

《Billionaire CEO Won't Leave》

Chapter 37

Back in the room, when she saw the sleeping little man beside her, her pretty face was quiet and serene, and her mood became complicated. If she knew what he had done in the future, what would she do?

Bai nianxi fell asleep until dawn. When he got up in the morning, his contented and comfortable mood was suddenly scared away by the ice floating face beside the bed.

"You, what are you doing?"

"What for?" Conmber said, almost gnashing his teeth.

Last night, she had a good sleep. Maybe she had some dreams. She was beating and kicking him in bed with her eyes closed. He didn't hide or fight back. She's been up to now. She hasn't closed her eyes all night!

Bai nianxi Yi said, "why don't you look well?"

How does he look? Conmber said with a straight face, "wake up? Wake up when you wake up, and today you have to... "

"What else is going on today?" Bai nianxi took over the words of kangmobei.

Conmber's eyes narrowed. "What else do you want to do?"

"Or Shall we go to Zurich? " It is said that Zurich is the financial center of Switzerland. Maybe there are many places worth seeing.

Wang Yijing is packing things in the room. Suddenly, the door is kicked open, and Kangmo is standing at the door with no expression in the north, "still not going?"

"Just fine, just fine." Wang Yijing finally zipped up, picked up the suitcase and was ready to go out. He was stopped by one foot of kangmobei, "go shopping."

Wang Yijing:???

"Didn't you say you were going home today?" Yesterday, he cried and cried that there was not enough waves, and he had to play for another two days. It was commo who insisted that he had to go back to China today! Which one is this?

"My woman said she wanted to go shopping." Conmo North light floating finish saying, turned and walked out, "go or not as you."

Lolo has run out of the room, go, must go! Don't let daddy monopolize Mommy! He will fight for his own happiness!

Then, for the first time in his life, Lolo realized the horror of women. Mommy has been shopping for three hours! I'm not tired at all! And still in high spirits!

Wang Yijing's face is bitter and bitter. He really has nothing to love. OK! Walking legs and feet soft, can't complain, every time as long as the mouth said a word, conmobei will give him a skate with his eyes.

The key! In the eyes of kangmobei, there is only a woman without a son. When his son is tired, he has to hold him.

Ren Ran walks beside Wang Yijing, holding Xiaoguo in his hand. Xiaoguo is obedient. At this time, she is lying on Ren Ran's shoulder. Ren Ran looks at Wang Yijing helplessly. The meaning in her eyes is: the world is so beautiful, but you are so irritable.

Walking into a shopping mall, there were many people standing inside. The atmosphere was very lively. Bai nianxi was a little curious and walked inside. He was holding a competition and now he is signing up on the spot.

The host is reporting the prize, the first prize is very rich, there are cash, electrical appliances, as well as a white night dream camera!

Seeing the bright light in Bai nianxi's eyes, Kang Mobei asked in a low voice: "do you want it?"

Bai nianxi nodded.

"I give it to you." Kangmobei takes out his mobile phone and is about to send a message to Secretary Xing. Luo Luo suddenly jumps down from Wang Yijing and pulls Bai nianxi's clothes. "Xiao Xi, I'll give it to you."

Bai nianxi was stunned. What is the purpose of this father and son?

Before Bai nianxi's reaction, Luo Luo runs to one side of the worktable with her short legs and tries her best to stand on tiptoe to get the pen on the table. The registration book is here. The person who wants to sign up can write his name directly.

Kang Mobei guessed what Luo Luo was going to do. He frowned discontentedly. How could he rob his wife?

Next to the staff suddenly saw a so pink carved jade carved Oriental cute came out, feel very like, bent down, with a smile touched Lolo's head, patiently said: "honey, this is a game, can't make trouble."

Lolo shook his head and expressed his intention to apply to the staff in fluent English.

After hearing this, the staff was stunned. They still thought Lolo was here to make trouble. They said with a smile, "no, baby should be good, OK?"

Luo Luo starts to speak and expresses dissatisfaction. Bai nianxi looks at it and goes over to protect Luo Luo behind him. He apologizes to the staff. Then he turns to Luo Luo and says, "Luo Luo, this is not a home. You can't mess around."

Commo Beiyue is dissatisfied. Does this woman not believe her son?

Take a big long leg stride past, pointing to the front of the text of the sign, succinctly asked: "meet the requirements, why not?"

The staff are in a dilemma. There is no age limit on the entry requirements. It's just that it's ridiculous for such a boy who looks four or five years old to take part in such a competition, isn't it?

In the dilemma, a man in a proper suit came over. It seems that he should be the person in charge here. After asking about the situation, he took a surprised look at little Lolo on the ground. After a moment of meditation, he nodded. "We welcome everyone who is willing to challenge."

After all, the original intention of this competition is to show the firmness of the firewall of this product that their company is promoting now.

Most of the participants are young people. Many of them are students from the highest universities here. Among them, there are also elites in the IT industry, and even special hackers. Luoluo is a small group of young people. In such a crowd, it is particularly eye-catching.

Just on stage, when the crowd saw Lolo, they were stunned at first, and then began to laugh with surprise. They probably thought Lolo was here to make trouble, but it was very interesting to see how cute he was.

Although there was no malice in the crowd's laughter, conmobei's face became colder and colder.

The white read the night white, Kang Mo north one eye, isn't you to let your son go?

Some of the contents of the challenge are unimaginable - to make viruses, everyone has half an hour to write the program code of the virus, which is then tested by professionals. Whoever makes the virus can break through their company's firewall can get the prize.

If there are several people attacking at the same time, the position will be determined according to the order of attacking time.

But it's almost impossible.

The man with a stiff suit, Weiss, stood there with full confidence. It took half a year for the whole elite team to make this product. It was extremely strong. As the leader of the team, he had great confidence in his product.

Otherwise, it would not set up so rich prizes to encourage people to challenge.

Everyone has a computer. After the timer starts, the contestants' fingers start to fly on the keyboard, and the sound of knocking on the keyboard comes from the mall.

Lolo didn't move.

Under the crowd began to spread faint laughter, such a small child, I am afraid even the keyboard are not recognized, right? It's so cute that I volunteered to take part in the competition.

Ten minutes later, Luo Luo has not started to write. Bai nianxi is worried.

It's not that I'm afraid that Lolo will lose. It's just a camera. It's no big deal if I can't get it. It's just that Lolo's character will make me feel ashamed. If I have any psychological shadow, it's not good.

At the moment, Xiaoguo's eyes are a little anxious, and he seems to be worried that he can't do it well.

Only kangmobei is ready to put his hands into his trousers pocket, with a calm expression on his face. It seems that he has nothing to worry about.

Twenty minutes later, Lolo's computer screen is still blank, and someone nearby has finished writing the virus one after another and handed in the code confidently.

Finally, Lolo, without delay, knocked on the keyboard.
