

Billionaire CEO Won't Leave

Chapter 356

"Lolo doesn't cry, the doctor said, daddy has reaction, so it will be OK."

Bai nianxi breathes her tears into her snot, and asks her to breathe more smoothly. Then she picks up the mobile phone that commobei uses to contact all parties in her name and holds it in her hand.

Looking at the wechat contact interface, Bai nianxi saw that it was all routine remote command content.

After finding the director of the public relations department, Bai nianxi issued an instruction:

[I had a car accident, so don't let the media find out about it. It's not OK at all.]

a few seconds later, the director of the public relations department responded quickly:

[yes!]

The rest, only endless waiting, the door of the operating room, for a long time without any movement.

"Mommy, you're hurt, too." Luo Luo raised his finger and touched the bruise on Bai nianxi's shoulder.

"Hiss..." White read night subconsciously called a pain, this just looked around his body up and down, looking at himself still wearing a pajamas.

Conmobei, still in the dream that can't wake up, seems to be imprisoned in the dream.

A huge force, pulling the north of Como rising to the sky, rising to the dazzling white light.

Kangmobei fought hard, but he couldn't resist at all

"Blood transfusion!"

Three surgeons are operating on him at the same time. One is a brain surgeon, one is a physician, and the other is an orthopedic surgeon. He is operating on his legs, brain and internal organs.

"Diddidi" emergency alarm sound came, three doctors frowned and raised their eyes, alarm sound from cardiac arrest.

"Power on!" Cried the physician, holding the defibrillator in both hands.

"Eh!" Even though he knew that the struggle was useless, he was still struggling. When he struggled to resist the absorption of the invisible force, the struggle suddenly became useful! He quickly fell to the ground from a high altitude. The moment he fell to the ground, he felt a sharp pain!

.....

"Heart beat! 75! 85!" The nurse who monitors the ECG shouts a number every second to inform the doctor that the heartbeat has recovered.

.....

"One more chance." Kangmobei is lying on the nihilistic ground in great pain. In front of his face, Bai nianxi's smiling face appears again. His voice is full of cold, like giving orders to him.

"Good! thank you! Thank you Conmobeir looked at the gradually disappearing "phantom" and said thanks eagerly. Then, his consciousness returned to obscurity again.

.....

[Mr. Bai, the public relations disposal has been carried out in place.]

[OK。]

Bai nianxi is sitting in the secret ward. Except for the doctor, she and Luo Luo, others are forbidden to enter.

Kangmobei is still sleeping in the hospital bed. Today, it's his third day of sleepiness -

Yu Feixue is busy with the work at hand, while taking advantage of her spare time, she keeps turning over the mobile phone news page and can't see the news she wants. Yu Feixue enters the keyword "a city accident" in the search engine.

[the day before yesterday, a hit and run incident happened on the main road in the urban area. The victim said that he had settled with the fugitive. The Ministry of communications continued to track down the fugitive on the ground that the case had entered the review process]

Yu Feixue only found this unimportant little news. After reading the news, Yu Feixue knew that it was deliberately suppressed.

As soon as 5:00 p.m. arrived, Yu Feixue rushed to punch in and get off work, and came to Mu's home to look for mu Rushun.

Mu Rushuang had been waiting for her to come. When she heard the door opening, she asked urgently:

"what's the news?"

Yu Feixue shook her head: "it seems that the woman deliberately pressed down. Fortunately, in case of investigation, I don't know whether those two people will tell me."

Yu Feixue's voice, slightly with joy, after all, buy murderer assassinate Bai nianxi, is she and mu Rushuang secretly do together.

"Don't know why this woman wants to press down, is hiding what secret?" After Yu Feixue was lucky, she couldn't help guessing.

Mu Rushun's face was cold, because she almost couldn't do it, and she had to involve herself, so she was not in a good mood.

"That woman didn't hurt at all?" Mu Rushuang asked.

Yu Feixue wry smile: "things suddenly almost make big, the two men have already run, the final money is not, also can't ask."

"There is no discussion inside Qianqiu?" Mu Rushuang asked again.

"No," the original happiness, was repeatedly asked to blow away, the sense of peace of mind was also replaced by nervous conjecture, "does this woman know that we did it, want to secretly revenge us?"

Mu Rushun did not make any response, which in Yu Feixue's view, seems to be in default, scared her heart.

"I knew it would be different..." Yu Feixue's frightened face looks like crying.

"Don't be afraid. It's OK." Mu Rushuang, a calm voice with no expression on his face.

"Well Let's forget about it..." Yu Feixue is just dissatisfied with her cousin in words, but she really takes action. This is the first time. After all, she is very timid and she will be afraid." "Well, look again." Mu Rushuang secretly clenched his fist, thinking about how to deal with Bai nianxi next time.

In her opinion, Bai nianxi's indifference and turning the big matter into the small one is a kind of irony.

Seeing that her cousin doesn't speak any more, Yu Feixue consciously leaves mu Rushun's room and stands at the gate of Mu's house. She takes a deep breath to relieve her depression and tension. She secretly plans to keep a distance from her cousin, so as not to get involved in such bad things.

Conmobeir's dream, like only a few seconds, consciousness gradually return, he also slowly opened his eyes.

"Mommy! Daddy's hands are broken!" Luo Luo's exclamation was introduced into Bai nianxi's ear, as well as into Kang Mobei's ear.

Conmobei's eyelids opened slightly. In front of him, there was a mild and dark light, so he didn't need to adapt to the light for too long. After a few seconds of focusing, he could see the ceiling and the open and tidy ward.

Bai nianxi rushed to him, his eyes full of expectation: "wake up?"

"Well Er..." Open mouth to speak, also involving forehead pain, "hiss..."

"Don't move. Have a good rest." Bai nianxi exhorted, and then motioned to Lolo, "help Mommy heat the porridge in the microwave oven. Daddy should be hungry."

"Oh." Lolo has recovered the tension and surprise and returned to the nature of high cold.

"How long did I sleep?" Conmber said with the lowest volume, only in this way, can not involve the forehead wound.

In order to listen to him clearly, Bai nianxi's ears are close to the ground. Kangmobei can also smell the fragrance of his hair, but the fragrance is mixed with a light oil smell

"Three days, I'm awake." In order to avoid him talking, Bai nianxi kept his ears close to him.

"So you haven't washed your hair for three days? I smell oil. " Kangmobei thought of what, naturally also said.
