

Billionaire CEO Won't Leave

Chapter 420

"Ha ha, it's for my sake." Shen Hedan has been flocking to this novel project for a long time. "3 billion, deal."

"Cheery." Kangmobei raises his thumb to Shen Hedan with a smile.

In the evening, Bai nianxi checked the balance of her private account. Kangmobei has already transferred the revenue into her account. Although the balance of the account has not changed much, it is still worth her being in a good mood.

Bai nianxi, in a good mood, looks at the recent business news in a bored way.

[M + chain has been online for less than two months, but it has snatched half of the cinema's share?]

[amazing! American consortium 3 billion "cabbage price" to buy m + chain!]

“? ? ? ” Bai nianxi was confused, "what? That's all for sale? "

In doubt, Kang Mobei returns to Kang's home. Bai nianxi looks at Kang Mobei coming through the door and asks: "have you sold the M + Chain? Can't it be sold to my brother? "

"Well," said conmobei with a relaxed smile, "this business is laborious. It happens that your brother has no other business in China, and you have Qianqiu in your hands. It's better to run it for him."

"But..."

"I invested 300 million in the early stage and turned 300 million into 3 billion in two months. Is that smart?" Conmbe kept smiling.

Bai nianxi once thought that this business would become the core business of new Kang's, but the change came too fast. She accepted incompetence for a moment: "well, what is the core business of new Kang's?"

"M + game." Conmobeir replied without hesitation.

“..... All right Anyway, in the hands of my brother, it's also a good thing. Bai nianxi's myocardial infarction eased a little.

"When will you pay me back the money you owe me?" Bai nianxi's voice changed and asked.

"Emmm, the purchase price of Lumi Island plot is 4 billion...." Conmobei took out his mobile phone and quietly made the transfer operation, "I gave you 1 billion before, and there are 3 billion Well, check it out. "

"What about construction investment?" Bai nianxi was lying on the bed, staring at Kang Mobei seriously.

“.....” Kangmobei looked at Bai nianxi: "mine is yours, yours..."

"Mine or mine." Bai nianxi stares at Kang Mobei firmly.

"Well!" The Kang Mo North dint nods to affirm a way.

Conmobei silently looks at the balance. Originally, after the M + chain was sold to Shen Hedan, he accumulated a large amount of wealth at one stroke. In addition to the real estate sales revenue and game revenue of Lumi Island, the balance exceeds 8 billion. However, he takes a look at Bai nianxi Conmobei found that the money was not enough to pay off the debt.

Mu Liancheng sold off his shares in a large amount and left the house alone. Shen Shi realized that when Mu was abandoned unilaterally by Mu's family, Mu's shares had fallen to a terrible level.

"Why do you have to take a stake in this mess? There is no place to spend more money?" Wei Xia once again opened the nagging mode of reprimand, to Shen Shimo impolitely forced to nag.

Shen Shimo's heart was full of fire. The initial investment of 4 billion mu's shares, now only a little bit of slag, in addition to slag, and Mu's mess fell into his hands.

There is no place to spread anger, but Mu's family has no whereabouts, and his subordinates in the United States have no response

After Shen Hedan rescues Mu Sili, he strips Shen Shimo's men and leaves them in the wilderness. Naturally, they can't get in touch with Shen Shimo.

After escaping from Wei Xia's reprimand, Shen Shimo angrily ordered his opponent:

"is the bucket dead in America? How come there's no reply? Contact them for me! "

His subordinates were shocked to give the order, but the call had been made for hundreds of times, and he couldn't get through to his subordinates in the United States.

But after contacting the U.S. headquarters, the headquarters of the Wei family is actually investigating the reasons why these people are missing.

Shen Shimo realized that he was trapped. When he went to Kang's house to confront kangmobei that day, he didn't realize that kangmobei's weakness was just a delay. In that short period of more than 20 minutes, Shen Didan's men in the United States had found Mu Sili according to clues. He not only took Mu Sili and mu Rushuang away, but also left his men in a deserted place.

"Ah After hearing the news, Shen Shimo roared and went crazy.

With M + chain group in hand, Shen Hedan took the opportunity to hold a business cocktail party in city A. many large and small enterprises eager to obtain investment were invited to attend.

The reception is magnificent, and komobi is also very proud to take part in the reception with Bai nianxi.

"Welcome to our reception. I hope you have a good time." Shen Hedan, as the host, welcomes all the business elites who come here.

"Mr. Shen, you are doing well in America. Why do you choose to come to a city at this time?" One entrepreneur asked with curiosity.

"Ha ha, the reason is very simple. There's a shitty stick in city A. I can only come back to stabilize the commercial development of city a with the posture of a Poseidon needle." Shen Hedan satirized Shen Shimo's failure after he took a stake in Mu family with humorous words."Ha ha ha, Mr. Shen is so interesting."

Shen Hedan's words made the guests laugh.

"If you want me to say that, the Mu family is too miserable. It was good originally, but when Shen Shimo came, it not only turned into a mess, but also the development of the stock market was miserable. Tut Tut, I really pity that Mu family has been working hard for decades."

With Shen Hedan taking the lead in ridicule, the guests no longer worry about anything, sharp words said Mu's bad luck.

"Ha ha, that is, if you want me to tell you, silence has only the ability to toss about like this. It's not the ability to do great things."

"Who do you think you are?"

All of a sudden, the cold atmosphere of super low pressure, with this voice, instantly permeated the whole party.

They turned back in silence, looking for the source of the voice. When they saw that Shen Shimo had come uninvited, they were afraid to breathe. After all, even if he had no ability, he was also a powerful young master of the Wei family.

"Oh, you're here. How can I remember I didn't give you an invitation?" Shen Hedan saw Shen Shimo with a faint smile on his face.

Silence, anger, which also tube the etiquette.

"Hit me!" Shen Shimo shouts an order to his men at the door, and his men rush into the splendid cocktail party, holding an iron bat and smashing everything they see.

"Ah!"

All of a sudden, a group of female guests screamed and ran away. Shen Didan stared at the silence in front of her.

"No one who dares to go to my court will come to a good end."

"You don't know who is the first to smash the field."

In the cold confrontation between them, the two gangs turned a good reception into a fight on both sides.

"Silence

A vicious shout, let silent subconsciously back over the head - Musi from?

Musi Li glared at Shen Shimo without hesitation, and an iron fist fell on Shen Shimo's face with all the humiliations in the past.
