, she could not be contacted at all.

He sent someone to check, but in the hotel monitoring, he saw a man holding Bai nianxi into the stairwell. When he came out later, Bai nianxi's forehead had been injured.

But seeing Bai nianxi follow the man into the elevator, she and the man should know each other.

At the end of the monitoring, Bai nianxi is pushed into the man's car. Bai nianxi seems to want to resist in the car, but the resistance fails.

This shows that Bai nianxi is in danger now.

"Young master." King Ting came over with a piece of information in his hand, "found it."

"The name of the person holding Miss Su is Su Yihao..."

"You said he was su Yihao?" Shen Hedan's face suddenly changed.

Su Yihao knows and knows that he and Bai nianxi have never dealt with each other. He just hasn't seen the photos and he's not in the mood to know everything about Su Yihao.

Now I know it's su Yihao. Shen Hedan's mood in his eyes is deeper.

"Send him a message and tell him what happened," he said

Then he asked, "is Miss's position fixed?"

Jin Ting nodded, "just let people to check, now has been set up."

"Let's go." Shen Hedan said that and turned to go out directly.

Bai nianxi is sitting in the car, her mood, after the initial anger, is now back to a dead silence.

I didn't know what Su Yihao was going to do. Bai nianxi didn't speak until Su Yihao's expression became wrong. The whole person was full of violence.

Su Yihao suddenly thumped the steering wheel, "Damn, how can they chase me!"

Bai nianxi looked in the rearview mirror and found that one of the following cars was familiar.

That's conmobei's car!

Five consecutive license plates, Bai nianxi.

"Is it you! Did you bring them here?" Su Yihao's face has been twisted with excitement. It may be that he is too afraid of Komo north. The car of Komo North appears here, and Su Yihao can't help but get excited.

Why did conmobei follow?

Did he know? Know that he took Bai nianxi and beat her?

Today, he just wanted to teach Bai nianxi a lesson! But now let conumber know, he won't let him go!

"Damn it! Damn it Su Yihao pounded the steering wheel hard, and his mood was out of control.

Bai nianxi noticed that there seemed to be more than one car from Kangmo north, and the other two cars seemed to be following them.

Just thinking about it, the car of kangmobei catches up with Su Yihao's car.

Kangmo North rolled down the window, a pair of sharp eyes looking at Su Yihao's position, the murderous look in the eyes, even across a layer of window glass, also makes people feel terrible.

Su Yihao hit an exciting spirit, the gas pedal is more tight, not loose at all.

Bai nianxi looks at Su Yihao with cold eyes and says, "you're dead."

Su Yihao suddenly looked at Bai nianxi, his eyes full of panic, "even if it's death, I will pull you to do the back cushion!"

Bai nianxi doesn't have much contact with Su Yihao, but she can feel that he is a very extreme person.

Maybe she just shouldn't have said that sentence, but she was too angry and unforgivable. What Su Yihao had done to her made her feel chilly.

The two cars behind also catch up, and three cars surround Su Yihao's car.

The cars in the north of Como drive a little ahead. This road is a Coastal Expressway, with fast driving speed and no obstacles.

With the steering wheel in his hand, kangmobei is still paying attention to the movement in Bai nianxi's car. His eyes are fixed on Su Yihao. In his eyes, it's like writing a killing word.

Su Yihao fell into this situation, his emotion became more and more uncontrollable, and his heart was filled with fear.

These days, the Kang family has become his nightmare. He has been abused enough by Kang Xinyue, which makes him feel enough!

All of a sudden, he roared out.

"Let's die together."

Said, the hands of the steering wheel to the side, the front of the car is aimed at the left front of the north direction of Como.
