

Billionaire CEO Won't Leave

Chapter 441

"I can't touch water recently. I'd better take a bath after a week. In case of infection again, these anti-inflammatory drugs will be useless."

The nurse who changed the infusion bottle for Musi told him.

"Yes, thank you." Moussili took his eyes away from the book, looked up at the nurse, and said thanks.

The nurse's skin is very white and her facial features are very delicate. It can be seen that she doesn't have make-up, maybe because she is too busy with work, or she doesn't like make-up

After wandering about for a while, Musi Li realized that he seemed to think something he shouldn't think about.

"There are many scars on your body. Where did you get them? I don't care for my body so much, tut." The nurse randomly nagged a, after changing the infusion bottle ready to leave.

Moussili has hardly seen any scars on her body, but she is very concerned about them?

"What's your name?" Moussili looked at her and her busy hair floated out of the nurse's hat. It was a bit of sweat.

The nurse looked at Mu Sili, and their eyes collided. The next second, the nurse's face was a little red.

"Qin ruoqing." With a blush in response to the three words, the nurse almost trotted away from mousse.

Moose has shaken his mind. Recently, it seems that he is always distracted? In other words, it's easy to be absorbed by others.

"Mr. Shen, Mr. u said he agreed to meet you. Please go in."

At the gate of a high-rise building, Shen Hedan sat in the car, waiting for the Secretary to go to inform him, and then came back to inform him.

Hearing this, Shen Hedan got out of the car and went to the magnificent interior of the building.

"Mr. u, Mr. Shen Hedan is here."

A white man, respectfully reporting to the man behind the boss's desk.

The man turned his back to the boss's desk, heard the sound and turned the boss's chair half a circle, facing in front of him: "well, tell him to come in."

After Shen Hedan got the consent, he came to Mr. U. Shen Hedan said to himself that a minister was in such a big battle It's hard to imagine what kind of treatment he's given to the big people above him

"Hello, Mr. U." Shen Hedan smiles politely.

"To be frank, what's the matter." Mr. u is in a hurry. He raises his hand and looks at his watch.

"Your action a few days ago almost killed my brother-in-law." Shen He Dan is frank.

"Oh," Mr. u said without any emotional change, "that is to say, your brother-in-law is responsible for my tens of billions of dollars of business?"

Shen Hedan's face was cold: "what Mr. u said is wrong. It is clear that the Wei family is not good at handling affairs."

"Ha ha, it's interesting. Tell me more about it." Mr. u looked up at his men.

Behind Shen Hedan, there was a light and crisp sound. It was the sound of the door being locked. Shen Hedan was sweating.

"What does Mr. u mean by locking the door? Can't anyone who knows your secret survive? " Shen Hedan did not shy away from it. He used the way of retreating to make the scene tense and relaxed.

"Ha ha, since the words are so clear, and I don't like to talk nonsense, if you can consciously, it would be better." Said, Mr. u from the boss desk drawer, straight out of a left wheel.

Shen Hedan is in a cold sweat. He's in a tiger's den.

"The Wei family is not good at handling affairs. How does Mr. u plan to deal with the Wei family?" Shen Hedan asked calmly.

"That's my business."

"Since the Wei family has made Mr. u suffer heavy losses, why not take the business of the Wei family as his own?" Shen Hedan said the words he had thought for a long time.

"I'm not interested in small business. Are you finished?" Mr. u is a little impatient.

"Even if I'm not interested, the Wei family is not worthy of your protection, and it's too dangerous to put biological research and development in the United States. It's better to put it directly in the relevant areas. Although I'm not very good in the United States, I have a lot of contacts in other countries." Shen Hedan ignored Mr. U's impatience and threw out his value.

"Oh, for example?"

"In the Middle East, I have a lot of contacts." The Middle East is a favorite place for military industry groups.

"It sounds like you are quite useful, ha ha." Mr. u finally showed a rare smile, and then slowly put the left wheel back into the drawer.

Seeing this, Shen Hedan finally eased the tension in his heart.

"If you need Middle East connections, I can, and I don't want any reward." Shen Hedan said.

"What do you want?" Mr. u asked.

"Although the Wei family looks humble, the scale of various businesses still has a scale of 10 billion US dollars. Even if Mr. u can't see it, it's reasonable to take it as his own to make up for the loss. As an exchange of contacts, I want the Wei family to disappear from the United States." Shen Hedan said calmly.

"Oh, I see what you mean," Mr. u stood up and walked slowly to Shen Hedan's side. "You are the Wei family's competitor. Ha ha, I see." "You may consider my proposal. Excuse me." Shen Hedan said goodbye politely and quickly, then walked to the door quickly.

Mr. u nodded to his subordinates. His subordinates opened the anti lock door and Shen Hedan left.

In the car, Shen Hedan wiped his cold sweat with his handkerchief. It was like walking through a circle of ghost gates! It's scary!

"How about Mr. Shen?" The secretary looked at Shen Hedan, worried and nervous.

Shen Hedan calmed down a little: "I always feel that I have entered the big tiger pool from the small tiger cave."

"If Mr. u agrees with your proposal, try to do only one-time business at that time, so as to avoid continuous constraints." The Secretary said very professionally.

"Well, that's what I think. I'll go back and raise your salary. Let's go." After Shen Hedan relaxed his heart, he was paralyzed in his seat.

Shen Shimo received his mother's notice and told him to go back to the United States to clean up the mess. Mr. u hasn't looked for her for a long time. Even if she took the initiative to look for Mr. u, Mr. u didn't care.

The uneasiness before the ending is settled makes Wei Xia tremble in her heart.

"Has conbmer returned to China?" After hearing the report, Wei Xia stood up in anger and surprise.

He held his depressed chin in silence. He was worried and worried. His eyes glanced at his mother from time to time. He was worried about how he would bear the cost.

"Mr. u has been disappointed with me. He can't even do this little thing well?" Wei Xia scolded angrily.

Shen Shimo was full of anger: "you shouldn't find Musi Li!"

"You have the face to say! Who was going to use him at the beginning! "

"How do I know that conbmer will follow musili?"

.....

During their quarrel, Wei Xia's men rushed to the door: "Mr. Wei, that Mr. u wants to see you... "

Hearing this, their faces turned white.
