

Billionaire CEO Won't Leave

Chapter 349

Luo Luo faintly heard the footsteps outside the bedroom door. It was a little more complicated than before. It was the footsteps of two people.

Gently raised the corners of his mouth, Lolo's face flashed a smile, and then strive to enter the dream.

Kangmobei is light handed. He is led by Bai nianxi and follows Bai nianxi. He walks through the living room and then goes directly to the bedroom.

This home is not too big, but it has a full sense of warmth. Kangmobei treasures the scenery in the room until Bai nianxi pulls him into the bedroom, and the door closes gently.

At the moment when Bai nianxi saw the bed, he felt tired and couldn't resist it any more. He went back to the quilt gently. Bai nianxi entered a dream in the next second.

In my dream, Lele is growing up

Kangmobei heard the sound of breathing in deep sleep, and stood in the same place more cautiously.

White walls, translucent screen curtain, light color of the layout, dirty komobi is very abrupt.

The cradle is beside the bed, and the little girl, who can take a look at kangmobei's heart, sleeps soundly inside.

Conmber seems to be very nervous, hands clenched in front of the abdomen, trembling close to the small cradle.

Lele's face is quiet and sleepy. From time to time, he smacks his tender little fingers. Conmobei's eyes are shining. He greedily looks at Lele's face and doesn't even want to blink.

The two hands holding each other were hurt by themselves. Kangmobei released his hands, and the palms were full of sweat.

He wanted to raise his hand to touch Lele's little face, but he was afraid that his hand would smear his innocence.

Looking back, Bai nianxi fell asleep motionless. Nobody called Kang Mobei, embarrassed to look back.

Take a bath and feel Lele The thought rose in conumber's heart, and he opened the door of the wardrobe quietly.

He thought that there was only women's clothes in the wardrobe. Unexpectedly, half of the positions were filled with men's clothes. Conmobei reached out and took out a set of cotton pajamas. He unfolded and found that the size was the same as his own.

It turns out that she has always reserved her own place In this house

Conmobei walked out of the room lightly and took a quick bath in the bathroom. After he was dressed, he resolutely returned to the cradle, his hand trembling.

"Ah..."

At the moment of touching Lele's little face, conmobei's heart will melt.

"Cute, so cute..." Conumber's nose was so sour that he sniffed. The sound was a little loud, but Bai nianxi still didn't move. He seemed to be asleep.

The next day, the smell of delicious food came into Bai nianxi's nose. Bai nianxi got up sleepy and saw that the door was not closed.

Knowing that kangmobei has obtained the qualification to enter the house, Bai nianxi doesn't feel confused. Next to him, Lele is lying quietly with the right age pacifier in his mouth.

See Bai nianxi's face in the sky, Lele issued a "giggle" light laughter.

Commobei put on an apron and cleaned up the mess kitchen. Then he went to the vegetable market early and bought back some fresh ingredients.

In the early morning, kangmobei made a table of good dishes. Seven or eight dishes, including braised pork, steamed fish and stewed ribs, had already been put on the table one after another.

Bai nianxi suddenly thinks of Luo Luo. If Luo Luo sees kangmobei With this thought, Bai nianxi realized that he had made a hasty decision last night.

Unexpectedly, when Bai nianxi came to the dining room smelling the fragrance of vegetables, Luo Luo had already sat down quietly, eating delicious food with a good appetite.

"Why, wake up? Come and eat." Kangmobei smiles brightly at Bai nianxi.

When Lolo heard the sound and looked back to see Mommy, she deliberately squeezed out a second smile. After a second, the smile disappeared instantly. She turned back and continued to eat appetizers.

"I'd like some soup, Mr. Kang." Lolo gave orders to Commodore north.

With a serious look on his face, Kang Mobei straightened up, nodded his head and said, "OK, I'll serve you spareribs soup."

"Well." Lolo, in a very low voice, gave a thump.

Bai nianxi was inexplicably relieved.

"Wow..."

There was a loud cry in the bedroom. Bai nianxi wanted to go back to the bedroom, but he saw that kangmobei was faster than her. He quickly put the spareribs soup in front of and behind Luoluo's noodles. As he walked quickly, he said to Bai nianxi with his back: "you eat, I'll take care of the children!"

Kangmobei carefully picked up Lele and turned himself into the cradle of human flesh, shaking it from side to side: "Lele, dear, Mommy is eating. When Mommy finishes eating, she will feed you, don't cry ~ don't cry ~" the voice of coaxing the child almost made Bai nianxi laugh. You can see Lolo's indifferent face, and Bai nianxi tries to press her smile back to the bottom of her heart.

"Lolo, you..." Bai nianxi doesn't know how to speak.

"Well?" Lolo raised his eyes and saw mommy's expression. Naturally, he looked back at the door of his bedroom. It seemed that he was looking at conmobei, and he put a piece of braised pork into his mouth without looking up. "It's good to have a nanny at home, at least I don't have to learn to cook." Lolo said faintly.

Kangmobei coaxes Lele patiently. Lele seems to understand it. After coaxing for a few minutes, Lele calms down. But looking at kangmobei's eyes, he is still confused.

"Shh, let me tell you a secret. I'm your daddy Hee..." Kangmobei looks at Lele's dull face and whispers mysteriously.

"Cluck..." Lele suddenly smiles and looks at conmobei.

"Ah..." Conmobei's heart was melted again, and there was an itch in it that could not be scratched.

Bai nianxi picks up a piece of braised meat. The delicate fragrance and tender taste of the meat make Bai nianxi unconsciously secrete a lot of saliva.

He remembered that I didn't like sweet This is Bai nianxi's first reaction. Generally speaking, braised meat is colored with caramel. Conmobei remembers that she doesn't like sweet food very much. She doesn't even put the little sugar that braised meat needs.

"I went to school."

Bai Nian was distracted while eating on the evening. He didn't realize that Luo Luo had already put down the dishes and chopsticks. He packed his books from the bedroom and went to the gate.

"Oh," Bai nianxi subconsciously put down the dishes and chopsticks, "I'll change my clothes and give you a present."

"No, it's very close. I can walk there." Lolo changed his shoes, raised his hand to open the door, and closed the door from the outside.

Bai nianxi looked back and ate all the rice in Luo Luo's bowl.

"What do you want to eat?" Kangmo North language gas light fluttering, along Bai nianxi just look at the door, and then say his guess, "don't worry, I'll follow."

"No, Lolo has grown up." Bai nianxi returned to his senses and said calmly. Then he lifted his chopsticks again and put the braised meat into his mouth one after another.

Today is the best day for Bai nianxi to sleep in the past year.
