

Billionaire CEO Won't Leave

Chapter 344

"Don't worry. The due date is today. It's normal to have no movement or delay. Relax."

Bai nianxi is lying on the bed in the delivery room. He is nervous and his fists are tight.

The doctor opened his mouth to calm Bai nianxi's nervousness. On one side, Luo Luo was also nervous.

"Lolo, do you want to have a brother or a sister?"

In order not to let Luo Luo worry, Bai nianxi asked with a smile.

"I want a sister," Lolo said without thinking

"Well, what if it's my brother?" Bai nianxi raised his hand and touched Lolo's head.

Lolo hesitated a little and said, "if it's my brother, I'll take it. It's acceptable to bear it."

"Poo Chi," Bai nianxi was amused by Luo Luo's serious little expression. At the same time, he had a faint pain in his abdomen, "hiss..."

"Mommy, what's the matter with you? Do you have a stomachache?" Lolo promptly and acutely captures the strange expression on mommy's face, and immediately shouts out nervously, "doctor!! Mommy is not feeling well! "

Before the doctor stepped out of the delivery room, he heard Luo Luo's call. The doctor quickly walked to Bai nianxi. After a little examination, his expression eased and said, "it's normal fetal movement. It doesn't matter."

Luo Luo hears the sound, a little relieved, but the hand holding mommy's arm, still holding tightly.

Kangmobei anxiously turns around outside the hospital. He accidentally catches a glimpse of two reporters walking out of the hospital, one in front of the other behind the other, carrying the camera. He hastens to get there and asks: "is Bai nianxi born? Is mother and son safe? "

Suddenly caught, the male reporter was startled to see that it was kangmobei. His face raised his dislike. After shaking off kangmobei's hand, he said in a displeased tone: "not born yet."

Kangmobei doesn't care that he is treated coldly. As long as he confirms that Bai nianxi is safe, he can put down his heart. But before the baby is born, his heart will naturally be nervous.

Shen Hedan specially finished his work early, made a reservation, and came to the hospital today to welcome his nephew.

Shen Hedan was brought to the outside of the hospital in a grand business car. As soon as he got out of the car, Shen Hedan caught Kang Mobei swinging back and forth at the door of the hospital.

With a slight frown, Shen Hedan went straight to the hospital by pretending not to see him.

Seeing Shen Hedan coming, Kang Mobei was overjoyed and decided to step forward.

Jin Ting had already led Shen Hedan's orders. As kangmobei was about to block Shen Hedan's way, he grabbed kangmobei rudely and pushed him aside.

"Well? Take me in with you. " Kang Mobei certainly knew why Shen Hedan turned a blind eye to himself, but he didn't care.

But there was no one to pay attention to him at all, so connmobei had to continue to turn around outside.

The pain of labor comes more frequently. Even if Bai nianxi doesn't want to show pain in front of Luo Luo, he still can't hold the pain of labor.

Bai nianxi, who frowns tightly and has pain written on his face, occasionally utters uncontrollable painful chants, which makes Luo Luo's heart tightly clenched.

"Son, you wait outside."

The midwife who received the news in a hurry, patiently invited Lolo to the outside, and then several doctors busy with prenatal preparation, pushed Bai nianxi to the other side of the hidden.

The scream has made Bai nianxi's throat hoarse, but there is no sign of relief. On the contrary, the degree of pain is more and more severe. She obviously feels that her lower body is being torn. The feeling of tearing makes Bai nianxi feel cold.

"The temperature is 36 degrees seven." The anesthesiologist of the monitor said solemnly.

"Push A doctor encouraged Bai nianxi.

Bai nianxi listens to the intense pain, constantly exerting himself. A group of doctors frowning tightly tell Bai nianxi to feel familiar uneasiness for the second time.

.....

"Wow!"

After a long but slow hard time, the shrill cry, which cuts through the sky, finally spreads to everyone who is waiting with "good news".

"Have you had a baby? I have a baby

Shen Hedan arranged for his subordinates to stop the reporter in the distance. As the nurse carried the newborn out of the delivery room, the cry of the newborn was clearly introduced into the reporter's ears.

The reporters who failed in the interview could only leave bitterly, but they did not get nothing. At least they saw the baby with their own eyes and Bai nianxi was pushed out of the delivery room, confirming the safety of the mother and son.

Kangmobei saw reporters coming out of the hospital one after another and rushed to ask.

"Is nianxi born? Is mother and son safe? " These two sentences have been repeated dozens of times.

There were a lot of reporters who didn't want to talk to him, until the young reporter who was walking behind was suddenly caught by him and subconsciously gave him a positive answer. After that, conmoibeir jumped into the air and waved his fist with joy.

"No, I'll see for myself." Even though he knew that he would be stopped, he still wanted to see it with his own eyes.

Sneaking to the outside of the delivery room, kangmobei tries to get around the eyes of Shen Hedan's subordinates. Finally, he is caught by the back collar. Shen Hedan was in the corridor, and saw his men were holding kangmobei to expel him, so he walked over with a cold face.

Thinking that Shen Hedan came to put himself in, Kang Mobei showed his expectant eyes and smile.

"Throw this rubbish out." Shen Hedan's cold voice extinguished Kang Mobei's expectation.

"Let me go! The child is mine! I'm the father of the child! I have the right to... "

"Pa", a cold slap from Shen Hedan covered kangmobei's cheek. Kangmobei didn't care about the hot pain at all. He just wanted to go in and see his child with his own eyes.

"Throw it out!" Shen He delay angry voice again way.

"No! I beg you to show me! Just a glance Conmber struggled.

"Useless things. I hate people who don't believe what they say." Shen Hedan's disappointment with kangmobei comes from his inaction in this year.

At the beginning, he was sent to the United States by the Kang family. In Shen Hedan's opinion, Kangmo Beiming met the requirement of a comeback. However, he was willing to be a rascal and did nothing but pester his sister Bai nianxi.

"Give me a look! I promise you everything! You can be a dog! Woof, woof, woof Kangmobei seems to really do not have self-esteem, struggling between also clamoring, begging.

Lolo's eyes sparkle with curiosity and expectation through the transparent insulation cover, and peep at the little cute who just came to this world ~

"she's really my sister..." Lolo was in full bloom, feeling that now was the happiest day in his short life.

Bai nianxi collapsed after childbirth and collapsed on the hospital bed, leaving doctors and nurses to inject drugs for him.

"Sister," Shen Hedan, after dealing with Kang Mobei's entanglement, came to the ward with emotion, "it's hard for you."

Bai nianxi couldn't even put a bitter smile on his face: "child..."

"It's a little princess. I have a niece!" Shen Hedan said with surprise and moving voice.
