

Billionaire CEO Won't Leave

Chapter 301

"I just need to find Mommy quickly! If something happens to Mommy, I won't forgive you!" Said Lolo.

"Don't go!" This is what Mu Liancheng said.

"Mobei..." Looking at kangmobei, Master Kang seemed to be admonishing him. "You can't be sorry, Rushuang..."

Lolo stands in the same place. No one in the world seems to care about him and Mommy.

"I hate you!" Luo Luo shakes off Kang Mo North's sleeve and shouts out loud. At this moment, the young voice is particularly desolate.

Hearing Luo Luo's words, Kang Taiye was unstable in his hand, and his crutch fell to the ground.

"Lolo!" Musi saw Lolo here and ran over, "Lolo, why are you here? Where's your mommy?"

When he returned to the tea room, he found that the door was open. It seemed that the door had been forced open from inside, and Bai nianxi and Luo Luo had disappeared.

Most importantly, there are signs of fighting in the room.

Mu Sili noticed that it was not good. He looked around the hotel and found no trace of Bai nianxi and Luo Luo. When he came here, he heard Luo Luo's voice.

When Luo Luo heard the voice of Musi Li, he immediately loosened his clothes and went to musu Li. "Uncle mu, mommy has been taken away. Please take me to find Mommy."

"When and by whom?" Hearing Luo Luo's words, Mu Sili's face became more anxious.

"You are not allowed to go, either!" Mu Liancheng said angrily. "If you dare to go, I'll break your leg as well!"

"You are not allowed to go to that woman! That woman has nothing to do with the Kang family or the Mu family! "

While Mu Liancheng was talking, Mu Si took a look at Kang Mobei and found that Kang Mobei was also looking at him. It seemed that there was a flash when his eyes met.

"Dad, it may be very dangerous now." Mu Sili means to find Bai nianxi.

"You dare!" Mu Liancheng bent down to pick up the crutch that Master Kang had just fallen on the ground, and waved it to Mu Sili's back.

After being hit by a stick, Mu Sili's body is still motionless and steady. Then, Mu Liancheng's second stick swings over and directly knocks on Mu Sili's leg. Mu Sili falters and shakes.

Then he lowered his head and took Lolo's hand. "Lolo, go."

Bai nianxi's eyelids are getting heavier and heavier, and he is locked up in the warehouse. I don't know how long it takes.

In a trance, the door was forced to open from the outside. After a loud sound, musili and Lolo appeared at the door.

Lolo can't see the scene inside, but he faintly feels that his mommy is inside.

Mu Sili saw that Bai nianxi was in a mess. His eyes shrank and he stepped forward quickly, "nianxi?"

Bai nianxi opened his heavy eyelids. At first, he just saw a vague figure in front of him. Then, the figure in front of him became clear.

It's musili.

Musi leaned forward and said, "nianxi, what happened, you..."

Looking down, he saw the bloodstain on Bai nianxi's body, and the cloth whose palm was soaked with blood. His voice suddenly became tense, "you are..."

Because musili supports Bai nianxi's body leaning against the wall. Bai nianxi's body is not forced, and at the same time, it falls to musili's arms.

He murmured: "thank you "I'm thinking of you..." Then he fainted.

When hearing the words from Bai nianxi's mouth, Mu Sili's whole body was stiff, as if he couldn't believe his ears.

For the first time, Bai nianxi called him "Sili".

Is this the beginning between them?

Mu Sili picked up Bai nianxi on the ground and walked out of the warehouse. He was beaten on the leg by Mu Liancheng. When he walked, he couldn't make any effort, but he was very stable when he held Bai nianxi.

Hospitals.

After a night's sleep, Bai nianxi wakes up. When he wakes up, Musi Li, Luo Luo and Anqing are all on the edge of the hospital bed.

When they wake up, Bai nianxi has a headache. Musi is holding Lolo in his arms. They stay up all night. Until they are sure that Bai nianxi is out of danger, they doze off by the bed.

Anqing is the first to see Bai nianxi wake up. He is so excited that he will call out. Bai nianxi hisses, indicating that he should not wake Musi and Lolo.

Then Anqing was called to bed by Bai nianxi. Bai nianxi asked softly, "what happened yesterday..."

Anqing lowered his head and said in a low voice, "don't worry, miss. I've already reported to Shen Shao." The expression on his face was sincere, as if he had vowed to be angry for Bai nianxi.

Bai nianxi touches her forehead. The first thing she wakes up is that she wants to tell Anqing not to tell Shen Hedan about it.

Otherwise, if he knew, he would come to a city soon. He still had so many things to deal with. She didn't want him to worry. "The young master said that he would fly to city a on the earliest and fastest flight, and beat Kangmobei to get revenge for the young lady." Anqing said seriously.

Bai nianxi's voice was a little hoarse and weak. "When is the earliest and fastest flight?"

"According to the time of city a, it should be ten o'clock in the morning." Anqing looked at his watch. "The young master will be boarding in half an hour."

Bai nianxi's eyes brightened, "give me the phone."

Bai nianxi calls Shen Hedan. Shen Hedan on the other end of the phone is angry and in high spirits. Weak Bai nianxi says good or bad, and then he gives up Shen Hedan's idea that he is going to rush to fight Kangmo north.

"However, the situation in a city has become like that. Do you really not come back?" Shen He Dun coagulates eyes and asks with worry.

Bai nianxi shook his head, "I want to stay here, there are still some things waiting for me to do."

If so, I can't stand it. How can she cultivate Lolo into a man who is indomitable and fearless?

Heartache is one thing, but people always have to learn to face the reality.

Shen He on the other end of the phone thought for a long time, and finally agreed, "you can do your own things by yourself. No matter what, just remember that I will always stand behind you, and I will be your strongest backing."

Bai Nian Xi Leng Leng, such words, seem a long time ago, someone also said to her.

But now, that person is no longer with her, he is no longer her backing, no longer her armor, he is a dagger inserted in her heart, is her broken wing on the other side.

"Well." Bai nianxi nodded, and his voice seemed bitter.
