

Billionaire CEO Won't Leave

Chapter 435

In the fierce sun, the two men were sweating. The simple raft made of vines and tree trunks was finally finished.

After testing the buoyancy, the two sat up tremblingly and rowed hard with the sun as the direction.

A few hours later, they finally saw the coastline in sight.

Musi from cold sweat and hot sweat mixed, the body gradually a little weak, but still hard to support, did not tell Conmobei that he was uncomfortable.

As it nears the shore, the setting sun gradually sinks to the bottom of the sea.

On the shore, it seems that there is nothing unusual, and there is no one at all. The two of them lean cautiously to the shore. Conmobei reaches out his hand and drags mousse to the shore.

After a short rest, they dragged their heavy legs forward. Although they didn't know where to go, they could only go one step at a time.

Gradually, in front of the crowd, there are dilapidated Street buildings.

When the crowd saw these two different faces, they showed a warm smile, or because they were shy, the local people were embarrassed to say hello to them.

There seems to be no hostility Conmber looked cautiously at those who had been staring at him.

"Chinese?" A bolder local asked tentatively in a mixture of Chinese and English.

Kangmobei nodded with a bitter smile.

This response, in exchange for warm care.

"Where are you going? Why are you wet? "

"Need help?"

Kangmobei and muse look at each other face to face. They are in a foreign country. Their sudden kindness makes them a little caught off guard, and their hearts are also moving.

"We need to spend the night, we have a problem." Conmobei is trying to say that he needs help.

"No problem, you go ahead, there is a hotel you can stay in, tell the front desk about you, they will keep you." People said enthusiastically.

Kangmobei is in a better mood. When he looks back at xiangmusi Li with a smile, his bitter smile is mixed with some difficulty. Then kangmobei realizes that something is wrong with him.

"What's the matter with you? Sick? " Asked conmber.

Musili shook his head: "let's go."

The so-called Hotel, in fact, is a simple two-story building. In China, it's not even a CYTS, but at least it has a bed, at least it doesn't have to sleep on the beach.

Two people each lie on the bed ready to rest, the hotel staff, warmly sent free food, two people even say thank you.

The friendship and protection from the local people made him puzzled and moved. He was puzzled because he had not been in danger. He was moved by his nationality and the friendship of foreigners to Chinese nationals.

Why is there no danger? Conmber thought about it.

According to Wei's plan, the two of them should be wanted, however, the wanted did not appear.

"Did Shen Hedan think of a way?" Conmber spoke out subconsciously.

"Well?" Musili thought he was talking to himself.

"Don't you think it's strange? According to Wei's plan, we should be wanted, but it didn't happen Conmobei sat up and looked at Musi Li with a serious face.

"So?" Musili had no strength to think, as if he had caught a cold. He had no strength. Behind his ears, the wound left by conmobei's direct removal of the eavesdropper and tracker with a knife was also faintly painful.

"I guess it was Shen He who delayed. His method worked, and we avoided the wanted man." Conmobei is more and more sure that this is the case, and his heart is gradually relieved.

"Probably, I hope so." Mousse was curled up, ready to sleep.

Conmobei looked at his tired face and finally stopped disturbing his rest.

Late at night, conmobei suddenly woke up, he did not know when he fell asleep, dark window, has a disturbing effect.

“BOOM! ”

All of a sudden, a bang came into his ears. Conmobei was startled, while Musi Li was shocked and woke up. Subconsciously, he jumped out of bed and sat up.

"What's the situation?" Mousse looked away at conmobei with a frightened look on his face.

Before Kang Mobei could respond, he burst into flames like fireworks.

"Bang!" The voice was a little late to follow the fire light. Kangmobei knew that there was a sudden situation, so he quickly picked up Musi and ran out.

Behind him, the sound of explosion started everywhere, and they ran to the distance in a panic.

Moussili shivered and looked into the distance at the dilapidated Hotel, where he was still sleeping just now. For a moment, he could not react to what had happened.

"Let's go. It may be aimed at us." Conmobei came to this conclusion subconsciously.

Drag musili all the way running, until the fire can no longer be seen, can only vaguely see the smoke, musili issued an exclamation.

Looking back, he found that his arm was a little hot. He looked at his arm by moonlight, and his arm was flowing with bright red blood. "You're hurt!" Moussili quickly took off his shirt, red fruit on the upper body, the shirt "stabbed" torn into strips of cloth, tightly tied the bleeding arm of conmobei.

"Maybe it was accidentally blown up just now. I'm fine. I have to get out of here as soon as possible." Conmobei doesn't feel pain and danger. He urges him to leave quickly.

Looking back, Musi Li is staring at his face. They look at each other. A few seconds later, they smile at each other.

I didn't expect that the two people who have been opposing each other openly and secretly also support each other to escape from danger. Some of them are ironic, and some of them make people laugh and cry.

"It's already the fifth day. How come there's no news yet!" Bai nianxi was at home, pacing back and forth, nervous and anxious, which made her look haggard.

After reporting to the information department overnight, Shen Hedan went back to city a overnight and arrived at Kang's home the first time.

Bai nianxi's anxiety, what Shen did not expect, was that he felt guilty when he saw his sister's anxiety.

"Don't worry At least komorbei is still alive. " Shen Hedan said with a bitter smile.

"I don't just want him alive! I want him back! " Bai nianxi looks at his brother in pain.

Shen Hedan lowered his head: "the Wei family's plan has failed, so kangmobei will not be wanted or charged. As long as he is alive, he can come back safely."

Bai nianxi looks at his brother with a dead face and is silent.

"I'll look for it, too, OK? Nianxi, don't let me worry about you. " Shen Hedan's face is full of heartache.

"On the fifth day, he hasn't come back. Even if he is alive, it means he is still in danger. If not, why doesn't he come back?" As Bai nianxi spoke, two lines of tears welled up in his eyes.

Shen Hedan said that in order to get kangmobei out of danger, he let Wei's wishful thinking completely fail. This is a kind of offence worth tens of billions of dollars. How can Wei be willing to let it go.

However, he didn't even know where commobei was, let alone how to rescue him. The current danger could only be resolved by commobei and mousse. He could do nothing but wait for himself to come back.
