

Billionaire CEO Won't Leave

Chapter 458

"Ha ha ha, delicious." Mu Liancheng trembled with his unsophisticated right hand, picked up vegetables by himself and sent them to his mouth.

The hand seems to have lost the sense of direction, clearly can hold the chopsticks, but can't, put the head of chopsticks into the mouth accurately, the dish in the chopsticks, because of shaking and falling.

Looking at such a father, Mu Sili's irritability broke out again. He roared and swept the dishes and chopsticks on the table to the ground. The sound of "Ping-Pong" broke everywhere, and Mu Liancheng was stunned.

"Wuwu, you are good or bad!" Mu Liancheng burst into tears.

Cry, let Musi from stunned, he never saw such a father! Restless more surge!

The next day, a few nursing workers were led into the door, but somehow, all the nursing workers couldn't work for long, and they ran away in a few days, even without pay.

Not only is mu Sili's temper bad, but even Mu Liancheng is often hysterical and crazy.

The mad devil is like a curse, cursing the Mu family and falling into a worse situation.

"Sister, you can wake up." Sitting beside mu Rushun's bed, Mu Si murmured absently.

"If it goes on like this When do I have to endure... " Moussili pulled his hair in agony.

Qin ruoqing has disappeared for half a month, and he has been tortured for half a month.

.....

Ward door, wearing a mask of someone, eyes full of sadness, quietly looking at Musi from the back.

The next second, tears filled my eyes.

"What's the use of looking like this? Why don't you tell him that day..."

"Shh, I'm just looking." Qin ruoqing interrupts the elder's words of praying for talent, pretends to turn around and leave coldly.

Qi Tiancai finally looks at the ward, sighs deeply, and then leaves with Qin ruoqing.

"At least eat more. You've lost weight." In a nearby fast food restaurant, Qi Tiancai takes Qin ruoqing and orders two fast food by herself.

Qin ruoqing's expressionless face holding chopsticks, a pair of no appetite appearance.

"If you do that again, I'll go to him!" Qi Tiancai is both distressed and angry at Xuemei's absence.

"No!" Qin ruoqing thought of the luxury of the Mu family and the scenery of the Mu family in the past, "it's wrong that the door is not the door, so forget it."

"What are you talking about?" Qi Tiancai picked out the meat from his fast food and put it all on Qin ruoqing's rice. "Eat it up for me, or I'll go to him and tell him what I went for that day."

"You Well Qin ruoqing, because of her inferiority complex, told her that she would rather just break up, even with misunderstanding on her back.

Kang family, Kang Xinyue made a table full of dishes.

Bai nianxi's daily life is busy with the medical treatment of the three young artists and the business of the company. Recently, he seldom goes home for dinner, and komobi is even more mysterious. He never goes home for several days.

Bai nianxi knows that Kang Mobei is investigating clues. It's only so long that there is no progress. The only progress is that the case of poisoning has been closed. The fake doctor was sentenced to seven years' imprisonment for the crime of illegal medical practice and intentional injury.

It's rare for Kangmo north to come back, and it's also rare for the Kang family to have a dinner together. Therefore, kangxinyue was busy all afternoon and cooked a table of food.

Kang Liqing already knew the situation of Mu family, but between the past, he and Kang Xinyue did not visit.

But there's still curiosity. I'm curious about what's going on in their family.

"Daddy, Mommy! It's time to eat! " Lolo's loud voice told everyone to gather at the table.

When Bai nianxi came home, he took a simple bath and got rid of the tiredness of the day. Then it was just dinner time.

"Here we are." Bai nianxi responds with a smile.

Conmber's face is full of sadness. He is sure that he is upset with the investigation without any progress.

Although Lin Ze's fans came to them to express their thanks after seeing the news earlier, the later development was very unsatisfactory. Capital Lota used its own means to freeze the ins of three young artists, and later issued a statement that their ins were stolen. The previous news was sent by the number robbers.

On the police side, there is still a merger investigation. The investigation process is really very long. There is a lot of evidence for smashing the case and the relevant suspects are wanted. However, because of the merger investigation, the police have to bring the suspects to justice before they can continue the follow-up investigation.

"What do you think? Eat first. " Bai nianxi looks at the distracted Kang Mobei and reminds him.

"Keke," Kang Liqing pretended to clear his throat, "by the way, how is the Mu family now?"

Bai nianxi was silent for a few seconds: "I went to have a look not long ago. Mu Rushun is still in a vegetative state."

"Oh, it seems that there is no help," Kang Liqing muttered to himself, "retribution."

“.....” Bai nianxi's words stopped, and he immediately remembered the cause of his death. The word "retribution" was very reasonable.

"Have you ever asked the doctor what's going on?" Kang Liqing's curiosity is in urgent need of an answer. Bai nianxi shook his head: "it's not the family, the doctor won't say it."

"Well, all right." Kang Liqing concluded the topic with interest.

Hospital, mu Rushuang is under the care of nursing workers, wipe the body, soft body mu Rushuang, let the nursing workers very hard.

After wiping to avoid bed sore, the nurse wanted to say something, and finally shut up and left in silence.

This kind of wiping work is carried out every day. How hard it is, the nurses are not qualified to say. After all, they depend on it to earn money.

"Doctor, is that girl worth saving?" I can't help complaining, but the nurse talked to the doctor.

The doctor grinned bitterly.

"It's really Well The nurse shook his head and left.

The doctor looked at mu Rushuang's case report and found that the vegetative state has lasted for nearly two months. Now all vital signs are supported by external instruments. As long as all external instruments are disconnected, mu Rushuang will stop beating.

And it's painless. After all, she's brain dead.

Family members do not accept reality and do not give up. As doctors, they are not qualified to say more.

"Doctor, it's a meeting."

"Oh, here it is."

In the conference room, the chief physician in charge of Mu Rushuang said bluntly: "Mu Rushuang has no hope of waking up. Even if she has been continuously supported by external instruments, her brain will be in a long time Well, her brain will melt sooner or later. Now there are signs like this. Which one of you can tell the family and persuade them to give up? "

All the doctors looked at each other, and no one dared to take the hot potato.

"I'll do it." At the door, Qin ruoqing suddenly appeared.

"Who are you?"

"I'm a nurse. I used to take care of musili's father. I'll persuade him to be a villain." Qin ruoqing said.

The doctor looked at each other again.

The chief physician is also too lazy to worry about whether he has overstepped his authority: "for her, you can go along with her. It's so decided. The meeting is over."
