

Billionaire CEO Won't Leave

Chapter 456

Shen Hedan was afraid that he would not be able to hold on if he was excited any more, so he called the doctor to give him a sedative. He managed to make Mousi quiet. Shen Hedan had no choice but to calm down for a while.

After thinking about it, mu Rushun has already done so. He can only bring them back to China, not stay in the United States.

Although mu Rushuang is wanted on her back, she is in a vegetative state and the police will not deal with her.

After going through all the formalities and buying the air ticket quickly, Shen He Danjing and other sedatives dissipated. I hope that after Mu Sili wakes up, he won't be so excited.

Musi from the dream, obviously know that he is in a dream, dream of the past, a harmonious family scene.

At that time, my sister was not hurt, she could walk by herself - it was so good.

My father is still strong, and the company is thriving under his management

Open your eyes, dream like a wisp of smoke, no feelings to the ethereal scattered, Musi from the dream, and cruel pricked the heart.

He turned his head around and took a look at his father and sister. Musi Li was angry and sad. He buried his head in the pillow and couldn't help crying.

Hearing this, Shen Hedan got up and sat down beside him. He raised his hand and comforted him a little: "go back to China first, and take good care of them. I've finished all the procedures."

"Wu Wu Wu..."

"Ah Kangmobei is beset with lawsuits, so I can't leave the country. I came here specially for you. I'm obedient and ready to go back home. "

Shen Hedan looked at Musi Li, who was wronged and weak, and cried bitterly. He felt a little sad in his heart.

"Three days Still didn't come... " Qin ruoqing's work as a nurse is going on as usual.

Mu Si hasn't appeared for three days. Qin ruoqing went to Mu's home in person. She managed to summon up the courage to knock on the door, but there was no response at all.

Don't know where muose left, she can only guess.

In the past, she didn't feel that the work of a nurse was boring and hard at all. Because she had expectations in her heart, she rejected going to work for the first time.

Inadvertently, Qin ruoqing took advantage of her spare time to take out her mobile phone and input "Musi Li" on the search engine.

Unexpectedly, there are the latest search results?

[mu Liancheng, the former president of Mu family, is suspected to have been robbed in the United States! Mulian city to the United States! ]

[it has been confirmed that the winner is mu Rushun, the daughter of the president of Mu's company, who is now in a vegetative state! ]

"what?" Qin ruoqing watched the search results from the blue, and her brain emptied instantly.

"Ruoqing? It's time to change the patient's dressing! If it's fine? "

There was a reminder from her colleagues. She heard it, but she didn't even respond to it.

The next second, Qin ruoqing starts to run and rushes towards the Mu family.

Because mu Rushuang needed external instruments to support vital signs, Shen Hedan had to charter a plane to return home. After the plane landed on an apron in city a, the ambulance connected quickly moved mu Rushuang into the car, and then galloped away.

"You take your father home first, mu Rushun. I'll watch for you." Shen Hedan said faintly to Leng Leng's Musi Li, then got on his car, followed the ambulance in front and left in a hurry.

"Ha ha, such as frost..." Murian city's laughter, harsh came.

"Dad Can you stop... " Moussili choked.

"Ha ha ha..."

Mu family, no one, Qin ruoqing do not know what they are doing, she is just eager to see Mu Sili.

After confirming that there was no one at home, Qin ruoqing didn't want to leave at all. She always felt that she could wait until Musi came back.

In the absence of imagination, a black car slowly drove into Qin ruoqing's sight.

Losing focus, Tan ruoqing sees the black car and stops in front of her.

"Musili?" Qin ruoqing was overjoyed subconsciously.

Musi left the co pilot in a hurry, went around to the back seat with the driver, and slowly helped Mu Liancheng out of the car.

Qin ruoqing's smile solidified on her face, quietly watching the rush and slow action of Musi Li, slowly helping Musi Li into the door, passing by, Musi Li didn't even look up at her.

The feeling of being ignored is very uncomfortable, but Qin ruoqing soon found the words of self comfort - he encountered a very serious thing, neglect is very normal, I want to help him.

Following the driver into Mu's home, Qin ruoqing did not say a word.

"Who are you?" When the driver saw someone coming behind him, he asked.

Mu Sili helps his father to sit on the sofa, hears the sound, and then looks back at Qin ruoqing.

The lips and teeth wriggled for a while, and a touch of sadness flashed by. In a moment, he recovered his expressionless face: "it's my friend, you've worked hard, you go back."

"I'll wait for you in the car, Mr. Shen said. He asked me to be your driver for a while." With a faint sound, the driver left the gate of Mu's house."Ha ha ha I want to eat fruit. Rushuang likes fruit. " Mu Liancheng giggles and talks real nonsense.

Mousse's nose is sour. I don't know how to get along with such a father.

Seeing this, Qin ruoqing also understands what happened to Mu Liancheng. She has been in contact with many people who are mentally retarded.

"Sili, go and help. I'll take care of your father for you." Qin ruoqing tries to squeeze out a brilliant smile, hoping that she can help him, even if her help is insignificant, it can be replaced.

Musi was absent-minded and asked casually, "aren't you at work? You go back. I can do it myself. "

"....." Hearing this, Qin ruoqing subconsciously feels that she has no value to him. His coldness is different from before.

"Don't you believe me? I'm here to help you take care of your father. I know you still have something to do. Go ahead and trust me. I'm a nurse. I can take care of your father. " Qin ruoqing is very afraid of Musi Li, but she still wants to help him.

"You misunderstood me. I'm afraid of delaying your work," musley explained. "I know it's your working time."

"I can quit. I can take care of your father full time." Qin ruoqing feels Mu Sili's heart, and her joy makes her more radical.

"....." Musi didn't know what to say, though he was still upset.

"I know I don't have the ability to do anything, but I still want to do something for you... " Qin ruoqing droops her head slightly and purses the corners of her mouth.

Moussili gave a wry smile: "I'm sorry, I'm not very rational recently. I might say something to hurt you, then I have to go to the hospital. I'll ask you at home. "

After that, Musi left and hurried to the door, looking very lonely and small.

Yao Mei lived in various countries. She knew that when she disappeared, it was the time when they were most frightened.

I do not know when, from the dark against the unexpected hit, hit, so defenseless.

"Ha ha." Yao Meishuang, smile.

So, they are already suffering without having to do anything.

Why their son died, why they still live so beautiful.

It's not fair!
