

Billionaire CEO Won't Leave

Chapter 386

The new director is Ji Zhiye, who was personally identified by Bai nianxi.

[Ji Zhiye, aged 45, is good at ethical subjects. Although he is not very famous, I know from his movies that he is very good at integrating abstract definitions into the picture. As for why he has not become famous for a long time, I think he lacks capital support. The most important thing is that he is cheap]

the director of the planning office subconsciously remembers what he said when he talked with Bai nianxi about the director candidate at that time. Although greed is not the real reason, it's just casual talk. The reason why he really likes Ji Zhiye is his professionalism in the perfect presentation of his works.

"You've come to me because I'm cheap, right? So you think I'm a director who's fooling, don't you? I don't care about money. I only care about the world I want to create, whether it's what I really want. I only know what an excellent work should look like. I'm different from your businessmen. I'm an artist! " Ji Zhiye said, and he was ready to walk.

"Well? Ji Dao? Don't go, wait for you The minister hastened to catch up, "this I'm really embarrassed, but what I said may not be valid. Would you please don't be angry? I'll call Mr. Bai, please stop! Don't go

When Ji Dao heard this, he stopped reluctantly. In his heart, he had determined that it was the nature of businessmen to pursue profits.

Therefore, because of my own opinion, it is impossible to ask the crew to cancel the site that has been arranged by tens of millions in advance.

Bai nianxi is holding Lele and coaxing her to sleep. Recently, kangmobei has been going out early and returning late. After all, the construction of Lumi island has been half completed. The next more important point is the operation planning of the business headquarters.

Hearing the hum of the mobile phone, Bai nianxi frowned and picked up the phone.

"Hello? Mr. Bai, I'm sorry to disturb you, "on the other end of the line, the director of the planning office looked embarrassed, but he knew that sooner or later the director's opinions would be truthfully stated," well, director Ji Zhiye came, and then there was a little contradiction. "

"What's the matter?" Bai nianxi asked.

"Director Ji is not satisfied with the venue we arranged in advance. He insists on going to the place he designated to shoot, or he will leave Look This... " In this case, tens of millions of venues are built, which is the water poured out. There is no way to collect it! The minister didn't have the courage to say that.

"Ha ha," Bai nianxi said with a faint smile, "well, you ask the director to come to me and come directly to Kang's house. It's not convenient for me to take care of my children."

"Ah? Well, you are busy. Excuse me Minister Wei Nuo said, heard the phone hung up, then put down the phone.

"Well, it's impossible, isn't it? I've known for a long time that hawing is a waste of time. " Ji Dao wants to go again.

"Wait a minute!" The minister lost his patience. "Mr. Bai asked you to go to Kang's house and have an interview with Mr. Bai in person."

"Is there anything to talk about, or do you want to persuade me? Bang. " Guide Ji starts to walk quickly to the gate.

"Ji Dao! Are you satisfied with the play? " The minister adjusted his position and asked Ji Zhiye from the perspective of his works.

Ji Zhiye stopped, but still turned his back to the Minister: "I really like it. It's an excellent script."

"I know you haven't met with talent all the time, but you don't want to fight for the chance that may come up? If this play becomes your new masterpiece, you will be able to do what you want more freely, won't you? " The minister continued.

Ji Zhiye's heart is shaken. Of course, he wants to seize the opportunity, but in today's society, everyone is pursuing profits. The good movies that he really makes with his heart need a lot of money.

And in order to make money out of the film, there is no connotation, this ironic reality contradiction, every director who has pursuit can not achieve balance.

"Give me the address." After Ji Zhiye said that, he left Qianqiu group headquarters.

According to the text message sent by the minister, Ji Zhiye drives his broken car over 15 years old to Kang's home.

Before the arrival of the director, Bai nianxi repeatedly read the outline of the script, as well as the operational indicators involved in the shooting.

This film is adapted from the work of an unknown novelist. It is a favorite Adventure theme of Bai nianxi. The film is called "the case of the wild fan".

The main story of the film is that when a certain crew comes to a desert island to shoot, they accidentally find some subtle clues. After the clues are connected one by one, the old story of the isolated island, which has been dusty for decades, comes to the surface. The details on the island, which are insignificant but can not be ignored by those who want to follow, all have traces to follow.

At the same time, the reason why the two men and women took over the "rotten film" was that they saw the film shooting cycle as long as half a year. They took over the film in order to escape from the unsolved problems in reality. When the dust laden old story came to light, the two men and women also found a way to face the unsolved problems in reality.

When the doorbell rings, Bai nianxi comes back from naobu's movie and opens the door with Lele.

In the few seconds Ji Zhiye waited, he gradually became nervous. He deliberately used his explosive temper to hide his loneliness and persistence. Before he really tried to grasp the opportunity, what he really wanted and the rigid conflict with reality made him have no confidence. That's why he's nervous.

"Come in." Bai nianxi smiles and greets Ji Zhiye.

The luxurious mansion is out of place with Ji Zhiye, who is poorly dressed. Ji Zhiye is subconsciously cautious, for fear that his poverty will tarnish the magnificence.

"Don't be nervous. I've heard from the minister. He said that you are determined to go to your designated island for shooting. You don't approve of the site we set up." Bai nianxi simply repeated it.

After a little firmness, Ji Zhiye's formality was replaced by his inner firmness. He nodded with firm eyes: "well, I've seen the site you set. It's too fake. I've also seen the script. There are too many bugs. Although I don't have many works, I don't want to make bad movies."

"Well, I'm very supportive of your idea. I'm ashamed that for some objective reasons, I didn't see the venue myself," Bai nianxi said with a smile. "Where do you want to shoot this movie?"

"Well That, "Ji Zhiye hesitated again, and after hesitating, he looked firm again." the mystery of the past events involved in the script is a tragedy that was covered up during the war. I haven't been to many places. When everyone went to Jeju Island to play, I went to Juji Island, which was the largest prison camp during the first World War of Korea aid, so I was more interested in playing on Juji island Where there are people, there are real stories, and there are many real relics on the island... "

"All right, Juji island." Bai nianxi didn't wait for Ji Zhiye to finish, but he had already made up his mind.

Ji Zhiye was stunned: "ah? You "Agreed?"
