

Billionaire CEO Won't Leave

Chapter 300

Bai nianxi raised the dagger in her hand. There was no expression on her face, but her trembling hand showed her tension and fear at the moment.

The voice is still calm, "if you dare to come here, I promise that my next knife will be cut off by your lifeblood."

"It's easy to bully a woman, but it's not easy to bully a crazy woman. Rabbits will bite when they are anxious. Besides, I'm a crazy woman with a knife in my hand, right?"

"There's no need to gamble on the happiness of the rest of your life for a crazy woman like me. If you lose, you'll end up with no children and no grandchildren."

The man seems to think about it seriously and think that Bai nianxi has some truth to say.

The main reason is that Bai nianxi has a cool head and clear thinking. He may have practiced some self-defense skills and has a dagger in his hand. His attack power is absolutely not weak.

Even if I really want to get on her, I'm afraid I'll pay a big price.

"Don't you save your brother?" Bai nianxi glanced at the man who had been stabbed in the thigh by her on the ground. "I used a lot of force. He lost so much blood. Maybe he stabbed the artery. If he didn't go to the hospital again, he might die here."

Bai nianxi finished, the man in front turned his attention to the injured man. After thinking about it, he helped the injured man out.

Guard against the white night out of the door, quickly fell on the door lock.

Anyway, Kang Xinyue told me that after finishing the work, he locked Bai nianxi here. Without her order, he was not allowed to let go.

After the two men went out, Bai nianxi was finally relieved, and his tight body, which had been always on guard and alert, softened instantly.

After a look at the dagger in her hand, if the man didn't leave just now, she had no strength to resist.

Her palm, in the process of struggling, was opened by the blade.

Bai nianxi smiles. Just now he scared others that he would die of excessive blood loss. Now it seems that if she is locked up here all the time, maybe she will be the one who died of excessive blood loss.

His clothes were torn in pieces, covered with blood and dust. Bai nianxi managed to clean them up for himself, and then sat in the same place with his back against the wall.

She looked here. There was no place to leave except the door.

Can live, can only see in front of this door, when, by whom to push open.

Soon, Bai nianxi finds that Kang Xinyue's most vicious intention is to keep her here.

Close to the corner of the roof, there is a very small exhaust fan. There is a faint light coming from the outside. The exhaust fan is creaking and there is a sound coming.

This warehouse is probably close to the banquet hall of the hotel. The sound in the hall, though not very loud, is clear enough.

Bai nianxi leans against the wall feebly. She knows that the engagement ceremony between kangmobei and mu Rushuang has officially started.

Moving music, loud voices, the host's lyrical speech

Bai nianxi heard clearly.

Kang Xinyue's intention is vicious.

She wants her to be humiliated and tortured by two disgusting men in this dirty and messy warehouse, and at the same time, she can clearly hear the voice from outside.

It is clear that there is only a wall between her and komorbei, where she struggles in the mud, while komorbei

"I will."

Conmobei answered the host's question. The voice is as low as ever.

Oh. Bai nianxi lowered his head and chuckled. He pulled the rags off his body and wrapped them in his hands bit by bit.

If we don't stop the bleeding, she will really die.

Bai nianxi gently closed her eyes. As time goes by, compared with this life in danger, what is heartache? She still has to save her life to go out and depend on Lolo.

The engagement ceremony ended smoothly. After taking photos, the media immediately went back to their respective studios and rushed to send out the manuscript.

There are only two guests left.

after Kang Mobei stepped down, he went back to the rest room directly. Mu Rushun couldn't stay long in front of others because of her health, so she also went back to the rest room.

As soon as he got back to the lounge, he saw Lolo groping along the corridor of the hotel. He couldn't help shouting, "Lolo?"

Luo Luo's face was a little anxious. Hearing the voice of Kang Mobei, he ran directly to the direction of Kang Mobei's speech. Because he was running too fast, he didn't pay attention to his feet and fell, but he immediately got up again.

According to the sound of accurate judgment of the position of conumber, Lolo ran over, then waved his fist directly toward conumber's leg in the past.

"Say, where's Mommy?"

Conumber's brow couldn't help wrinkling. "She's gone?"

Mu Rushun's face on one side gradually became gloomy. During today's engagement ceremony, she didn't see any other expression on conumber's face. Only when Luo Luo talked about Bai nianxi, he had an expression!"Say, did your people take Mommy away! Why take Mommy! "

After hearing Luo Luo say that Bai nianxi was taken away, Kang Mobei's brow wrinkled deeper, "what do you say?"

"Go! Go and get mommy for me now Lolo was very angry and worried. He was about to leave with kangmobei's legs. Kangmobei's legs could not help but move.

"I won't!" Mu Rushuang called out.

Then he held the wheelchair with both hands and shook it to the front of conmbur, "I'm not allowed! I forbid you to go to her"

Kangmobei coagulates her eyes and looks at murushuang. It seems that she wants to say something. However, murushuang loses her reason in an instant, and points to her empty left leg, "kangmobei, you watch, my leg is broken for you!"

"I finally got you by my side at the cost of losing one leg. Why? Why can she make you go for it with only one sentence?"

"I won't, I won't!" Mu Rushuang roared like crazy.

Kangmobei looked at Mu Rushan's empty left leg, even breathing became difficult.

Yeah, he owes her.

But what should she do?

Mu Liancheng is walking with Kang Taiye. When he hears the voice, he rushes over. Seeing this situation, he suddenly understands everything.

"Conmobei, if you dare to leave here today, I'll break your leg!" Mu Liancheng angrily came over. Of course, he couldn't really interrupt Kang Mobei's words. Now he just said it out of protecting his weaknesses.

Although he walked slowly, he could see that he was in a hurry.

He first saw Lolo, and then he saw a complex emotion in his eyes. Lolo was his great grandson after all. When the old people saw the children of the younger generation, how could they not love him?

Besides, he is old now. During the two years of Lolo's life, he often thinks of his great grandson. The older he gets, the more he can't let go of his children.

But at the moment, it's not easy for him to show anything.
