

《Billionaire CEO Won't Leave》

Chapter 26

Bai nianxi didn't know what to say.

"Then you're not afraid that I'll drive away?"

Smell speech, Kang Mo North complexion a black, approach Bai nianxi, a hand in front of the car body, slightly bent over, crooked side head, eyes fall on Bai nianxi face, "you want to run."

Bai nianxi unconsciously retreated two steps, "dare not."

With Jiang in his hand, she can't run even if she wants to.

Kangmobei put his hands into the pockets of his trousers, half bowed and moved forward with Bai nianxi's retreat until he forced Bai nianxi to the wall, looked at Bai nianxi's eyes and bit Bai nianxi's lower lip.

"You can try it," he said in a vague and extremely ambiguous tone

Finally, Bai nianxi ran out of the garage, rubbing some red and swollen lips, and thought: kangmobei is a real jerk!

Kangmo North went to the company. Luo Luo had a computer class today, which ended at 5 p.m. because he had an appointment with Luo Luo to pick him up, Bai nianxi cleaned up early at 3 p.m., went out to buy vegetables, and then picked up Luo Luo.

After thinking about it, I still got on the sports car that combo North gave her. After all, compared with combo North's unpredictable mood, the best way to avoid risks is to drive the car he gave her.

After the century manor opened, Bai nianxi didn't notice that there was an unlicensed white van behind him.

The man held a piece of grass in his mouth and spat. This smelly girl has made him squat around here for such a long time. We have to deal with her well. However, the girl's car is really good.

Bai nianxi was not very good at driving, so he didn't drive very fast. He drove slowly to the front of the vegetable market and stopped. As expected, just as the luxurious sports car stopped at the door, there were many praises around.

When people watch Bai nianxi enter the vegetable market, they are more puzzled and have a vague meaning of "caring for the mentally retarded".

The man got out of the car and went in.

Bai nianxi bought a lot of dishes. Since kangmobei said that the car could be loaded, she was sorry for kangmobei's kindness if she didn't take more dishes back.

After buying vegetables, when I walked out of the market, the bag in my hand suddenly burst and several tomatoes rolled out.

Just as he was about to stoop to pick it up, a man came up and picked up the dropped vegetables. "Beauty, it's hard to pick up so many dishes, isn't it? I'll help you. "

I don't know why, Bai nianxi always thinks that men's eyes are very obscene, which makes her feel very uncomfortable. But since people are kind to help, Bai nianxi doesn't say much.

You can see the man carrying vegetables into the alley next to the vegetable market, and Bai nianxi just followed him, "this gentleman, my car is not here Well... "

There are not many people in the alley. The man directly turns around to seal Bai nianxi's mouth with tape, drops the vegetables, carries Bai nianxi and runs to his car deep in the alley.

Commobei is sitting in the spacious and bright office, looking at the computer screen in front of him. He puts one hand on the desk, and his slender fingers tap the desk from time to time, making a clear sound.

In front of us is the quarterly data of a subsidiary of comrades group, but it can't arouse commobei's interest. Commobei sometimes presses the screen of the mobile phone at hand and looks at the road map on the screen.

That's the real-time road map of the car he gave to Bai nianxi.

She went out in his car? A smile of satisfaction came from the corner of his mouth.

Well, as expected, I came to the vegetable market and didn't run around.

One minute, two minutes, ten minutes

Kangmobei's eyes narrowed. Does it take so long to buy a dish?

Until 30 minutes later, when I dial the phone, there comes the beep of busy line. Kangmobei can't help it any more. Teng stands up and walks outside the door. Secretary Xing comes in with a pile of documents. "General manager Kang, this is the quarterly report of each subsidiary..."

"Put it first." Commor sank to the north.

"But..." Secretary Xing wanted to talk but stopped. After thinking about it, he said, "it's very important."

Kang Mo North looked at Secretary Xing one eye, that look in the eyes with inexplicable chill, "you see do it."

Secretary Xing shut up. Kangmobei is obviously unhappy. However, in the past, kangmobei has never affected his work because of other things. Moreover, this pile of reports is related to tens of billions of data! Well, he's the only one to watch.

Conmber kept walking out. His wife has been outside for 35 minutes!

Come directly to the vegetable market that Bai nianxi often comes to, and see Bai nianxi's car is still parked outside. Kangmobei's face turns black. If he catches him, he is chatting with a man and forgets the time

Stride into the vegetable market to find up, but look over, there is no trace of Bai nianxi.

A bad feeling came to me.

The phone rang in my hand and got through, "smelly Daddy! Are you holding Mommy up again! Mommy said she would come to pick me up. Why hasn't she come yet! You give Mommy back to me!" The cold light burst out in her eyes. Bai nianxi didn't go to meet Luo Luo. Where would she go?

In the evening, the Kang family residence.

Conmobei opened the computer room, which is large and small more than 20 computers, Lolo sat on the small bench in front of the host, small fingers as fast as flying tapping his keyboard.

This is Lolo's exclusive room. Because Lolo has been gifted in it since he was a child, conmobei specially built such a computer room for him. When he was free, Lolo would play tricks on his own programming and software development.

Because the police are too slow, conmobei and Lolo simply come by themselves.

At the moment, more than 20 computers in front of them show all the monitoring of the large and small sections of a city. Before, Lolo had cracked the firewall and hacked into the network of the police station. At the moment, it is calling out all the monitoring that can be mobilized.

Although Lolo's speed is very fast, it's a huge task to watch all the surveillance in a city within two hours. Although Lolo used the face recognition system, half an hour later, he still got nothing.

Finally, "found it!"

Lolo's face was excited, and there were delicate beads of sweat on his face. He pointed to a place on the screen, "look here, it's Mommy!"

Kangmo North look, as expected, is Bai nianxi, but also standing beside a man, Bai nianxi mouth with tape, is being held!

Set a good position, kangmobei let Lolo stay at home, and then with a group of people in black rushed to the past.

In the dilapidated and abandoned factory, there was a faint voice of a woman whimpering.

"Oh, don't shout. Don't worry. It's very hidden here. You can't call anyone." A man with an impatient face tore the tape on Bai nianxi's mouth, "I've been in this business for many years, and the person who wants to do it has never failed."

The prohibition on the mouth is untied, Bai nianxi mercilessly gasps two breath, stare to kidnap her man, "who are you?"

"Me?" Man obscene smile, revealing his mouth two rows of disgusting smoked teeth, "call me East brother on the line."

Looking at Bai nianxi's expression, Dong Ge explained with kindness: "this time, someone is paying for your life. I'm also collecting money to do things. I can't help it."
