

Billionaire CEO Won't Leave

Chapter 265

"Now?" All the people present were surprised by Kuhn's words, and then there were disbelief eyes.

Bai nianxi also noticed the difference, turned his head to an Qing who had been protecting him and asked, "what's the matter?"

Anqing whispered in his ear: "the hacker has been found."

"Found it?" Bai nianxi was also very surprised, "how did you find it?"

"It was brought here."

"Who?"

Anqing turns her head and turns her eyes to one side. Her eyes penetrate the bustling crowd and fall on the man sitting quietly nearby.

The man is sitting alone on a small round table, calmly drinking wine, as if he doesn't care about the conflict here.

Although can not see the face, but the man's angular side face is still enough to attract people's attention, the body exudes a dense cold momentum and a touch of dignity, not offensive.

He's just sitting there, but for nothing, he's the one who's in charge.

Bai nianxi followed an Qing's line of sight to look in the past, at a glance saw Kang Mo north.

Why is he here?!

After the surprise, Bai nianxi's heart began to beat drums. How long has he been here?

Did he see her? Did you recognize her?

Just as Bai nianxi's eyes fell on Kang Mobei's body, Kang Mobei seemed to notice something. He looked over, and his eyes just collided with Bai nianxi's.

The sharp eyes make Bai nianxi feel chilly, but in a moment, he moves his eyes away and staggers his gaze with comomo north.

Commober seems to have no doubt about anything, light and took back his eyes.

"He's the one who sent people here?"

Anqing nodded.

Bai nianxi's eyebrows are deeper, and there are more and more doubts in his heart.

Why is this hacker in the hands of commobei? Why did commober send her here? He seems to know what's going on here?

Just thinking, Kuhn's people have taken the people sent by commobei, and the hackers are handed over to the arms dealers, and the scene suddenly becomes a bit chaotic.

But this chaos has nothing to do with Bai nianxi. This sudden big trouble has been solved. She just wants the arms dealer to take people away quickly, so that she can leave as soon as possible.

In the quarrel between hackers and arms dealers, Bai nianxi suddenly feels that the voice of hackers is familiar, like where he heard it.

After listening carefully for a few more words, I found that the voice of the woman who appeared in kangmobei's room a few days ago was very similar. Did kangmobei catch someone at that time?

Bai nianxi always felt that there were many things she didn't know, but she couldn't figure out the twists and turns.

After Kuhn came up with the men, the arms dealer said a few words and wanted to take them directly. The woman couldn't get rid of it. Her face was angry and sad. Suddenly, she seemed to see something in the crowd and yelled a few words in one direction.

Everyone looked in that direction.

It's in the north direction of Como.

Kangmobei is still sitting in the same place calmly, with a light expression on his face, as if he didn't care about what the woman said to him. He shakes his glass in his hand, then sends it to his mouth and swallows the wine gracefully.

When the crowd heard the woman's voice, they looked at conmobei with some doubts.

Noticing the abnormality, Bai nianxi turned to Kuhn and asked, "what did this woman say?"

Kuhn translated, "I've given my heart to you, but why do you betray me? I hate you

Kuhn's voice was as calm as a book, but he still heard Bai nianxi's voice and thought it was conmobei who brought the woman.

Unexpectedly, in order to bring this woman here, conmobei even used the idea of beautiful men?

At this moment, Bai nianxi can't connect the lonely and arrogant Kang Mobei with the Kang Mobei who betrays his color.

What is more puzzling is, why would conmobeir prefer to sell the sex to seize this woman? And then in the hands of this arms dealer?

The arms dealer left with the woman who was a hacker, and all the people around there also dispersed. Knowing that conmobei was also here, Bai nianxi became very uncomfortable and turned to the room in the winery.

Walking in a hurry, even the old man's rickety posture has forgotten to make a deliberate disguise. Como looks over, and his eyes fall on Bai nianxi who is in a hurry.

His eyes were so light that he couldn't see any emotion.

Bai nianxi also felt that his eyes fell on him, and his back was hot.

Until Bai nianxi's back disappears behind the door frame, Kang Mobei calmly takes back his sight, sips the wine in his hand, takes out his mobile phone in his pocket and dials a phone.

"Hello."

"Hello." There also came a lazy voice of a man, "done?" "Well." Conmber's voice was very light, and his slender fingers pinched the glass in their hands.

"I know that you do things, I am most assured." "It's not easy for the president of Kangda to sell his face," said the man on the other side

Kang Mobei's eyes darkened and his face was expressionless. "I've done what I promised you, and you'd better do what you promised me."

"Of course." The man chuckled, "if she knows, she'll thank you."

From this angle, the corner of his eye just saw Bai nianxi and anqing come out of the door just now under the escort of Kuhn.

"You shouldn't have let her come to such a dangerous place." Conmobei put his wine cup on the table with a faint chill in his words.

"She wanted to go by herself." Shen Hedan leisurely lay down on the soft chair in the office, looking lazy, "as you can see, in the past two years, I have protected her very well."

Kangmobei did not speak, eyes color dense, two years of time, how he came over, only he knows.

Two years ago, when he woke up from his slumber, he found that Bai nianxi and Luo Luo had disappeared from him, and their tracks were unknown. He had made great efforts to find them, but there was still no news.

Maybe I can't bear to see him depressed. After he was admitted to the hospital because of drinking and stomach bleeding, Shen Hedan's people contacted him.

Since then, he had the news of Bai nianxi, but in two years, he knew where Bai nianxi was, but he couldn't see her.

He endured his yearning and traveled all over the world. He wanted to paralyze himself with his busy work. This kind of life lasted for two years.

It's not easy. Shen Hedan's fight with Wei Xia is progressing. Luo Luo's eyes will be operated on for the last time. Their family will be reunited soon.

This time, Bai nianxi had a chance to come out, and he was able to see Bai nianxi. He just knew that there might be Wei Xia's people watching in the dark, or she had to keep a distance. She held back her love and pretended not to know him. Why not him?
