

Billionaire CEO Won't Leave

Chapter 294

Mu Rushuang looks at the back of Kangmo north, but the distance of a few meters makes her feel out of reach.

The snow is falling more and more, as if to hide everything between heaven and earth.

All of a sudden, a car came from a distance, driving fast with high beam. Mu Rushuang intuitively felt something wrong. Sure enough, the next moment, he saw that the car had rushed to the north of Kangmo.

Mu rushes over like frost, "careful!"

"Bang!"

After a loud noise, the oncoming vehicles have rushed into the roadside green belt, and the front of the car is the position where conmobei just stood.

Kangmobei also saved his mind, but he was already knocked down by murushuang at that time. Kangmobei was not injured. Looking at murushuang on his body, his lower body was in a pool of blood and he fainted.

Kangmobei's momentum suddenly rose. He got up from the ground and rushed to the car. The car was driving too fast just now. The man in the driver's seat was also a little dizzy and didn't have time to react.

The man in the driver's seat was dragged down by conmobei. Conmobei waved and punched the man in the face, "say, who sent you!"

The man recovered from his dizziness and saw that the man in front of him was Kang Mobei, "are you still alive?"

Kangmobei no longer spoke, and then he punched the man one after another. It seemed that every blow was aimed at the man's life.

A few punches will hit the man lost action, and then dial the phone Secretary Xing, inform him to come to arrest.

Then no longer delay time, picked up on the ground mu Rushuang, mu Rushuang stopped in the roadside car, all the way through several red lights, rushed to the hospital.

Mu Rushun was sent to the emergency room.

It's late at night. The door of the emergency room is very quiet. Only the light on the door is on. It seems that you can hear the sound of knives coming from the operating room.

Musi also rushed to come over, as soon as he came, he took the collar of commobei, "where's Shuanger! Where's frost

"In it." He said in a deep voice.

Moussili noticed the bloodstain on commo north, "is your blood Frost's?"

"There was an accident." Kangmobei rarely did not break away from Musi's hand, but dropped his eyes and his voice was low.

"Why did she have an accident?" Mu Sili was so excited that the tendons on his forehead came out.

"In order to save me." It's a bit difficult for conmber to say these four words.

If he could, he would rather the car hit him when it came, rather than help him.

After conmber answered, Musi Li was stunned at first, then swung his fist to conmber, "she shouldn't fall in love with you!"

After the fight, the two of them opened a few steps away. There were a few threads of blood in the corner of his mouth, but there was no pain on his face, as if he had not suffered the blow at all.

Mu Sili's chest fluctuated violently. Looking at Kang Mobei, his mood calmed down slightly for a long time. "You'd better pray that she's OK."

"I wish she was OK more than you." Commo North said without expression.

As time went by, finally, the door of the operating room was opened and a doctor in a white coat came out.

Moussili rushed up and asked, "doctor, how is my sister?"

The doctor took off the mask on his face and said, "are you a family member of the patient?"

Moussili nodded.

The doctor took a document and handed a pen to Mu Sili. "The patient's condition is not optimistic now. His left leg is seriously injured. There is no way to treat the operation. He can only amputate the limb. The family members should sign it first."

The door of the operating room is quiet, only the sound of breathing can be heard.

Mousse took a scratch from the doctor's hand. "What are you talking about? How is that possible? Why is it serious enough to amputate? Is there no room for treatment? "

The doctor frowned, "don't get excited. There's no way. We also want to try our best to save the patient's leg, so we've been working hard. But now there's no way. You'd better sign quickly. The operation can't be delayed any more."

Moussili's face was pale. He took the operation document and agreed to bookmark it.

When signing, his hand is shaking. He has signed countless documents, involving hundreds of millions of money, but not once, his hand has shaken like now.

After signing, the doctor went back to the operating room, ready for amputation.

Mousse stepped aside and leaned weakly against the wall, pressing his eyebrows with one hand. His whole body revealed a sense of frustration and despair.

His beautiful and elegant sister, in this way, lost a leg.

When she wakes up, what should he say to her?

When he heard the news, his pupils were constricted, his whole body was cold, and his air pressure was very low.

After all, he still owes mu Rushuang a debt that can't be paid off. In the operating room, we can only hear the sound of surgical knives, which sounds cold and piercing, and the sound of life from time to time on the electrocardiograph. It seems so fragile in the silent operating room.

Time has become incomparably long, clock ticking away, people standing there, as if to hear the footsteps of time.

"How's it going?" Bai nianxi catches Gao Yu who comes out of the operating room, looks very nervous, "doctor Gao, how's Luo Luo's operation going?"

Gao Yu takes off the mask on his face. After several hours of operation, he has been soaked in sweat all over his body. There is no expression on Gao Yu's face. It still looks like the original gentle look.

"Surgery..."

When Gao Yu opens his mouth, Shen Hedan's eyes are also cast in the past, with concern and expectation in his deep eyes.

"Very successful."

Gao Yu's words come out, Bai nianxi and Shen Hedan all long vomit out a breath, especially Bai nianxi, as if the body is hollowed out general, originally tight body soft down.

Shen Hedan embraces Bai nianxi in his arms. Bai nianxi also buries his head in Shen Hedan's chest. His eyes turn red and tears come out.

Voice with a choking, "brother, Lolo's eyes are good, Lolo's eyes, finally recovered..."

Shen Hedan's mouth also stirred up a happy smile, eh, touched Bai nianxi's head, "OK, everything is OK, Lolo's eyes are back to health, your family will soon be reunited."

Bai nianxi raised his head, his eyes were a little stunned, "our family..."

Shen Hedan said with a smile, "your family has been separated for a long time. It's time to get together. When Lolo's eyes are stable, you'll leave here and go back to city a to find kangmobei, Shen's family and Wei Xia. Give them to me."
