

Billionaire CEO Won't Leave

Chapter 395

Ji Zhiye scribbled a crooked circle on a piece of paper as the general plan of the desert island.

"Where did you search just now? Where is the building or shelter?" Ji Zhiye inquired calmly.

"I found a cave in the East. We've seen it. There's no one there." Said a woman clerk.

"I've seen the seaside in the East. There are two collapsed buildings. There is no space to go in." Another South Vocational College said.

"Great, it can narrow down the search target," Ji Zhiye sighed. "I think all the buildings on this island should have collapsed, but there may be some hidden space for some buildings to go in, and Bai Zong may faint and can't hear the shouting. The female staff are in a team to search for these collapsed buildings. They are in two teams, and the searched place is in a prominent position Make a mark. " With that, Ji Zhiye put a stack of A4 paper on the table and said, "stick a piece of A4 paper in a conspicuous place to show that someone has searched here."

"Good." The obedient one picked up a few A4 white papers and carefully put them on his body.

"The men work in pairs to search the air raid shelters and underground caves on the island. It may be very dark inside. Everyone brings some candles and mobile phones, so as not to burn out the torches and not be able to light them. Let's move." Ji Zhiye, based on his previous experience in making adventure films, quickly ordered him to do so in an organized and planned way.

The crowd quickly scattered around to look for Bai nianxi. Kangmobei felt that he had made a good arrangement, so he stood up and picked up some A4 papers and some candles to look for Bai nianxi.

"Young master Aikang, don't move when you are injured..." Ji Zhiye encouraged himself a little and said to kangmobei, "the ship is gone. We can't go out. Please contact the outside world by satellite phone."

Kangmobei gives Ji Zhiye a fierce look, which makes Ji Zhiye's courage dissipate.

"Now it's most important to find nianxi. If you stay here and contact the outside world, nianxi may be injured, so you remember to call the doctor."

Having said that, the north of Komo went eastward. Their camp was on the west coast of the desert island.

Ji Zhiye doesn't say anything more, he can only listen.

With blurred vision, he walked weakly to the East. Seeing the shadow of fire all around, he walked all the way to the end of the darkness. The darkness showed that there was no one there.

Bai nianxi was tied tightly, and she could only wriggle and shout, but she didn't shout. In the dark, reason gradually overcame panic. Unfortunately, Bai nianxi couldn't calculate time.

She tried to recall how long it took her to get to the shelter, and the open wasteland was about several hundred meters. Specifically, she is still pondering.

This is not the only barren forest on the desert island, Bai nianxi thought. But the appearance of the barren forest means her position in the center of the desert island. The distance between the trees is roughly estimated to be 1 meter, and how many trees she passed Bai nianxi can only roughly think of 150 trees, so she should be about one kilometer away from the camp of the cast.

It's 20 minutes since I was dragged into the air raid shelter, isn't it? Bai nianxi continued to think hard and walked here with the pace of searching and tracking. Her usual walking speed was 5 kilometers per hour. When she came to the exit of the air raid shelter, it should have been 290 minutes.

For the crew, they have been missing for an hour, and conmobei should have found out that they are missing! Bai nianxi has a general conclusion.

Looking up at these countless cold eyes, she was still uneasy, but compared with uneasiness, self-help was the most important thing.

The way Bai nianxi thought of was to let the owners of these countless eyes fly out because of their own actions. A large number of unknown animals flew out in panic, indicating that there was something abnormal in the cave. If the searchers happened to be nearby and heard the sound of the flying animals flapping their wings, they would be able to find this place!

"Wait Wait another 20 minutes, there must be someone nearby. No, wait an hour... " Bai nianxi thought in secret.

Dilapidated buildings appear every other distance. Komobi uses torches and the light left before the sun reaches the other side of the earth to carefully examine whether there is space for Tibetans in these buildings.

"The woods, do you want to go in and have a look?"

"Since it's a forest, it means that there are no buildings in it. You can see that the forest is so small, and there are only 1000 trees at most. Decades ago, there was no need to spend so much effort to build any buildings in the forest, right?"

"Yes, keep looking ahead."

Dimly, the voice of dialogue came from the distance. With his blurred vision, he saw two torches moving further away. The woods seemed to be deliberately and tacitly bypassed.

The three woods in heisensen are independent of each other. Indeed, the area of the woods is too small, and it is less than 100 meters wide by visual inspection. Conmobei is unwilling to let go of every detail. He selects the middle one from the three woods and goes straight to the direction of the woods.

How long has it been Bai nianxi anxiously waited for the passage of time and watched anxiously that the candle tears were as high as the candle. After a while, the candle will burn to the endThe fear of the dark once again hit Bai nianxi's heart

At the same time, Bai nianxi also realized what kind of animal the owner of these innumerable eyes is bat.

With the rapid search, kangmobei ran through the woods. At the end of the woods, kangmobei saw that the three woods might be connected, but there was only a little space in the middle. From a distance, the three woods seemed to occupy independently.

Moving on, conmobei soon entered another forest.

All of a sudden, there was a strange thump in front of him, which made him startled. Looking up at the black paint smearing bats flying everywhere, he felt a little suspicious

Night is the world of bats. It's not long after it's dark, and there's even some gray blue light. It's reasonable that bats should wait until it's completely dark before they leave the cave

A large number of bats seem to be flying around in panic. For a moment, conmobei can't judge how many bats There are.

Conmobei knows that some bats feed on human blood, which makes him even more worried. In case these bats are bloodthirsty So

Suspicious and anxieties, a few minutes later, these bats seem to be less panic, tacit understanding to fly in the same direction - when they fly in the direction.

Follow the bats Conmobei frowned and a voice came from his heart.
