

Billionaire CEO Won't Leave

Chapter 417

"Brother, where are we going?" Looking out of the window, along the road are full of strange eyes, mu Rushuang can't help but ask again.

Moussili's eyes are fixed on the back mirror. In the mirror, there is a close following vehicle.

Just get rid of the Trail But along the way, he has already lost several tracking vehicles, but soon after he lost them, another tracking vehicle will follow him. It can be seen how dense the Wei family's influence in the United States is.

The car radio station, which did not play music, suddenly made a noise.

"Don't run away, moussili. Just stop, or don't blame us for being rude."

After the noise, a cold command came from the car radio.

Mu Rushuang was scared to death by the sudden voice. She trembled and looked out of the car window. She was close to the back of her car and the two cars. All the people in the car were wearing black suits with fierce faces.

"Brother..." I was scared out of my mind.

Mousse is expressionless and continues to make efforts to drive vehicles and get rid of pursuit.

The two cars in the rear, naturally, are not to be outdone. At a small bend, moussili slightly lowered the speed for safety, but the pursuit vehicles in the rear still keep high speed. Overtaking at a bend, there are dangers among the three cars!

Silent, mu Rushuang feel his body in the hard to hit the front, a second of Lengshen, the body again hard to throw behind.

Musili also felt the same feeling, but in addition, he saw a car parked horizontally in front of the car he was driving, and the feeling just now came from the rear end of the car

"The more you shout, the more you run, right?" Several men who are tracking open the car door viciously, rush to the door where Musi left, pull Musi away from the driver's seat. Mu Rushun is still stunned by the feeling of rear end collision just now.

"Don't hit my brother!" Mu Rushuang finally reacts, and Mu Sili is already greeting the punches and kicks.

The man at the head raised his eyes and gave mu Rushun a cold and sharp look: "tut Tut, the whole Mu family has lost your hand."

Mu Rushuang heard the sound, heart pain, such as knife twist, can no longer say anything, can only bite the lips, forced to burst into tears.

When Shen Shimo receives the phone call, he is meeting the endless talk from Wei Xia. When he hears that musili has been caught in the United States, Shen Shimo rudely leaves in front of Wei Xia and lets Wei Xia continue her nagging.

The rude knock on the door startled the Kang family. Several people in the Kang family were having breakfast. Since Kang Liqing announced that he had given up Kang's family, there were no more people knocking on the door in the morning. Now listen to the knock, you can see that it is fierce.

Conmobei wiped his lower lip and motioned everyone to continue eating with his eyes. He got up and went to open the door.

Outside the door is Shen Shimo. There are some accidents in kangmobei, but they are not revealed in words.

"Oh, the family is very warm." He came here uninvited, and now he walked into Kang's living room. The warmth of his family made him sigh ironically.

Kang Liqing saw that Shen Shimo was the one who came, and then he lost his appetite for breakfast. He got up and stared at Shen Shimo coldly: "can you enter the Kang family?"

Kang Xinyue worried that something bad would happen. Without waiting for Bai nianxi to say anything, she led the two children upstairs first.

"In the way of hospitality, it's taboo not to be polite." Silent, twitching the corners of his mouth, sneering.

"What are you doing here?" Kangmo North horizontal in front of Shen Shimo, as a sign, he is not qualified to continue to go in.

Silent, holding a sneer, leisurely took out his mobile phone and connected the phone to his subordinates in the United States.

Turning on the loudspeaker, he asked in silence:

"where is Musi Li?"

"I've got it. I'm on the roadside in Orange County, California. I've been beaten half dead."

"Oh, it's half dead," Shen Shimo continued with a smile, looking at combo north.
"Then, keep fighting until I stop."

"....." Kangmobei was speechless, and he probably guessed Shen Shimo's intention.

When I turn on the amplifying mobile phone, I hear murushuang's shrieking and murmur from time to time.

"What the hell do you want to do?" Conmo North coldly asked, to the phone that end of the tragic, no response.

"Musili, you treacherous thing, on the surface, you cooperate with me, but in private, you let Kang Mobei take care of your father? Ha ha, I'll see if kangmobei can save you. Tut Tut, it's interesting. " Silent and smiling with interest.

Kangmobei inadvertently looks at Bai nianxi, and his eyes indicate what Bai nianxi is.

"You think I'm going to redeem moustache? Ha ha, don't tease me. It's none of my business whether he's alive or dead. " Commo north cold road.

After listening, he said to the other end of the phone, "Mu Sili, do you hear me? You're a dog. No master wants you. How can you do it? Or you'll be killed. ""What? But... " Hearing Shen Shimo's voice, his voice hesitated, "but this is orange county, and there is 261 toll station in front. There are a lot of people, isn't it suitable here?"

Kangmobei once again, with his eyes to Bai nianxi what, Bai nianxi decisively understand, hurried upstairs, to do what she understood.

"Well, well, don't fight. When I show weakness once," said conmobei, with a slightly weak expression, and then looking up at Shen Shimei, "what do you want?"

"Stop first, don't let Musi die," Shen Shimo said. Looking back at kangmobei, "give me Lumi Island, and I'll let Musi live."

"What's your dream?" said conmobei, amused. "If you want Lumi Island, you can develop it yourself..."

"I want your new Conrad to disappear from the world!" Silent, the beast roars and stares at kangmobei, solemnly.

“.....” Kang Mobei looks at Shen Shimo with a helpless smile, "your tricks can't work. Now, in order to avoid being too whimsical, can you put forward some suggestions that others can do, you know I'm not a fool."

"Ha ha," said Shen Shimei with a sneer, "well, let me change the terms Shen Hedan has arranged billions of investment projects in city A. I want Shen Hedan to lose all his money. As long as you can come up with a method, I will let Mu Sili go at once. "

"Oh, let me see. You wait." Conmo turned his back and quietly looked up to the second floor. He estimated how much time it would take for Bai nianxi.

"Well, the investment case is a trade secret. I don't know what projects he invested in. I can't do it if you ask me to sabotage his investment plan." Conmobei turned around and looked at Shen Shimo seriously.
