

Billionaire CEO Won't Leave

Chapter 410

"Ah, free air..."

Mu Rushun stood alone on the square not far from the airport exit, breathing the fresh air.

[Rushuang, be safe and don't trust anyone except me. ]

brother Musi Li's short message came in time, and mu Rushun's heart gradually returned to the ground.

Moussili is worrying about business, because just now, commobei has just released two public news.

[new Conrad group, announced its establishment. ]

[statement: Xinkang group has no relationship with Qianqiu group. ]

this is an open confrontation against the Kang family after Shen Shimo came to power. Musi Li is indistinctly aware that no matter how they fight, Mu Shi will become the worst cannon fodder in the middle of the battlefield.

Mu Rushuang dials Mu Sili's phone. Mu Sili has to put down his inner distress for a while and try to pretend to be calm and pick up the phone.

"Brother, I'm in America." Murushuang's voice sounds happy. It's estimated that her SMS has calmed her mood, so murushuang's tone is not too excited.

"Well, take good care of yourself over there," musili tried to organize the language, trying to make it less disturbing. "Shen Shimo arranged for someone to pick you up, but his brother is not sure about Shen Shimo. Although he thought of such a way to save you this time, in general, you should take good care of yourself and change the number first."

Mu Rushuang experienced the lowest point in her life. Now her brother is her only trust. Only her brother is paying for herself regardless of the cost. She believes in whatever Mu Sili says.

"Well, I'll let you know when I change the number."

"Well, just text me, take care of yourself, don't call me, just wait for me to contact you. If there are suspicious people around, you must be alert, you know?" Musi from the repeatedly exhortations, regardless of their own words, in my sister's ears, is not too wordy.

"I'll take care of myself, brother. You should take care of yourself." Mu Rushuang said obediently.

Hang up the phone, Musi from the heart of some emotion, because mu Rushuang seems to have grown up a little, at least some sensible.

A few days later, the game business, which had been planned for a long time by commobei, quickly obtained the approval of various procedures.

In addition, since this period of time, public opinion has always been around Kangjia and Qianqiu group. With the help of the public relations team, kangmobei has easily reversed the direction of public opinion and successfully promoted its game business on a large scale.

With the new m + experience technology and the paid copy mode, the game business reaped more than 2 billion sales in just three days after it was launched, and the sales are still going on.

This amazing news has led the major media to turn the theme of public opinion one after another.

[is the biggest black horse business in city a just a game? ]

[new Conrad's game business set off a frenzy in the game field and reaped 2 billion yuan in three days! ]

[who can imagine that Lumi island has become a game empire! ]

The public relations team arranged by commobei in the activity board room continues to pay attention to the development of public opinion.

"Mr. Kang, now the public opinion is completely under control." The head of public relations said with joy on his face.

Kangmobei nodded with a smile: "continue to pay attention. If there is any public opinion attacking Qianqiu group, deal with it immediately."

"Yes." After getting the order, the director of the public relations department quickly announced the key work in the internal group, and the whole public relations team continued to work in an orderly manner.

Bai nianxi's nervous state is still tense. He has to take any measures in the future. All the lawsuits and public opinion attacks against Qianqiu group have "consciously" disappeared one after another. Even if he didn't ask kangmobei a few days ago, Bai nianxi can guess that this is kangmobei's invisible protection and support for her.

Shen Shimo looks at the news. His face turns blue and white. Finally, he smashes his mobile phone angrily and leaves the office with a heavy stride.

At the time of killing Mu family, Mu Sili was still nervous, but slowly thinking about the future of Mu family.

In order to save his sister, he had no choice, but now he was in a passive and being played with, which was not what he wanted.

Did not think of a way, the door of the Mu family was hard to kick open.

Without waiting for mu Sili to raise his eyes, his hands and fists fell on Mu Sili.

Muse from the reaction is not enough, can only rely on subconscious ideas, protect his head.

Shen Shimo didn't get rid of his anger, even told his men who came with him: "beat me to the disabled!"

.....

Mu Sili lay on the ground dying of beating. Shen Shimo gasped for breath because he was angry and expended his strength.

"What's the use of asking you? That's what you did to me when I helped you so much?"

Shen Shimo was so angry that he made use of the law and public opinion, which not only failed to hit Qianqiu group, but also made new Kang use the public opinion he put his focus on, which made kangmobei get 2 billion in vain. "What's the use of hitting me." Musi Li grinned bitterly, breathed cautiously with pain, sat up and wiped the blood off his face.

"Spit!" Shen Shimo spat on Musi Li's face. "Kangmobei stepped on me to get rich. Don't you know anything? You're using me, aren't you? "

"Where do I use you? I have been carrying out the agreement with you. What did I do wrong? " Mu Sili's eyes and fearless expression.

"How dare you talk back to me?" Shen Shimo rolled up his sleeves and started another fight.

"You don't know what combo North has been doing for more than a year, do you? If you are ignorant and incompetent, you should anger others. You can fight. " Mu Sili looks at Shen Shimo coldly.

When Shen Shimo heard this, he sneered: "are you making music with me?"

"Just state the facts." Mu Sili stares at Shen Shimo and sees him squatting in front of him with a sneer.

"Don't forget, your sister is in America now. America is my Wei family's territory." Shen Shimo reaches out his hand as if playing a game. He raises his hand with great interest and drags musili's collar.

"....." Musi left Yusai and kept silent. He began to coerce himself with his sister. Sure enough, he guessed right at the beginning.

"Dare to fight against me, the first one to be buried with is your sister murushuang, tut Tut, a woman with only one leg. How can I play?" Shen Shimo sneered.

"You have to respect the point!" Moussili drank furiously.

"Hum."

At the end of the game, Shen Shimo stands up and finally turns his eyes to Mu Sili and leaves Mu's home with his men.
