

Billionaire CEO Won't Leave

Chapter 461

Early in the morning, Kangmobei was awakened by the knock on the door.

Open your eyes, the Secretary ran to the house.

"What's the matter?" He sat up with no expression on his face and asked as he put on his coat.

Secretary a face worried: "that, the capital Lota filed a lawsuit."

Smell speech, Kang Mo North heart surprised, the police have not yet investigated the progress, happy field actually took the lead to sue?

"According to my analysis, this Lota must have wanted to seize the initiative and be the plaintiff, so he was in such a hurry to submit the lawsuit application. It's better to be the plaintiff than the defendant." The worry on the Secretary's face is even more serious.

It seems that Lota is well prepared Especially the evidence.

After a little thought, Kang Mobei raised a contemptuous smile: "I know, it's OK. Since they are not benevolent, don't blame me for being unjust."

After that, conmobei had changed her coat in a hurry and went to the room where Bai nianxi was. Last night, she was reading very late and probably had a night's sleep in her study.

"Nianxi? Is that all right? " He asked, knocking at the door.

Silent for a few seconds, there was a faint sound of footsteps in the study. Then, the door of the study was opened, and Bai nianxi stood at the door in his home clothes: "what's the matter?"

"Lota filed a lawsuit. In order to seize the opportunity, I plan to also file a lawsuit in the name of the three young people as a counterattack." Conmobei made a brief statement.

Bai nianxi's face flashed a trace of surprise. Even if he regained calm, he saw the Secretary standing behind him. Bai nianxi knew that the situation was urgent, and his proposal was reasonable: "OK, I'll go to the hospital now, discuss with three young people, and try to submit the lawsuit today."

Hearing this, the Secretary's face didn't dissipate much sadness: "I hope it's useful..."

"It must be useful." He said firmly in a hopeful tone.

With Kang Xinyue's long breakfast, Bai nianxi goes straight to the hospital ward where Lin Ze and his wife are.

The three young people worked very hard and woke up early every morning, cooperating with the doctor, doing the necessary medical treatment and simple rehabilitation activities.

"Good morning, Mr. Bai." Lin Ze saw Bai nianxi and wanted to smile, but his expression did not change.

Bai nianxi nodded with a shallow smile: "have breakfast. I'll discuss something with you after eating."

"Oh, let's have a chat over there. Come here and have breakfast." Lin Ze greets the two companions.

Chewing bread, drinking milk, three people waiting for Bai nianxi voice.

Bai nianxi said in a relaxed tone:

"Letian filed a lawsuit against Xinkang group for" violating the property law "and" violating the property management regulations ", accusing lumishima of theft and serious consequences caused by their dereliction of duty. If their claim is supported by the court, then all subsequent violations you suffer can not be reported to Letian Tian has claimed for compensation, so we plan to sue Letian today in the name of the three of you, so as to contain Letian. We need to ask your consent... "

"So shameless?" Without waiting for Bai nianxi to finish, Lin Ze was the first to burst into anger.

Bai nianxi said with a bitter smile: "our investigation of your business has been at a deadlock. Lota has turned all the evidence into invalid evidence, such as the blaster. We found him, but it seems that it doesn't work to find him."

Lin Ze and Wen Guang, Zhuo Tian look at each other, the truth can be tampered with?

"I agree to sue. What about you?" Linze looks back at the other two.

They nodded, but Zhuo Tian said: "we don't know what we can do..."

"It's OK. As long as you nod your head, the rest can be followed up by a lawyer." Bai nianxi said with a smile.

As time goes by, the two trials are going on at the same time, but I didn't expect that the two lawsuits have fallen into a protracted war. A year later, there is no conclusion, and the trial is still going on. Every time the two sides meet in court, it is a fierce tit for tat.

For a year, Mu Sili's face is the fastest growing old. Every day, he is always at the bedside of the hospital, watching Mu Rushan, who is motionless, lying quietly.

Qin ruoqing silently for mu Sili, taking care of some silly Mu Liancheng, every three to five contact senior Qi Tiancai, ask if there is any good treatment.

Fortunately, after a long wait, Qin ruoqing received a notice from her seniors: mental disorders caused by stimulation can be treated by electrotherapy. Electrotherapy stimulates nerves and brain with weak current, which can delete part of memory. Maybe as long as you forget some unpleasant things or feelings, you can recover some consciousness.

After several times of treatment, Mu Liancheng gradually improved. Today, a year later, he is completely back to normal, but his mood is calmer than before. No matter what he heard, he has no feeling.

"Uncle, let's go to the hospital to accompany Sili today."

Early in the morning, Qin ruoqing made breakfast early and took care of muliancheng as usual. Mu Liancheng said with a smile: "well, let's go there after eating."

After a long time together, Mu Liancheng has a good impression on Qin ruoqing. After all, he has taken care of him for more than a year.

Qin ruoqing was silent for a few seconds, and finally said, "by the way, Uncle Let Sili give up. It's been a year. Rushuang won't wake up. "

Hearing this, Mu Liancheng fell into a dead silence. Even though his expression did not change, he just kept silent, which made the atmosphere very awkward.

Until after breakfast, Mu Liancheng spoke again: "let's go to the hospital."

I didn't bother to clean up my beard, and I didn't bother to change my clothes often. My personal image is a little sloppy.

Sitting beside the hospital bed, Musi Li sat silently, without speaking or moving.

Looking at her lonely back, every time, Qin ruoqing retreated and stepped into the ward. She had to hesitate for a long time to think about what topic was suitable for her and not to stimulate her nerves. After thinking about it, she had the courage to step into the ward.

Or because Mu Liancheng also came together, Qin ruoqing finally didn't have to think as much as before, just follow Mu Liancheng to go in together.

"Sili, I'll guard you. Go to dinner." Mu Liancheng said lightly, then sat on the other side of the bed.

Mousse didn't move as if he hadn't heard.

I do not know how long silence, Mu Liancheng opened his voice again: "think from ah, let her go, force to stay, also can't stay, let her go."

Similar words, the doctor said countless times, listen to musu from have already numb.

"I'll wake up. My sister is so strong." Mu Sili smiles and looks at Mu Rushan's face.

Qin ruoqing had already guessed that the answer would be like this. She had no choice but to leave the ward and go to the doctor's office.

The doctor just looked up to see who the visitor was like a "familiar guest", and then dropped his eyes again.

"Try to persuade him again. It's no use sticking to it. The patient's brain is probably beginning to melt."

"..... Melting?" As a former medical worker, Qin ruoqing heard such words for the first time and used them in her brain
