

Billionaire CEO Won't Leave

Chapter 411

Before Mu Liancheng came home from Mu family, Mu Sili had taken his servants to clean up the mess at home.

When his father pushed the door into the room, he saw the look on his father's face. It seemed that it was not bad?

At least with a smile.

"Ah, although we have lost 50% of our shares, according to the current market value, the value of our shares has also increased a lot."

At the dinner table, Mu Liancheng took the lead in breaking the silence with a light tone.

Looks like my father's gone?

"I haven't noticed the performance of the stock market today." Musi left the casual way, did not look up, because he did not want his father to be aware of his skin injury.

"It's 5 percentage points higher than yesterday." Mu Liancheng looks better and better, and his smile is more obvious. "Plus the doubled market value before, the equity in hand now is higher than the full control value before. In a word, you're doing well."

Mu Liancheng refers to joining hands with Shen Shimo. Before, Mu Liancheng blamed him for signing the agreement on his own without consulting with him. Now, with the interests in front of him, Mu Liancheng has changed his mind.

"Well." As long as You are happy. Mousse is away from the dark.

"Well done," muliancheng praised again, "and Rushuang is free. It's good."

Lumishan, the seal of the office building can finally be lifted, and the members of various departments who move back to the office building in succession, led by the department head, report the situation to kangmobei one after another.

"Mr. Kang, the sales volume of paid copies of M + Games has reached 20 million. Excluding the initial R & D costs, technology R & D costs and operating costs, the net profit has reached more than 2 billion, and this is the data of the past three days." The director of the game business department is reporting the briefing.

Kangmobei nodded faintly, thinking about the next development plan of the game business. Two billion yuan was not enough to repay the money that Bai nianxi had won the lumishan plot.

"Keep going." Kangmobei tidies up his desk, because he has a good plan for the next step, kangmobei is ready to go home.

Kangmo carries the flag in the north, and Bai nianxi is relaxed again. Qianqiu group has nothing to deal with, and she is too lazy to go out.

Kangmobei has been very busy in recent days, but today, it's rare to come back in the afternoon.

They haven't been out for a long time to play or eat out. Kangmobei invites her to try the new western restaurant in Lumi island. Bai nianxi happily agrees.

The taste of beef steak is soft and juicy. With the mellow flavor of red wine, the feeling of enjoying life makes Bai nianxi feel more relaxed.

"There's a business that wants to work with you." He said with a smile and a business tone.

"What business?" Bai nianxi didn't respond. He still tasted the delicious food.

"You should know something about my new game business, too?" Asked conumber.

"Well, I haven't played, but I've seen the news." White read Xi light answer.

"The game is based on paid copies as a profit point. You're making a movie. I have an idea," he continued. "Your movie, which doesn't show on the court line, is integrated with my game technology and sold as a copy of the game. What do you think?"

"Well?" Bai nianxi inexplicably understood Kang Mobei's words.

"At present, there are few channels for movies to be shown, either online or on relevant network platforms. I think that many movies are now in pursuit of experience, and my game technology is the latest experience technology. It should be a good idea to experience movies as games." Conmber slowly said what he thought.

"It seems that it's not bad, but the cattle are tired to death." Bai nianxi is joking.

"Try it. If you think it's feasible, we'll sign a cooperation agreement. You can make a 30 minute animation movie. I'll ask the game team to add it to the copy to test its feasibility." Said conmber.

“OK。 ” Bai nianxi readily responded to the proposal.

Animation film, for Bai nianxi's Qianqiu group, is also a new business. It's not easy to screen scripts and animation special effects for 30 minutes, but fortunately, it's only a 30 minute animation film, which focuses on adventure themes. With the cooperation of major graphic design companies, this test version of animation film is soon completed.

Conmobei uses the technical team to transcode this short animation with M + technology, and then starts sales as a new copy.

Because it doesn't need to operate, it's no different from watching a movie, but the feeling of real experience is several times more intuitive than in the cinema.

Soon, the novel experiential film viewing gained a good reputation, and has a great momentum to open up a new form of film screening.

"It's exactly what you expected," Bai nianxi said, looking at the report card brought back by Kang Mobei. "It's quite feasible. I'll ask director Ji to finish shooting the film as soon as possible on Juji island."

Conmber nodded with a smile. In order to catch up with the shooting progress, Ji Zhiye and a group of people restored the shooting site destroyed by malicious blasting, and the shooting work is in full swing.

Bai nianxi's phone call came late at night. At that time, Ji Zhiye was still working overtime to catch up with the schedule. Even if Bai nianxi didn't mention it, he was also very interested in the shooting of the film.

"The shooting of the film will be completed in two months, and you will be given another two months of post editing and production time, and all the production work will be completed in five months. However, the film is not intended to be shown in the cinema, so you don't need to carry out the schedule work according to the requirements of the general manager." Bai nianxi said to Ji Zhiye on the other end of the phone.

"Oh, well," Ji didn't ask much, though he didn't understand what Bai nianxi was planning. "Four months is enough."

"Well, as soon as possible." White read Xi light way.

Late at night, Shen Shimo is in the newly purchased mansion, with a gloomy face brushing the news app.

The front page of the news is almost occupied by commobei who is in the limelight for a while. His strong return, his business ability and everything are the key points of the media's collective reporting.

During this period of time, Shen Shimo, who was angry when he saw the news from kangmobei, has broken no less than three mobile phones.

More times, Shen Shimo's temper is also getting bigger and bigger, now the hand of the mobile phone, is also unable to escape the bad luck of being broken.

The strange sound in the living room startled Wei Xia who came back temporarily.

Seeing that her son doesn't smile recently, Wei Xia is also dissatisfied with her son. What she is dissatisfied with is that everything her son has done has become a stepping stone for kangmobei.
