

Billionaire CEO Won't Leave

Chapter 319

"Miss mu, Lolo has his own ideas. We don't need you to worry about our affairs.
"Bai nianxi raised his head and pulled out an indifferent and stubborn smile on his face.

"But father and son's affection can't be cut off or cut off. "Murushuang's words are meaningful and seem to remind us of something.

"So what? "Bai nianxi's eyes turned to kangmobei and saw that he was frowning at himself. The emotion in his eyes was not clear.

"Is Miss Mu willing to give Lolo's father back? " mu Rushuang's whole body froze, and suddenly felt like falling into an ice cellar. His blood coagulated, and then he rubbed his head.

What does Bai nianxi mean? Are you challenging her? Or are you blaming her for taking conmbbe?

But why should she? Why do you want to give conmbber back to her, to Lolo?
Conmobei, she got it at the cost of losing a leg!

Just when mu Rushun was about to lose her sense, Bai nianxi said with a smile: "since Miss Mu is not willing to give up, please let Miss Mu and Mr. Kang have a good life. Lolo and I don't worry about Miss mu. " with that, he pulls Lolo, pushes away the crowd and goes out.

Turning around at that moment, the heart only despair.

After she came back, she didn't deliberately inquire about conmobei and murushuang. Since every time she thought about it, it would make her gasp for breath, why did she have to worry about it and try to understand it all? Anyway, everything can't be changed, can't she?

Mu Rushun's mood has been wandering on the edge of losing control. He shakes the wheelchair with both hands and wants to keep up with him. Suddenly, his hands help him up and hold him on the wheelchair handle behind him.

"That's enough. Let's go."

Bai nianxi almost forced himself to go back to the hotel with Lolo. As soon as he got back to the room, he sat on the sofa with soft feet, his chest was aching, and he was a little out of breath.

The light in the room is very dark. Luo Luo takes off his sunglasses and goes to Bai nianxi. He reaches for Bai nianxi and holds him in his arms.

It's like a child trying to pamper her tired mother. They hugged each other and warmed each other in this lonely world.

For a long time, Bai nianxi came back and touched Lolo's head and asked: "Lolo, why do you say that today?"

"I saw him." Lolo looked up from Bai nianxi's arms.

Bai nianxi was stunned. So, he said that on purpose because he saw Kang Mobei in the crowd?

Lolo's eyes are staring at the air not far away. They have no focus. They seem to be thinking about something. After a long time, they say: "I hate him."

he wanted to say that he hated him. However, the word "hate" can not be said so easily after all.

Bai nianxi doesn't know what to say. It's not what she wants for Luo Luo to hate Kang Mobei. They are father and son after all. Blood is thicker than water. How can this relationship continue.

"Perhaps he has a problem?" "It seems that Bai nianxi is comforting someone. Of course, he has a hard time. How could he leave her and Lolo for no reason?"

She just, all the time, didn't want to know what the trouble was.

"If you have any difficulties, you can leave mommy and me?" Lolo's emotion finally got excited, and his indifferent face, like that of Kang Mobei, was not so calm when he talked about this topic.

"He abandoned us without a word! Even the timing of the wedding was just right. When Mommy brought me back from America, she saw him marry another woman!"

" Lolo \"

the more Lolo said, the more excited he was. He clenched his fists and tears were in his eyes." since he doesn't want us, I don't want him either! Isn't that the father? No, it doesn't matter! \"

" in this world, I only want to have Mommy. I want to let him know that we can live well without him! \"

Bai nianxi has choked to the point that he can't speak. He wanted to persuade Luo Luo, but he made himself cry.

Mu house.

Since kangmobei sent mu Rushuang back, mu Rushuang has been locking himself in the room. From time to time, there comes the sound of things crashing on the ground.

Several servants stood outside the door, very worried and cried out, "Miss \" before the words were finished, there was a roar of hysteria from the inside, \ " get out! Get out of here! "Roll --!" in the roar, there were several smashing sounds.

Until the last thing that can be smashed in the room, mu Rushun finally stopped panting.

The floor of the room has been in a mess. Mu Rushun's hands are shaking. In one hand, he is holding a knife, which is inserted into the fruit on the tea table. The fruit is chopped by mu Rushun.

Because too much force, also hurt his hand, palm full of blood.

Close your eyes, even your shoulders can't help shivering. Bai nianxi's words have been echoing in her mind.\ "Is Miss Mu willing to give Lolo's father back? \" of course, she is not willing and will not.

It's not the only way to keep them from being separated, is it?

She will never let conumber return to bainianxi and Lolo, but she can take Lolo away from bainianxi.

She, conumber, Lolo, they can be a family.

In the twinkling of an eye, Bai nianxi has been in a city for almost a month.

Bai nianxi is busy with a big project recently. If this project is done well, it will bring Qianqiu huge profits and development space. The development of the whole company will go to a new level.

Busyness is a good medicine for the treatment of pain. When every minute of life is filled with busyness, you can't separate your mind from those bad things.

It's just that it's hard to fall asleep at night.

"Miss Bai seems to be in a bad mood recently?"

Gao Yu comes to Luoluo for routine examination again and notices Bai nianxi's pale face.

Bai nianxi nodded, "well, maybe I've been working too hard recently."

Gao Yu takes out the stethoscope and other tools and walks towards Bai nianxi.

"No" Bai nianxi refused.

"That's what Mr. Shen meant." Gao Yu directly takes out Shen Hedan to crush her, "Mr. Shen told me before I came here. My main task here is to take good care of Miss Bai and young master Luoluo."

Gao Yu puts his hand in front of Bai nianxi, but Bai nianxi has no choice but to hand it to Gao Yu.

Gao Yu has measured the blood pressure one by one for Bai nianxi, checked the heartbeat, and finally, his face gradually becomes strange.

"What's the matter?" Bai nianxi noticed Gao Yu's changing face and asked suspiciously.

"Miss Bai, have you had a bad rest recently, and it's hard to fall asleep, but you often feel tired?"

Bai nianxi nodded.

"How's your appetite?"

" is not good." Bai nianxi replied honestly.

\\"One last question. \\"Gao Yu's face turned red slightly, and some of her desire to talk stopped.\" when was Miss Bai's last physiological period? \\"
