

Billionaire CEO Won't Leave

Chapter 283

After that, she regretted that she was really just polite, but she didn't consider the ambiguity in the words. It seems that there is something else in William's eyes?

After the dinner, there was another party. Everyone had a good time. It seemed that they had a posture of "Hi PI all night". Bai nianxi couldn't stand it, so he went back to his hotel room early.

Luo Luo is now slowly growing up and can no longer sleep with Bai nianxi, so Shen Hedan takes Luo Luo with Bai nianxi in a separate room.

Wei Xia in order to hold the wedding, directly under the package of the hotel, all the guests stay, sleep here, everyone has their own room.

I don't know whether intentionally or unintentionally, the rooms of Bai nianxi and Kang Mobei are adjacent.

When Bai nianxi comes back to the room and brushes the door with the exit card, kangmobei just comes out of the elevator. After a corner, he sees Bai nianxi who is opening the door.

Seeing someone coming, Bai nianxi habitually glances, but when he sees someone coming, his eyes stop, with surprise in his eyes.

Kangmobei's face is still light, no expression, the same look back at Bai nianxi, but deep in the eyes, seems to reveal a touch of meaningful cunning.

Bai nianxi is still in the same place. However, after looking at Bai nianxi for a few seconds, Kang Mobei takes back his eyes and walks to the door on Bai nianxi's left side. Holding a black room card in his hand, he brushes the door open and goes in.

When I go in, I have a look at Bai nianxi.

Bai nianxi takes back his eyes and walks into the room.

It's next door.

Bai nianxi suddenly remembered that when she was in Germany, komorbei lived next door to her. At that time, she thought that komorbei didn't know where she was and wanted to hide her identity.

At that time on the balcony, conmobei should also know her identity, deliberately taking care of her, right?

Think of here, white read Xi then some hate teeth itch.

Suddenly, I thought of Mr. Z again. After Mr. Z remitted the money to her account, they never contacted each other again. She sent the painting to room 1202 of niston manor and sent someone to guard it.

Strangely, the people she sent to guard didn't find any trace of Mr. Z, but the paintings in the room disappeared.

She once thought that musili was Mr. Z, but now, she is a little suspicious.

After returning to the room, Bai nianxi first took off her make-up, changed her clothes, and then went to the bathroom to take a bath. After a wash, she felt much more dry.

When Bai nianxi came out of the bathroom, he was only surrounded by a bath towel. Because Bai nianxi didn't like the bright light, the light in the room was very dark, which was also conducive to sleep.

I was walking when I ran into a man.

Bai nianxi threw the wet towel on the floor. Just now, she kept her head down and wiped her hair. She didn't notice that there was one more person in the room.

He's still a man with the smell of wine.

Bai nianxi was on the alert for a moment. He looked at him with sharp eyes and said, "who are you?"

The man who came in was stunned after hearing Bai nianxi's words, as if he didn't expect that there was a woman in the room.

It's musili!

How did he get into her room?

Bai nianxi was so surprised that he forgot what he wanted to say.

After Mu Sili raised his head slightly, he looked at Bai nianxi. His confused eyes looked at Bai nianxi for a long time, and finally recognized who was in front of him, "nianxi?"

Bai nianxi didn't answer. In her impression, Musi Li's drinking capacity should be good. In the past, Musi Li would never let himself get drunk and lose his image.

Musi Li stretched out his hand and waved in front of him, as if with a wry smile, "I've drunk too much, even the hallucinations I saw are her."

Then he went to the room by himself.

Mu Sili was wearing a delicate suit, and his meticulous hairstyle was a little messy. Maybe he had drunk too much and walked a little wobbly. He walked unsteadily and directly over Bai nianxi and went to the inner room.

White read Xi Leng Leng, also follow to go inside.

After changing clothes, he came to the room. Moussili had been lying on the bed. His suit and shirt were wrinkled, especially at the neckline. Moussili probably felt hot and pulled off a few buttons.

Bai nianxi can't help shaking his head. Musi li really doesn't have the consciousness of being a handsome man at all.

Now this appearance, if other women see, may be a careless loss. Fortunately, she didn't think about him.

Moussili was lying on his back with a headache after drinking too much wine. His eyes closed slightly and his eyebrows wrinkled unconsciously. He stretched out his hand to press his eyebrows. His white and slender fingers looked very beautiful under the dim light.

Mu Si leaves such a move, the room card that originally held in the hand then fell on the pure white sheet. Bai nianxi stoops to pick it up and looks at the room number above. It's really her room number. That's right. Musili came in with this card.

It's just, why does moussili have her room card?

Is the hotel giving the wrong room card, or is his room originally arranged here with her?

"Water." Musi Li murmured.

Bai nianxi puts down the room card in his hand, goes to one side to get the water cup, pours the water for Musi Li, then brings it over and hands it to Musi Li.

However, Musi Li has been drunk in bed and has no ability to drink water by himself.

Bai nianxi frowns. This is no good. Musi Li is drunk and needs to be taken care of. She seems to be incompetent for this job. Besides, the two men and women living in the same room have little influence.

This time in New York, Jin Ting and an Qing were not brought by Shen Hedan. Bai nianxi had no one to command. After thinking about it, he could only call Shen Hedan.

When Shen Hedan received the call, he was laughing happily in a group of people.

Because Shen Hedan also drank some wine, on the spur of the moment, he began to play card games with people. This moment, he was lucky.

Lolo sat on one side, arms in both hands, watching coldly, mouth from time to time spit out a: "boring."

"Hello." Shen Hedan's voice came from the phone. He seemed to have a good time.

Shen Hedan threw out all the chips in his hand, "follow."

Bai nianxi can't help frowning, "where's Lolo?"

Shen Hedan looked at Lolo, who was teased by a group of beautiful ladies and sisters on the other side and still had a cold face. "Here I am. Don't worry. He has a good time."

Bai nianxi frowned, "now come back to my room, immediately, immediately."

Shen He Dan squinted, "what's the matter?"

"Waiting for you to serve the people."

Listening to Bai nianxi's tone, Shen Hedan put down his heart and promised, "OK, I'll go back."

Bai nianxi hangs up and looks at Mu Sili in bed. He is in a bit of a dilemma.

Is it because she refused him that he drank so much today?

Mu Sili was lying on the bed, murmuring: "nianxi..."
