

Billionaire CEO Won't Leave

Chapter 434

"Only the Ministry of foreign affairs can intervene in this matter."

After many meetings, Shen Hedan's elite team's only way to think of is to find the Ministry of foreign affairs to intervene.

Looking at the elite under his command, he bowed his head one after another, thinking deeply.

"Let's collect information and evidence first. As long as the information is strong, the Ministry of foreign affairs will believe our claim. Once the situation gets out of control, we can't solve it. General manager Shen..." The lawyer had a worried look on his face.

"I see. Have you sorted out the data?" Shen He Dun light a, eyebrow still deep lock, he has thought of who to look for.

"Well! The data will be collected in an hour. " The Secretary said.

"OK, hurry up. I'll get ready. I'll go to the capital in an hour to book my ticket." After Shen Hedan finished his account, he got busy. Before he went to the capital, he had to get in touch with the relevant people.

That night, Shen Hedan got off the plane at the capital airport and hurried to the Information Department of the Ministry of foreign affairs.

The director general of the Department of information has long been informed of his arrival and is still waiting for him, even though it is late at night.

After Shen Hedan gave the information to the director general of the Department of information, who was in contact with him, the more he looked down, the darker his face became.

"Do you mean that if the identities of these two Chinese citizens are exposed, the US side will impose sanctions on China for an excuse?" Asked the director of the information department with a cold face.

Shen Hedan nodded: "now the identities of the two have not been exposed. Before that, what we have to do is to tell the international community that the place where the head of state got sick is not on the cruise ship, but in other places. We must seize the initiative, otherwise everything will be out of control."

"Well, I know. I will contact the foreign minister and ask him to provide a medical team in the name of diplomacy to the Middle East. At that time, the investigation results will be announced by us. By the way, what's the situation of these two citizens now? If you need help, you can contact me. " Shen Hedan was flattered when the director general handed out his business card.

"Thank you. I'm sorry to disturb you in your busy schedule." Shen Hedan was already very excited when the director general agreed to intervene.

"It's a matter of national interest. Of course, we should pay attention to it."

The Middle East countries rely on China's economic development policies to develop their economy. When we put forward to provide assistance medical teams, the Middle East naturally agreed. Shen Hedan's idea finally became a reality a few days later.

On the surface, the crisis was successfully resolved.

"Hum!"

In a luxurious Western Palace, Mr. DK, a white man in the west, snorted angrily. In front of him, there were relevant news reports.

[the head of state of the Middle East died of an accident when he visited the army. At present, the source of the infection is under investigation.]

[in view of the backward medical conditions in the Middle East, China has sent a medical team of humanitarian assistance to assist in the investigation of epidemic diseases in the Middle East.]

Mr. DK originally wanted to cause chaos in the Middle East and sell various kinds of weapons while it was in chaos. However, now, all developments are unexpected to Mr. DK.

The death of the head of state and the settlement of the case with an unfortunate illness did not cause regional chaos, let alone realize it. It has become a powerful reason for the US side to sanction China!

"Ask the head of Wei family to come here!" Mr. DK said angrily.

Wei Xia had been waiting outside the door with fear, and suddenly things turned out like this. Of course, Wei Xia did not expect that China's response strategy was so timely, and she was also unprepared.

"Give me a reasonable explanation." Mr. DK stares at Wei Xia and says angrily.

Wei Xia put on an embarrassed smile: "you listen to my explanation..."

"If you hadn't leaked the secret, it wouldn't have been like this!" DK face Wei Xia's evasive words, words is more intense.

"I swear, Weishi didn't reveal any secrets!" Wei Xia a face firm way.

"Is it useful to say that! Do you still rely on me for your blue biotechnology to flourish? I've provided you with so much R & D funds. What's the result? " Having lost at least tens of billions of dollars of wealth, Mr. DK is certainly very angry. All his efforts and planning are in vain.

"It's quite complicated. Please give me some time, Mr. DK. I'll..." Wei Xia's voice was coldly interrupted by Mr. DK.

"You don't need Wei's participation in this matter any more. You are out! Bring those two men's heads up to me

After huffing and puffing, Mr. DK stormed the table and left.

Wei Xia's heart was startled to jump suddenly, but fortunately, fortunately passed, she took a deep breath.

"What about Shen Shimo?" Wei Xia said angrily to her entourage's secretary.

"In At home. " The Secretary responded in a low voice.

"Tell him to clean up the mess! Two heads. You heard that, too. "

Wei Xia, with a black face, left the Western Palace in a hurry.

"Grilled fish, do you want to eat?" Mousse rolled his trousers, wet feet, stained with a layer of sand.

He used the ancient drill wood to make a fire, and he succeeded in making a fire. It was dark soon. Before dark, musili worked hard to catch some fish.

And komobi is still sweating down trees.Kangmobei, who had been hungry for a long time, didn't get away from Musi. After receiving the roast sea fish from Musi, kangmobei gobbled it up.

"I'm going to spend the night here tonight..." Mousse was a little scared from the bottom of his heart.

Kangmobei snorted gently, then continued to eat grilled fish.

The silence lasted for a long time. As the day was getting dark, kangmobei ate two grilled fish and had a full stomach.

"Let's spend the night anywhere and try to get the boat back tomorrow..." Before he finished speaking, kangmobei stopped by himself. He was busy for most of the day, and then he cut down two trees. How could he make a good raft tomorrow.

"It's only about 10 nautical miles, about 20 kilometers, from the shore. Let's swim with driftwood..." Mu Sili's tone is not strong enough. Unconsciously, they are discussing the countermeasures together.

"No, we can't turn back and go ashore. What if the silent people are waiting for us?" Conmber is a little thoughtful.

"20 kilometers is far away. If we go in the opposite direction, we don't know how long it will take to drift. We have no other choice. It's a big deal to go elsewhere." Musili said.

"Well, that's the only way. If the distance is 20 kilometers, assuming 1 meter in 1 second, we have to row for more than five hours. In addition, we have to make a detour to get ashore in eight hours."

Unconsciously, the two gradually reached an agreement.

I had a night's sleep on the freshly felled trees. The sea breeze at night made me a little cold. The morning sun and the cold woke me up. Musili's face was sickly pale.

"Get up and try to start at noon." Kangmobei didn't sleep well and was eager to survive. He woke up early.

"Well." Moussili answered softly, got up obediently and did things.
