

Billionaire CEO Won't Leave

Chapter 443

"Call the police! Call 120! "

A few seconds later, someone finally responded to make an emergency call. Conmobei was exhausted because of the pain. He took a look at the blood hole in his back and sat down on the ground.

With the screeching sound of the siren, the ambulance came slowly. Kangmobei was moved to the stretcher and quickly carried away. Bai nianxi also hurriedly followed. There were always people around talking to her, but she could not hear what they said.

"Fortunately, the blood loss is not too much, the first aid is timely, the bed rest for two months can recover, do not have to do surgery." After the doctor's expressionless report, he left the ward in a hurry.

Bai nianxi breathed a sigh of relief and raised his eyes. Kang Mobei was thinking.

"Don't worry, the doctors say I'm ok." Squeeze out a smile, comfort way.

"Ah..." Bai nianxi didn't know what to say, but sighed helplessly.

Kang Mobei is thinking about who started on himself. The first thing he thought about is Shen Shimo.

Blame yourself for being too kind, just let him lose his power, not his life Conmberg regretted being indecisive.

After hearing the news, Kang Liqing and Kang Xinyue came in a hurry in fright. After learning that there was no big deal in kangmobei, they didn't even dare to breathe a sigh of relief. They nagged about their concerns.

"What? "Attack on conmber?" Musili was surprised when he received the news.

After hanging up the phone, moussili comes to the hospital in a hurry. After confirming that commobei is OK, he is also angry. He leaves the hospital and goes straight to the villa where he is hiding.

Wei Xia and Shen Shimo, who lost their shelter in the United States, rushed home.

Shen Shimei, who used to help mu Rushun hide in the United States because there was no extradition treaty between China and the United States, now takes advantage of this loophole and hides at home.

He kicked open the door of the villa, and Shen Shimo hid here.

Suddenly, Musi Li grabs Shen Shimo, who is still drinking tea leisurely. He is beaten violently on the spot. Shen Shimo can't even react to the fight.

"Shen Shimo! I tell you! If I see your dirty means again! It's not as simple as a beating! I'll make you lose your life Mu Sili glared at Shen Shimo, and grasped his collar tightly.

"I..." Shen Shimei was beaten suddenly and couldn't respond to what he asked or said.

Rudeness throws moussili to the ground, and moussili leaves indignantly.

"The soup is still hot. Take care of Mobei and ask him to eat more."

Kang Xinyue hastily takes the food prepared at home to the hospital in a heat preservation lunch box. After it is handed over to Bai nianxi, she keeps telling him.

Bai nianxi was in the hospital. After taking the meal, he nodded and hurried into the ward.

"Dinner, Mobei." When Bai nianxi saw that Kang Mobei was sleeping, he called in a low voice.

Conmber opened his eyes when he heard the sound. The smell of the food lured his stomach to growl.

"OK, let's eat together."

In the dining room, kangmobei has a good appetite. The door of the ward is suddenly pushed open. Bai nianxi looks back. A doctor is carrying a tray with a bottle of infusion bottle and disposable infusion tube.

"It's time for an infusion." The doctor whispered.

"Well." Bai nianxi takes the bed table to one side in a hurry.

Commobei with roll up the sleeve, convenient for doctors to connect the infusion tube to the detained needle.

Before leaving, the doctor took a meaningful look at the infusion bottle, and then left in a hurry.

"Keep eating. Eat more. You'll recover faster." Bai nianxi said.

Conmobei nodded slightly, but he felt that his breathing was gradually heavy, shaking his head, and a faint attack of dizziness.

"Dizzy..." He said subconsciously.

"Dizziness?" Bai nianxi doubts.

"Breathe Er... " The sense of suffocation blocked the voice of conmbe.

No! Kangmobei's vigilance went online instantly, and also remembered that he had looked back at the infusion bottle just before the doctor left.

"Nianxi Call the doctor Come here... " After the difficult speech, in the seven halos and eight elements, kangmobei strongly held the last consciousness, decisively pulled out the infusion tube, and even the detained needle was pulled down.

The next second, conmbe fell into deep darkness.

"Mobei? Are you okay? Mo Bei! "

Seeing kangmobei fall into a coma, Bai nianxi screams in fright. Within ten seconds after the emergency button is pressed, two doctors quickly run over.

As soon as he checked the signs of kangmobei, the two doctors frowned and said, "it seems to be acute poisoning! Hurry to arrange the ICU ward! "

"Yes The nurse behind him ran away in a hurry, and the ward was in a mess.

After the meal, Kang Xinyue walked slowly in the corridor of the hospital, but her shoulder was suddenly hit from behind. She raised her eyes, and the person who hit her was wearing a white coat, walking towards the gate in a hurry."It's rude..." Kang Xinyue murmured discontentedly.

"Arrange the ICU ward quickly! Patient acute poisoning! First aid is needed immediately

Murmuring voice down, Kang Xinyue around, a group of doctors and nurses in a hurry to run back and forth, convey.

"Poisoning?" Kang Xinyue was frightened and rushed back to the ward of kangmobei.

Outside the ward, only Bai nianxi was sitting outside with a face full of pain, and his expression was full of remorse.

"What's the matter? What's the matter? " Kang Xinyue asked in a hurry.

Bai nianxi raised his face and his face was covered with messy tears: "the doctor just now It's like a fake doctor... "

Kang Xinyue lost his chin in amazement, and instantly remembered the white coat that hit his shoulder. He walked in a hurry, as if he was running away

After teaching Shen Shimo a lesson, Mu Sili had a quick meal outside. Then he came to the hospital and was ready to accompany Kang Mobei.

Having experienced the previous events, moussili put down his heart and regarded commobei as an important friend.

"Nianxi? What about Mobei? Why not in the ward? "

Musi left the ward and saw that Bai nianxi seemed to be sleeping against the wall, so he looked up into the ward, but it was empty.

Awakened by the sound, Bai nianxi opens his eyes from the shallow closed eyes: "kangmobei has been poisoned, and now he is in the ICU ward for emergency treatment."

"What? How could that be? " Moussili was terrified.

Bai nianxi said with a bitter smile that he suspected that there was a fake doctor in the ward. Mu Sili was confused.

At that time, he just went to teach Shen Shimei a lesson. It seems that Shen Shimei seems I don't seem to have time to start with conmobei

If you think about it a little further, Shen Shimei should be happy after he had just committed a fierce attack on commo north. But his expression is pressure mountain, and there is no happiness at all.

Is Not silence? Mousse shook his mind.

It's not Shen Shimo's usual plan to commit a murder with a knife in broad daylight and arrange for a fake doctor to go to the hospital. At least Shen Shimo's mind is delicate and calm. Who is it?
