

Billionaire CEO Won't Leave

Chapter 400

Shen Hedan's Royal lawyer, after seeing a series of evidence collected, shook his head subconsciously.

"What's the matter?" Shen He Dan asked.

The lawyer raised his eyes, looked at Shen Hedan and said:

"I think the Mu family should be prepared. The extradition treaty will not investigate the charges of less than three years' imprisonment. You see, all the evidence can not prove that Mu Sili is suspected of kidnapping, so mu Sili's behavior is more in line with illegal detention. The sentence of illegal detention is just less than three years, while kidnapping is more than ten years, so it's necessary to pay more attention In line with the crime of kidnapping, apart from restricting personal freedom, there should also be acts of extortion and improper demands. Do you understand? "

"Oh, extortion, improper demand..." Shen He Dun is thoughtful.

"For example, there is clear evidence to prove that musili has blackmailed money. For example, miss bainianxi has encountered improper demands after she was forcibly taken away by him, such as having a relationship, having a clear intention to enslave, and so on." The lawyer said slowly.

Shen Hedan glanced at the lawyer: "all the evidence is here. I want you to find a way to convict musili of kidnapping. There is no other evidence."

"Can you ask Miss Bai nianxi..."

"No! She's still resting! " Shen Hedan resolutely refused.

Facing the overbearing demands, the lawyer was extremely distressed for a moment. A few minutes later, the distressed lawyer, looking through the e-mail containing all the evidence, came across a sketch: "is this a rough topographic map of the desert island?"

Shen Hedan extended his head and took a look: "right, I can contact the painter, you can ask him."

After that, Shen Hedan takes out his mobile phone and calls Qianqiu group for Ji Zhiye's number.

Just as it happens, Ji Zhiye is on the main island of Juji Island, a modern island with many residents. He is looking for the last props he needs to make a movie.

"Hello?" Ji Zhiye picked up the foreign phone call.

"I'm Bai nianxi's brother, Shen Hedan. I have some questions for you." After Shen Hedan introduced himself, he gave his mobile phone to his lawyer.

When Shen Hedan calls himself, Ji Zhiye is a little flattered. He knows that Shen Hedan is not only the richest man in a city, but also the richest man in the province. He waits respectfully for the following.

"Hello, I'm a lawyer. I have a question for you." the lawyer enlarged the sketch and looked at it carefully. "Did you draw the topographic map of the desert island?"

"Well, yes, because of the shooting needs, I have a general understanding of the whole desert island, as well as the clues provided by the rest of the crew." Ji Zhiye nodded.

"Well, is the strip you drew architecture? Is the circle a burrow The lawyer laboriously read the drawings.

"Yes, the strip is a prison built in the Korean War decades ago, but most of them have collapsed. The underground caves are actually air raid shelters or underground warehouses for materials." Ji Zhiye replied.

"Look at your painting There seem to be a lot of buildings and underground caves. How many are there? How big is the desert island? " Asked the lawyer.

"There are dozens of buildings, more than 30, but most of them have collapsed. Air raid shelters and underground warehouses are large in scale and large in number. Each air raid shelter is more than 50 meters long, at least There are 70 entrances and exits, but if you need to know whether they are connected, I'll go back and find out. " Ji Zhiye said that he wanted to go to the coast.

"This is very important. I need a very detailed and accurate plan of the desert island. Of course, the cave can be roughly drawn. It's better to have an approximate depth." The lawyer looks up at Shen Hedan and asks if he can direct the person on the other end of the phone to work. Shen Hedan understands the lawyer's meaning and nods.

"Well, I'll go back and measure it now, but there is no signal on the desert island. I can't get back to you until tomorrow at the earliest." Ji Zhiye said.

"That's OK, please." After the lawyer said that, he returned the mobile phone to Shen Hedan, who hung up directly.

"What's the use of floor plans for sentencing?" The point of Shen Hedan's doubts is here.

The lawyer gave a rare smile:

"the determination of kidnapping crime requires that the restriction of personal freedom and improper demands should be met at the same time. If there is no blackmail and other demands, one thing can be considered, that is, the illegal demand that moussili wants, that is, Miss Bai nianxi lost her life. Look at this picture, there are so many underground caves, which are said to be very long and mutually exclusive. If they get through each other, it's almost a maze. They kidnap people to places that are hard to find, and then they rob the only means of transportation. This also shows that moussili doesn't want to get medical help after Bai nianxi's rescue, so these things are connected together to kill people? After putting forward the lawsuit, we should focus on this point. The search and rescue time can also be an issue. We can claim that everyone has searched for a long time, and when we found Miss Bai nianxi, she was on the verge of death. "

The unlucky words made Shen Hedan frown unconsciously. Seeing that Shen Hedan's face was not very good-looking, the lawyer realized that he had said something wrong.

"You have a point. That's it." After hearing this, Shen Hedan felt that he had a chance to win, so he sat at his desk and thought about it alone. Ji Zhiye soon returned to the island. The shooting work of the crew was not delayed by the emergency, but Ji Zhiye took the initiative to suspend the shooting and actively cooperated with the domestic needs.

When he returned to the island, Ji Zhiye immediately arranged for human resources to investigate the whole desert island. In addition, he took a bird's-eye view of the whole desert island with a UAV.

The next day, a more accurate plan of the desert island was finally drawn. In order to see more clearly, all the air raid shelters and underground warehouses were drawn in the form of sections.

The whole desert island has a total area of 480000 square meters, which can even accommodate 600000 people. Due to historical and geographical reasons, it is just an abandoned desert island. However, several decades ago, due to the needs of war, 70 underground passages were dug here, each of which is more than 50 meters long.

Moreover, all entrances and exits are extremely hidden, and some entrances and exits have even been buried by fine sand. No, a person is missing here. It takes a lot of luck to find the missing person - in the meeting room of Tianhu prison, Mu Rushun looks down for a long time and says nothing. She feels that she has no face to face her father. Her father must be very angry with her.

"Rushuang, how are you?" Precious meeting time. After wasting a few minutes, Mu Liancheng finally said, "I bought something for you. You can go to the instructor to get it later. If it's not enough, I'll buy it for you. Do you need anything?"

Mu Rushuang still did not dare to look up, although hearing the sound, his heart was full of bitterness.
