

Billionaire CEO Won't Leave

Chapter 357

Bai nianxi's expression returned to coldness: "then I'll call a nurse to look at you. I'll take care of myself and go home."

After that, Bai nianxi will leave.

"Wait! Hiss Conmobei was worried, and his voice yelled out in a low voice.

"Lie down. The nurse will come soon. It's just time for you to wipe your body." Bai nianxi opens the door of the ward and leaves the ward without hesitation.

Call you cheap Kangmobei slapped himself in the face in his heart - it's not rare for Mousi to have lunch at home, because he usually stays at home on weekends.

"Rushuang, why hasn't the snow come over these two days?" Moussili chatted casually, chatting and having lunch.

Mu Rushuang drooped her eyes slightly and swallowed the food in her mouth: "she's a little busy recently."

"Oh, if you're bored, my brother will push you out for a walk." Mu Sili raised his eyes after saying this and gave Mu Rusheng a faint smile.

Mu Rushun's mind suddenly came up with the idea that once upon a time, my brother and Bai nianxi had such a good relationship. If I can't get information now, maybe my brother can "Brother, I heard from Feixue that Bai nianxi has not been to the company for a long time." Mu Rushuang opens the topic tactfully and plans to introduce the topic step by step.

"Well, I haven't seen her for a long time, either." Mu Sili wants to see her, but it's Bai nianxi who decides whether to see her or not.

"I heard that Bai nianxi had an accident." Mu Rushuang deliberately said lightly.

"What? How do you know? " As expected, Musi Li was nervous, but his expression was dubious.

Mu Rushuang said with a smile: "yes, Feixue said it, but Bai nianxi didn't want to see it in the newspaper, so he pressed it down."

As expected, Musi Li had no appetite to eat any more. After leaving the table quickly, he manipulated his mobile phone and walked out.

Bai nianxi is sitting in a public seat at the gate of the hospital. Her car is just outside the hospital, but she doesn't mean to leave the hospital, or to say, she doesn't mean to leave kangmobei.

Even if Kang Mobei was injured, Bai nianxi still felt that only by his side could he have a sense of security.

Looking at the mobile phone in her pocket and opening the mobile phone housekeeping software, conmobei sets her mobile phone to reject all incoming calls. Even so, the blocked caller ID also lies in the list in a row.

"Musili?" Bai nianxi saw that Musi Li had been calling, but was intercepted by the mobile phone housekeeper.

Call back. As soon as the call was put through, moussili answered the phone in a hurry.

"Hello? are you all right? I heard you had an accident? True or false? " On the other end of the phone, Musi asked questions, and his worries were covered in the tone.

"Well, but how do you know?" Bai nianxi asked casually.

"That..." Mu Sili knew that Bai nianxi didn't want to hear his sister's name, so he said, "listen to Yu Feixue, where are you? I'll come and see you now. "

"No, I'm fine. Do you have anything else to do?" Bai nianxi said coldly.

Musi left the heart, as if just got the sun, soon fell into the ice cellar: "I don't even have the qualification to visit you?"

"I'm serious. I just want to be quiet. Please forgive me. I'm dead." After that, Bai nianxi hung up.

Clearly asked the public relations department to block the news, how did Yu Feixue know? Bai nianxi put away his cell phone and thought in secret.

Without thinking for a long time, Bai nianxi got up and went to the top of the hospital. He took the elevator to rise slowly.

Kangmobei is being forced to open the patient's number suit by the nurse, and the hot and humid towel is repeatedly wiped on his chest.

"Well, can I do it myself? My hands move. " Conmobeir protested.

"Miss Bai has ordered that you should be cleaned as if you had taken a bath." Care workers ignore the high hanging right leg, everywhere bandaged with gauze, like a robot to execute orders, continue to move on.

"Nurse, I'll do it."

Behind the nurse, Bai nianxi's polite voice came, and kangmobei was very happy.

The nurse nodded, threw the rag into the basin and left the ward with the basin.

"The nurse didn't wipe his lower body just now, and..."

"Well, I'll have someone buy some sandpaper and wipe it for you."

“.....”

Kangmobei pretends to look around the ward. The luxurious ward is a secret ward. It's even like a small home. There are refrigerators, microwave ovens and other household appliances. There are balconies on the right side of the ward, sofas and coffee tables.

On second thought, it's very comfortable to continue to live here. At least I feel at home with Bai nianxi and Luo Luo.

Lolo holding Lele, sitting on the sofa, Lolo coaxed his sister to sleep, then raised his eyes and said: "porridge has been heated several times, I'm afraid it can't be eaten, I'll ask someone to buy some more."

After Bai nianxi nodded, Luo Luo got up and went out. Waiting for Lolo to take charge of the sick room, conmobei asked solemnly, "did you check who did it to you?"

"No White read Xi light way.

"No?" Kangmobei had gnashed his teeth in his heart. If he caught the man, he would surely take his life!

"Don't tell my brother, or he will make a big noise again." Bai nianxi cold way.

"He's been told. He's coming," he sneered

"You! Ah When Bai nianxi heard the words, he suddenly felt angry.

"Give your brother a call. He may be outside now. I don't know what ward it is, so I can't tell him." Conmber said casually.

A few minutes later, kangmobei heard the sound of opening the door, and Shen Hedan's accusation came in with the steps of the visitors.

"You said you! I won't even tell you what happened! You still think I'm your brother!"

"I'm fine..."

"Is it all right? Look at your bruise

While talking, Shen He duncha looks at Bai nianxi's injuries all over his body. When he looks back at the hospital bed, he is even more shocked - Kang Mobei is covered with bandaged white gauze, and his right leg is still hanging in the air.

"You..." Compared with kangmobei, Bai nianxi is really OK.

In the ward, he fell into a short silence until Luo Luo came back. From time to time, conmobei made a sound of drinking porridge.

"Lolo, get me another bowl, more meat." Conmobei drank a bowl of porridge and handed the empty bowl to Lolo.

"It must be the Wei family. I'll check it now!"

Shen did not see anyone talking to him. He could only guess in his heart who had done this vicious thing. He didn't have to think that Shen Shimo had done it. After all, Bai nianxi is the new richest man in a city. It's strange that he can't do anything!

"I don't think it's him."

"I'll know if I check!" Shen He Dun slammed the door and left.
