

Billionaire CEO Won't Leave

Chapter 406

Hang up, Bai nianxi has no appetite to eat.

"What's the matter?" Seeing that Bai nianxi's face was dark, Kang Mobei put down his chopsticks and asked with concern.

"There's an explosion in the crew and they're coming home." Bai nianxi light a, then looked at the time, it seems that because of anxiety and no time to say anything more, then quickly left the Kang family.

Kang Li Qing's face is stunned, hastily hastens to say: "you quickly check what situation, help read night."

"Yes, yes." Kang Xinyue also has a worried face. Obviously, this is a big event.

Bai nianxi is worried that the situation is serious and wants to contact the hospital. After several phone calls, Ji Zhiye says that the injuries are not serious, just skin bruises, and there is no need to be hospitalized. Bai nianxi is relieved.

When I saw Ji Zhiye, it was 12 a.m. and the Kang family didn't sleep. They had been waiting with Bai nianxi.

"Mr. Bai Sorry I failed your trust... " As soon as Ji Zhiye entered the door, he apologized first. After a pause, Ji Zhiye raised his eyes, full of doubts and fear, and said, "although I'm not good, I think it's very strange..."

"What's so strange?" Asked conmober, who was the first.

After hearing about the accident, kangmobei also made use of his contacts to investigate. However, the local police didn't say much. They just euphemistically revealed that they would let everyone go back home, which means that there is something hidden. Otherwise, if such a serious accident happens suddenly, everyone will have to face investigation.

"The two seriously injured people They are local people in Juji island. Because the shooting schedule is very tight, even the logistics staff are assigned to the props group or other groups, so the cooking and purchasing work has been done by local people. These two people have been working for a month, and they always leave after finishing their meals. Today, they stay on the island, and then there is an explosion. The most serious injury is also the two of them I don't mean to shirk responsibility! It's just really strange." Ji Zhiye tells the story.

Bai nianxi nodded. What he said is really reasonable.

"I just inquired about it. According to the local investigation procedures, each of you must be investigated. But now that you are so easy to return home, I guess there is something hidden." He reasoned.

"It's reasonable," Bai nianxi began to think. He looked up at Kang Liqing and Kang Xinyue, who also looked like thinking. Bai nianxi comforted him, "director Ji, it's none of your business. I believe you. Let me investigate this matter. You have a good rest."

"But..." Ji Zhiye was distressed. "The explosion destroyed the filming site, which was not easy to arrange. The cost of 10 million yuan destroyed all the shooting sites..."

Bai nianxi is very helpless, but also can only appease: "you are OK, money, can earn back, it doesn't matter, don't blame yourself."

Ji Zhiye choked and felt guilty, but he didn't want to make trouble for Bai nianxi, so he finally nodded -

"young master, miss nianxi's crew exploded."

In Shen Hedan's office, Jin Ting hurried up to Shen Hedan and reported briefly.

Shen Hedan, who is living a holiday, has no leisure on his face: "what? What's the situation? "

Kim Ting shook his head and said: "the incident happened on a desert island near Juji island in South Korea. The local police are investigating. Miss nianxi is OK. She has been in China."

"I know that. I mean, how did it explode? "Mistakes?" It's about my sister's career, Shen He Dun asked urgently.

"It's still under investigation. It's said that almost all of the crew were injured, but they were not seriously injured. They had already returned home overnight," Jin Ting said, turning to Shen Hedan's Royal lawyer. "What do you think?"

"According to my experience, it should not be a mistake. If it was a mistake, everyone in the crew had to be investigated, but they were released to China overnight, indicating that there was a secret that could not be disclosed." Said the lawyer, touching his chin.

"Call South Korea and ask." Shen Hedan told the lawyer.

The lawyer nodded and went back to his legal office to get busy.

About half an hour later, the lawyer came back to Shen Hedan in dismay:

"Mr. Shen Well, mu Rushun was extradited to Korea. "

"What?" Shen Hedan was surprised and puzzled.

The lawyer twisted his features inexplicably: "the information disclosed by insiders is that the explosion was man-made, and the two perpetrators have surrendered themselves, saying that mu Rushun had instructed them to do so earlier."

"This What's the situation? " Shen Hedan couldn't understand the connection.

The lawyer is also at a loss. He can't understand what operation it is, but he can see that it's a legal game.

Lawyers who are proficient in the laws of the United States and China have made a thorough understanding of the laws of South Korea before they understand what tricks this legal game is playing.

After listening to the lawyer's explanation, Shen Hedan probably got to know the situation, but he had no choice but to smile, just Is it true that moussili has the ability to play such a brilliant legal game?

Kang's family, because of the lack of feedback from emergencies, is in a repressive atmosphere. Everyone is waiting for some conclusions, but they can't wait for any feedback."Ding Dong."

Yes, when it comes, Shen He dun.

Shen Hedan simply tells Bai nianxi and Kang Mobei about the situation. He smiles helplessly and doesn't know how to think. Kang Liqing and Kang Xinyue are also confused.

"Before, Mu Liancheng even knelt down for me. I think it's incredible. Now they can save mu Rushuang in the polar area, and I can understand it." Kang Liqing smiles awkwardly.

Shen Hedan also had no choice but to smile: "it seems that mousse has been away from the plan for a long time. In order to save her sister, it is estimated that the next general situation is to fight for a sentence of less than three years in South Korea and get the judgment of not being investigated. Taking advantage of the blank period of Extradition between the two countries, she goes to a country without extradition treaty with China and lives freely there. Ha ha, this calculation is very good Ming, his mind is really meticulous. I think it took him a lot of effort. "

"Well, let's wait and see what happens. If they don't provoke us, we won't destroy his plan." Kangmobei looks at Bai nianxi to see if Bai nianxi agrees with his own view.

Bai nianxi nodded faintly: "however, I don't think it's that simple."

"Murushuang is the only worry of the Mu family. Do you think the Mu family will stop or continue to play tricks after murushuang is free?" Shen Hedan looked at Bai nianxi and Kang Mobei and asked with a smile.

"Ha ha ha ha ha!"

Mu Rushuang's hands were handcuffed, and she laughed wildly as if she had been pointed at a laughing point. Even she couldn't control her impulse to laugh.

Maybe the prison has suppressed her for a long time, and I can't help laughing at this moment It's like a person who has been hungry for several days and suddenly picked up a hundred yuan from the ground. The surprise is too happy and the heart can't stand it.

Two South Korean police in charge of escorting her looked back and said something, but mu Rushun couldn't understand and still couldn't help laughing.
