

Billionaire CEO Won't Leave

Chapter 467

Smell speech, Musi subconsciously think of the day his sister died, Qin ruoqing said to himself.

[you are always like this. You always know how to cherish it when you are about to lose it. It's not good. If you grieve for your sister, you still have your father to cherish, and Me. ] the silence on the other end of the phone made Shen He worry about nothing.

"I know. I'll go back now. You told your men to keep an eye on her in Germany. Yao Mei confirmed that she was in Germany. I doubt her She killed my client. " Musi's tone is not emotional.

Kangmobei also frowned and told you to go back home, but he didn't want you to be entangled with bad things.

"I see. Is Gao Shun beside you?" Shen Hedan asked coldly.

"Well, yes." Musili hands his mobile phone to Gao Shun and looks up at him.

Gao Shun took the phone, waiting for orders: "Shen Zong."

"Take him home quickly, and be tough." Shen Hedan gave a hasty order and hung up.

Gao Shun got the order, no longer to musili so patient persuasion, the mobile phone back to musili, then waved to call two men, will musili push into the car, the car disappeared.

In the capital, Bai nianxi went to the court with the lawyer group. Today, there will be another court session. A lawsuit has lasted for more than a year. Bai nianxi no longer hopes that the court will come to a conclusion immediately. In short, he can't lose the lawsuit.

Sitting in the spectator seat to "watch the war", the battlefield of the court was handed over to the team of lawyers.

With the judge's final decision, the whole court became quiet. After the simple and serious courtroom etiquette, the war of words without gunpowder started again.

"Mr. judge, the plaintiff has recently added some documents to prove that Lumi island has been negligent in its property management work. We have always stressed that the direct cause of the accident is the negligence in Lumi island's property management work..."

"We have an objection!"

"Defense is allowed."

"Your honor, we apply for the witness, blasting engineer Meng Tongyuan to testify in court."

"Protest! Mr. Meng Tongyuan is not qualified to testify in court! Your honor, we submitted a psychiatric appraisal report a long time ago. That report is Meng Tongyuan's psychiatric appraisal. The appraisal department has determined that Mr. Meng Tongyuan is a psychotic..."

"Since Mr. Meng Tongyuan is a psychotic, why did your company choose to employ Mr. Meng Tongyuan when hiring a blaster?"

When the heated debate happened again, the judge could only announce a temporary recess again and continue it in the future.

Outside the court, the lawyers frowned and whispered to Bai nianxi about the key points and the basis they needed to supplement, talking and going out.

Mr. Tian Huarong, President of Letian entertainment, is also coming out of the court with a relaxed smile.

Seeing Bai nianxi, Tian Huarong raised a contemptuous smile with the corner of his mouth: "Miss Bai, admit defeat. No matter how long it takes, you will lose."

Bai nianxi hears the news, ignores it directly, continues to talk with his lawyer team, and slowly leaves the door of the court.

Tian Huarong was ignored when he was cold. A trace of discontent rose on his face, but it dissipated when he was not satisfied. His special car was parked in front of him.

The case has been going on for a long time, and fewer and fewer people are concerned about it. Even the media are too lazy to follow up and report on it.

Qin ruoqing anxiously sits in Shen Hedan's office, waiting for Musi to come back.

Conmobei is also here. He is angry. He is always making short-sighted decisions unilaterally.

Dressed in a black suit, Gao Shun comes to Shen Hedan's office with steady steps.

Seeing so many people, Gao Shun didn't say much nonsense: "Musi left, behind."

As soon as the voice fell, Mu Sili, who walked into the office with his head down, came into the sight of everyone.

Looking up for the first time, I saw kangmobei and Qin ruoqing, who was full of joy and anxiety.

"Musili! Can you stop this? It's enough for Shen Hedan's men to track down Yao Mei! What are you doing? What if something happens?" Kangmobei saw Mu Sili, and immediately lost his good spirit. He pointed out in a sharp tone.

Mu Sili looked at Qin ruoqing with a smile, hoping that she would be at ease. Then he turned to kangmobei and said, "I'm sure Yao Mei is in Germany..."

"So what? Can you get her?" Kang Mobei interrupted abruptly, "do you know, if you don't let others press you! What would you do?"

Mu Sili felt that the accusation was a little puzzling. Although he knew that he was a little careless, he felt that after his client's accident, he even lifted the white cloth on his client

But he didn't feel like he was going to have any consequences.

"Well," Shen Hedan raised his hand, made a stop gesture to kangmobei, turned his head and looked at xiangmusili, "Oh, don't do this again, not only can't help me, but also make trouble for me."

Moussili said with a bitter smile: "at least I have Yao Mei in Germany..."

"You think you can find out? What do you think I am? "Fool?" Shen Hedan was angry and laughed. He immediately raised his hand and gave an order to Gao Shun. Looking at Shen Hedan's expression, Gao Shun immediately understood what he meant. Without saying much, he waved to the door. A minute later, there were a lot of footsteps outside.

"Well! "No!"

Before Musi heard the sound, Yao Mei felt familiar. Yao Mei was tightly bound and wrapped in black tape. Two Shen Hedan's men pushed her to the front of the crowd.

"Ah..." Mu Sili was shocked. Yao Mei was caught in front of him?

"Musili! Next time you want to do something, please say it "It's not difficult for Shen Hedan to catch people, but it's not urgent before, and she's not in China, so she can't do anything. Do you understand?"

"Well? So Now it's... " Mousse stammered.

"The news came from nianxi. She was in the capital to deal with the lawsuit, and there was no strong witness to testify in court. The court trial has been very passive. Recently, Lota had a plan to make a quick decision and submitted a lot of evidence at one go. So now, Yao Mei is the key. As long as Yao Mei admitted in court that the day of the explosion accident, the smashing incident was planned by her In fact, the two events are not the same event, so we can take the initiative in the court trial. " Commobei briefs musili on the current situation.

Yao meiben's face was frightened, her mouth was blocked, and she couldn't cry for help in her voice. On the contrary, she reacted faster than Mu sili - since she was so useful, she had vitality.

Moussili's face was flushed, and he felt guilty for his recklessness.

Qin ruoqing didn't say a word all the time. What they said was a big thing. She also listened to them, but she could understand what they were saying. She knew that she had no right to intervene, so she kept silent.

Seeing the communication, Musi Li was obviously persuaded. She walked to musu Li with a sad face, first observed whether he was hurt, and then said: "let's go home, uncle has been talking."
